

Tribal Sovereignty

Tribal nations acting as independent, self-governing units.

"...the courts have concluded that Indian tribes have all the powers of self-government of any sovereignty except insofar as those powers have been modified or repealed by act of Congress or treaty. Hence over large fields of criminal and civil law, and particularly over questions of tribal membership, inheritance, tribal taxation, tribal property, domestic relations, and the form of tribal government, the laws, customs and decision of the proper tribal governing authorities have, to this day, the force of law."
