Sun Yatsen, Robert Wilcox and Their Failed Revolutions, Honolulu and Canton 1895 Patrick

Anderson,2021-06-27 Dynamite on the Tropic of Cancer is the radical explosive retelling of the first decade of the Father of Modern China Dr Sun Yatsen s globally shaped formation as a professional revolutionist and of the impact of the adult Sun s revolutionary relationship with Hawai i and with his varied communities of supporters there during its own most turbulent political decade the 1890s years in which this remote island nation transformed from native monarchy via sovereign independent republic to become the USA s first overseas territory Drawn from neglected primary sources Dynamite reveals the hitherto untold story of the secret revolutionary alliance forged in Honolulu s backstreets between Sun s Xingzhonghui and the idiosyncratic italophile soldier Robert Wilcox Hawai i s Garibaldi and leader of the Kanaka Native Hawaiian counterrevolution of January 1895 This failed uprising to restore Hawai i s tragic last Queen witnessed firsthand by Sun Yatsen became the archetype upon which ten months later Sun would base his own first attempt at armed insurrection in China the Canton uprising of 26 October 1895 With an epic sweep across the Pacific s Tropic of Cancer Dynamite is the most important study yet written on the origins of Sun Yatsen s Chinese Revolution and its dynamic interface with Hawaiian history

Geo-Narratives of a Filial Son Elizabeth Kindall,2020-05-11 Huang Xiangjian a mid seventeenth century member of the Suzhou local elite journeyed on foot to southwest China and recorded its sublime scenery in site specific paintings Elizabeth Kindall s innovative analysis of the visual experiences and social functions Huang conveyed through his oeuvre reveals an unrecognized tradition of site paintings here labeled geo narratives that recount specific journeys and create meaning in the paintings Kindall shows how Huang created these geo narratives by drawing upon the Suzhou place painting tradition as well as the encoded experiences of southwestern sites discussed in historical gazetteers and personal travel records and the geography of the sites themselves Ultimately these works were intended to create personas and fulfill specific social purposes among the educated class during the Ming Qing transition Some of Huang s paintings of the southwest together with his travel records became part of a campaign to attain the socially generated title of Filial Son whereas others served private functions This definitive study elucidates the context for Huang Xiangjian s painting and identifies geo narrative as a distinct landscape painting tradition lauded for its naturalistic immediacy experiential topography and dramatic narratives of moral persuasion class identification and biographical commemoration
