Thomas Merton On Saint Bernard Cistercian Studies:

Thomas Merton on Saint Bernard Thomas Merton, 1980 The best known Cistercian of the twentieth century reflects on the teaching and life of the most renowned Cistercian of the twelfth century Three essays written in the 1950s explore the relation of contemplation and action in the monastic vocation and in the life of Christians Women and Saint Bernard of Clairvaux Jean Leclercq, 1989 Saint Bernard of Clairvaux M. Basil Pennington, 1977 A Second Look at Bernard of Clairvaux Jean Leclercq, 1990 A psychological case study of the great saint whose influence was felt by popes kings scholars and courtiers across Europe in the twelfth century The modern scholar most familiar with his works and activities brings new light to a man deeply revered by most and roundly disliked by some The Difficult Saint Brian Patrick McGuire, 1991 Born in 1090 Bernard of Clairvaux died sixty three years later and was canonized in 1174 His friends and brothers began writing his official life even before he died so convinced were they of his personal holiness and his importance to the Church of his day Not everyone who knew him however liked him no matter how much they may have admired his holiness For nine centuries those who have read his works and studied his activities have experienced a similar ambivalence Some regard this most controversial and provocative of saints as a great director of souls others consider him an ecclesiastical busybody In The Difficult Saint Brian Patrick McGuire examines various facets of Bernard's life and the legend that survived him from the perspective of the Middle Ages and of the modern world I want to suggest he writes that Bernard becomes more understandable as one grows older and gains more life experience Bernardus Magister John R. Sommerfeldt, 1992

Bernard of Clairvaux, a Lover Teaching the Way of Love Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux), 1997 After a short introduction by the compiler Saint Bernard himself takes us in hand and leads us along the way to the fullness of the life in Christ Bernards rich style the work of a master poet is redolent with an inviting warmth that lets the reader discover union with God to be the intimate and all fulfilling embrace of lovers It is an embrace that transforms us and makes us truly Godlike The selections of Bernards ever beautiful prose offered here are varied enough to introduce the reader to all the Saints more important writings They give a taste and invite the pursuit of deeper discoveries They will encourage the reader no matter where he or she may be on their spiritual journey The Way of the Hermit Mario I. Aguilar, 2017-03-21 Spanning hermits paths across multiple faiths and epochs Catholic Benedictine hermit and divinity scholar Mario Aguilar explores the shared value of silence contemplation and prayer in Christianity Hinduism and Buddhism This is an eye opening book about spiritual independence and interfaith harmony for any reader curious or devout Thomas Merton Marquita Breit, Robert E. Daggy, 1986 Love Without Measure Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux), 1990 In 1090 St Bernard of Clairvaux a monk of the Cistercian order was born One of the great figures of his age he travelled and preached widely Cistercian abbeys were founded all over Europe He left many writings which included his famous treatises on humility on the love of God on grace and free will and his masterpiece on the Song of Songs It is from these writings that this collection is drawn Here we see not only a compassionate thoughtful man not only a scholar devoted to the Bible and to the works of the Fathers but a Christian of extraordinary vision and faith To him God's healing power God's love and our acceptance of our own weakness were central to the message of Christ Love Without Measure brings this message newly alive to us today in timeless words that reach across the centuries Aelred of Rievaulx on Love and Order in the World and the Church John R. Sommerfeldt, 2006

The universe is a product of God's infinite love according to the expansive thinking of Aelred of Rievaulx a Cistercian abbot of the Middle Ages Aelred sees human existence order and action as reflections of God's love But Aelred knows that although they have been created for happiness humans are neither perfect nor happy At the same time however he is sure that the flood of God's love can overwhelm people who do not reject this divine gift Because Aelred knows that humans exist only in relationship he searches out the social order necessary for happiness So he explores the nature of the church as a community and the support that each social group or calling gives to the whole of existence This study examines how Aelred sees God informing the cosmos and the humans who inhabit it according to the divine order and principle of love It follows Aelred's analysis of the disordering sources of human unhappiness which happens when humans reject God's love and then investigates Aelred's understanding of God's re-ordering of the human condition through the gifts and graces flowing from his greatest gift his son Jesus

BOOK JACKET The Seven Mountains of Thomas Merton Michael Mott, 1986-03 Uitvoering biografie van de Amerikaanse trappist en schrijver 1915-1968 Contemplating God Changing the World Mario L. Aguilar, 2009-01-01 Mario Aguilar skillfully elegantly and clearly presents the life and thought of some of the major spiritual forces of our time as a starting point for his own compelling reflections on the relationship between contemplation and politics We need more books like this one Professor Ivan Petrella University of Miami Contemplation and political action defined the lives and work of six of the most inspiring Christian leaders of the twentieth century Thomas Merton Ernesto Cardenal Daniel Berrigan Sheila Cassidy Desmond Tutu and Mother Teresa Each one embraced a silent purposeful life of prayer contemplation and conversation with God which the author contends was the very foundation for their public activism Aguilar profiles these outstanding religious figures illustrating how their contemplation of God gave them courage and understanding not just to grow in personal holiness but to become one with God through responding to the needs of others It was their spiritual life that gave them the energy commitment and strength to help feed the hungry clothe the naked and liberate the oppressed even in the darkest most difficult times Yet as Aguilar shows it is not just a chosen few who are called to combine prayer with political action through the regular contemplation of God all Christians can be empowered to work toward social transformation and a just world An Index of Authors and Works in Cistercian Libraries in Great Britain
