The Womanist Preacher Kimberly P. Johnson,2017-07-28 The Womanist Preacher Proclaiming Womanist Rhetoric from the Pulpit performs a close textual analysis of five womanist sermons to answer the question how does womanist preaching attempt to transform adapt the tenets of womanist thought to make it rhetorically viable in the church And what is gained and lost in this The sermons come from five women who are considered exemplars of womanist preaching Elaine M Flake Gina M Stewart Cheryl Kirk Duggan Melva L Sampson and Claudette A Copeland This book takes the first step in womanist scholarship to dissect what is rhetorically going on in womanist preaching to categorize womanist sermons under the four tenets of womanist preaching and to then create four rhetorical models that reflect the rhetorical attributes of the four different categories or phrased tenets that Stacey Floyd Thomas uses to represent Alice Walker's womanist definition

An End to this Strife Demetrius K. Williams, Williams's important work argues that taking the New Testament and particularly Galatians 3:28 seriously should lead black churches to challenge sexism and racism not only in society at large but also in African American churches and denominational bodies By addressing oppressive practices in African American and other churches they remain true to the liberation principle of the Bible the equality of all people before God which has been used effectively by black churches His argument unfolds first through looking at the biblical text especially the figure of Jesus and his ministry and how he broke the social barriers of his day It then shows how African American Christians have historically appropriated this lens and legacy in their own religious and social experience and explains how this vision pertains to the state of black women in the churches today Williams s book will help all Christian churches reappropriate the biblical text and serve as a model for how the Bible can be responsibly employed in the churches and the public arena to promote equality for all people

Black Women's Christian Activism Betty Livingston Adams,2020-05-19 2017 Wilbur Non Fiction Award Recipient Winner of the 2018 Author s Award in scholarly non fiction presented by the New Jersey Studies Academic Alliance Winner 2020 Kornitzer Book Prize given by Drew University Examines the oft overlooked role of non elite black women in the growth of northern suburbs and American Protestantism in the first half of the twentieth century When a domestic servant named Violet Johnson moved to the affluent white suburb of Summit New Jersey in 1897 she became one of just barely a hundred black residents in the town of six thousand In this avowedly liberal Protestant community the very definition of the suburbs depended on observance of unmarked and fluctuating race and class barriers But Johnson did not intend to accept the status quo Establishing a Baptist church a year later a seemingly moderate act that would have implications far beyond weekly worship Johnson challenged assumptions of gender and race advocating for a politics of civic righteousness that would grant African Americans an equal place in a Christian nation Johnson's story is powerful but she was just one among the many working class activists integral to the budding days of the civil rights movement Focusing on the strategies and organizational models church women employed in the fight for social justice Adams tracks the Intersection of politics and religion race and gender and place and space in a New York City suburb a local example that offers new insights on northern racial oppression and civil rights protest As this book makes clear religion made a key difference in the lives and activism of ordinary black women who lived worked and worshiped on the margin during this tumultuous time

Radical Spiritual Motherhood Rosetta R. Haynes, 2011 In this cutting edge work Rosetta R Haynes explores the spiritual autobiographies of five nineteenth century female African American itinerant preachers to discover the ways in which they drew upon religion and the material conditions of their lives to fashion powerful personas that enabled them to pursue their missions as divinely appointed religious leaders Pioneering and accessible Radical Spiritual Motherhood marks a turning point in the study of both African American literature and women's studies

Preaching that Confronts Confederate Monuments David M. Stark, 2025-10-30 Confederate monuments preach at times subtly at other times overtly about who we are who God is and how we should live together David M Stark looks at the way many Confederate monuments provided ongoing opportunities for commemorative speeches and ceremonies that would entrench racist and white supremacist ideologies in the American South Stark examines key speeches and proclamations given around monuments to the Lost Cause such as Julian Carr's Silent Sam speech 1913 and Archer Anderson's speech at the dedication of a monument to Robert E Lee 1890 reading these as theological and homiletic moments Stark then moves on to construct a homiletic that can confront such monuments and the racist preaching ideologies around them In developing this counter homiletic Stark analyzes the preaching strategies written into Confederate monuments and highlights best practices from recent counter proclamations that deconstruct the troubling rhetoric and theology of Confederate monument dedication speeches Finally Stark presents insights from naming commission reports and clergy interviews about the values mission and leadership needed to work for ongoing change
