Sculptum Est Prosa (Volume 2) Ivan Kireevskii, 2018-11-07 This volume explores the range and uses of quotations echoes and allusions drawn from thousands of intertextual instances that Kireevskii has recognized in his work The principal interest of the echoes examined here lies in the revaluation of the poet and the theoretical issues his varied use of them suggests Through echoing Kireevskii embodies and explicates his assertions of continuity in human development his vision of interchange between the mind and nature As a poet he is a person who constantly experiences sees hears suspects hopes and dreams extraordinary things is struck by his own thoughts as if from outside or from above and below as if by his type of events and lightning bolts is perhaps a storm himself pregnant with new lightning and is a fatal person in whose vicinity things are always rumbling growling gaping and acting in uncanny ways Listen very carefully because Kireevskii writes in a very symbolic form and unless you are very alert in reading his words you may miss all the implications The reason why he is so symbolic is that he is so full of new insights and he has so much he desires to share and to give As with a hermit's writings you can always hear something of the echo of the desert something of the whisper and the timid sideways glance of solitude a concealed philosophy where every opinion is also a hiding place every word is also a mask Essential Writings Clarence Jordan, 2003 A true American prophet Clarence Jordan 1912 1969 was reared in the heart of the Southern Baptist Church He passed up the options of scholarship or traditional ministry to found an interracial Christian community in Americus Georgia at a time when preaching racial justice and equality could spark violence His cooperative farm was repeatedly attacked by the KKK and subject to a total economic boycott Through his sermons and his so called Cotton Patch version of the Gospels a dynamic translation of his own setting Jesus' life in a Southern context Jordan laid out a revolutionary vision of Christian community The Rhythm of Space and the Sound of Time Cynthia Ashperger, 2008-01-01 The Rhythm of Space and the Sound of Time examines the place of Chekhov's Technique in contemporary acting pedagogy and practice Cynthia Ashperger answers the questions What are the reasons behind the technique's current resurgence How has this cohesive and holistic training been brought into today's mainstream acting training What separates this technique from the other currently popular methods Ashperger offers an analysis of the complex philosophical influences that shaped Chekhov's ideas about this psycho-physical approach to acting Chekhov's five guiding principles are introduced to demonstrate how eastern ideas and practices have been integrated into this western technique and how they have continued to develop on both theoretical and practical levels in contemporary pedagogy thereby rendering it intercultural The volume also focuses on the work of several contemporary teachers of the technique associated with Michael Chekhov International Association MICHA Current teacher training is described as well as the different modes of hybridization of Chekhov's technique with other current methods Contemporary practical experiments and some fifty exercises at both beginner and intermediate advanced levels are presented through analysis examples student journals and case studies delineating the sequences in which units are taught and specifying the exercises that differ from those in Chekhov's original writing This book is for practitioners as well as students of the theatre
