|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Listen to their students more than they talk.                                                                 | Try and understand what their students are thinking when students describe their work. |
| Gather evidence every day on what every one of their students understands from the day's lesson.              | Plan lessons with clear, achievable goals that build toward longer-term goals.         |
| Learn something new every day.                                                                                | Experiment to see what helps their students learn best.                                |
| Become an expert on the different ways of understanding each topic they teach.                                | Learn how the subject or year they teach is connected to other subjects or years.      |
| Follow the schedule of one of their students for the entire day.                                              | Take notes and reflect on their teaching and their students' learning.                 |
| Use a variety of modalities with all of their students so they experience the subject area in different ways. | Ask questions that prompt thinking from all of their students.                         |
| Establish and maintain norms and routines in their classroom.                                                 | Read research on teaching and learning on a regular basis.                             |
| Give feedback to students that is clear, actionable, timely, consistent, and goal-oriented.                   | Separate feedback from grading.                                                        |
| Collaborate with other teachers to study and improve their practice.                                          | Share what works with other teachers and why they know it works.                       |
| Become an expert in the ways students typically understand their subject area or grade level.                 | Believe that all of their students can achieve success.                                |
