Tribal Church Lead Small Impact Big:

Tribal Church Steve Stroope, Kurt Bruner, 2012-01-15 God's biggest assignments have always been entrusted to those leading a small tribe. From the twelve families of Israel to early Christians who met in one another's homes, great leaders begin by serving a core group of people who ripple outward for ever-extending social and spiritual impact. They go big by leading small. Today's leaders don't fail because they lack vision; they fail because they neglect their tribe. It could be a father losing sight of his family, a lead pastor failing to leverage the strengths of his staff, or a small group coordinator ignoring a tiny but important process. Tribal Church helps pastors recognize the potential and power of various tribes within their congregations: one family, a network of small groups, maybe an entire age group, and then recalibrate ministry efforts to maximize the impact of each. Steve Stroope has spent three decades mastering the art of leading small in a church that has multiplied from dozens to over ten thousand. He explains why big impact does not come from any sort of mega church ambition. It rather comes by attending to the little details and the smallest tribes. Endorsements: Steve Stroope has done us a favor by collecting three decades of experience into one book. One glance at the manuscript and I thought of a dozen uses for it. First, it will strengthen my leadership skills. I can envision our leadership team reading it as a group. Seminaries should tap into its wisdom. Thank you, Steve, for living out an example of godly leadership. Max Lucado, pastor and best-selling author. Steve Stroope is one of the finest pastor leaders of our generation. In his candid look at Lake Pointe Church's first 30 years, Steve shares helpful insight, wisdom, and practical experience that can help churches become more fruitful in fulfilling Christ's Great Commission. With a heart for local and global missions, Steve has modeled leadership methods that have been tested in the modern church world and can be great tools for equipping leaders in the days ahead. Bryant Wright, senior pastor, Johnson Ferry Baptist Church of Marietta, GA, and president of the Southern Baptist Convention. Steve Stroope is one of the most quietly influential voices in the growth and robustness of American Christianity. He is a collector of good ideas, what he calls little things, the small but essential acts that cumulatively demonstrate the character of Christ in American church leadership. This book is by a leader I admire. Bob Buford, founder of Leadership Network and author of Halftime and Finishing Well. I've known Steve for 15 years, and he's the real deal. His life and leadership inspire me, and so does the tribe of Lake Pointe Church. The straightforward, practical wisdom in this book will recalibrate any leader and any church at any stage of the game. Bill Hybels, senior pastor, Willow Creek Community Church. Steve Stroope is more than knowledgeable about leadership and ministry. He is wise. He leads with strategic skill, discernment, and intuition. Every conversation with Steve has marked me and impacted my ministry, therefore I am eager to read anything he writes. Eric Geiger, acting vice president, Church Resources Division, Lifeway Christian Resources. Steve Stroope is the wisest and most effective pastor I know. This book is a treasure chest of godly wisdom for church leaders. Steve gives us an inside look at the actual tools and methods he's used to lead Lake Pointe from a handful of people to a thriving and healthy multi-site church of thousands. Every pastor needs this book in their library Nelson Searcy lead pastor The Journey Church Transformational Discipleship Eric Geiger, Michael Kelley, Philip Nation, 2012-06-01 A Christian's desire to grow in faith is beautiful and biblical best illustrated in Jeremiah 17 where Scripture describes The man who trusts in the LORD as being like a tree planted by water It will not worry in a year of drought or cease producing fruit But how do people really grow Transformational Discipleship describes the process that brings to life that kind of person described in the Bible There's no magic formula or mantra to recite here but rather a substantive measure of research with churches and individuals who have wholeheartedly answered the call of Jesus to make disciples A compilation of their wisdom and stories it surely guides church leaders and members to practice the intentional efforts needed to foster an entire culture in which people grow in Christian faith And they will grow not because of human research but by the power of the Word and of the Holy Spirit working through the church the same way disciples have always been made When the people of God engage in the mission of God through the Spirit of God lives are transformed Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli, 2013-10-15 After more than a decade in youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he'd tried everything to connect his students to the Bible Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling creative reflection and dialogue He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative In 2012 Michael partnered with Sparkhouse to create Echo the Story curriculum based on his approach to Bible storying Michael has seen people of all ages benefit from this imaginative way of encountering God through the Bible In this book you'll find methods for adapting Bible storying for varied contexts and ages testimonials from people using this approach tools to create your own Bible storying narratives and details about the proven learning theories guiding this approach Resources in Education, 1984-10 Religion and Society Richard Warren Taylor, 1982 Selected articles from the quarterly originally published under the title Bulletin of the Christian Institute for the Study of Society Report on Development of Tribal Areas India.
