Trends And Prospects In Motivation Research:

Trends and Prospects in Motivation Research Anastasia Efklides, J. Kuhl, R.M. Sorrentino, 2007-05-08 Researchers in achievement motivation are becoming all the more aware of the importance of affect in motivation and self regulation This leads to extension and integration of existing theories as well as to new theories that provide a good account of existing data and offer new insight into the mechanism underlying the functioning of motivation This book presents up to date basic research in motivation and self regulation and an overview of the field with particular emphasis on issues such as change of motivation effects of context and culture on motivation relations of cognition and affect in motivation and self regulation and motivation in school in sports and in the aged Opportunities on improving student motivation at all levels of education Julien S. Bureau, Frédéric Guay, Woon Chia Liu, Katrien De Cocker, 2023-09-26 Present and Future Trends in TEFL María Elena García Sánchez, 2001-06-04 The aim of this book is to develop a framework for describing the field as it currently exists together with well established views As far as possible the book describes rather than prescribes to avoid taking up any single approach or theory regarding what constitutes the legitimate approach to TEFL research Of course the personal views of the authors will colour the account provided as it is imposible to separate description from interpretation Thus in a way this book involves the theories beliefs knowledge methods and practices of foreign language teachers and how these can enhance teacher education This book is planned for pre service or in service teachers of a foreign language at primary secondary or tertiary levels although the criterions examined are useful to teachers of English as a foreign language teacher trainers or modern language teachers involved in teaching any language whether in Spain or overseas Our main purpose is to help readers to help themselves Accordingly the reader is encouraged to be engaged in an examination of foreign language teaching and learning in hope of improving his her practice and making language teaching more controllable more interesting and more effective The chapters are organized into four sections In Section I three chapters describe some perspectives in teacher education In the first chapter Jos M Vez focuses on the hypothesis that the key to producing well qualified EFL teachers is to greatly strengthen their professional learning across the continuum of a career in the foreign language classroom He emphasizes the fact that foreign language teaching must become a learning profession in order to prompt greater learning among foreign language students and describes the innovative aspects of foreign language teacher education In the second chapter Sheena Davies provides an overview of language teacher education today with particular reference to English language teaching discusses some current issues associated with the field and gives notice of her experience working with both native speaker and non native speaker teachers of English from all over the world on a variety of in service and pre service courses and seminars In chapter 3 we examine the perspectives on teacher thinking and teachers beliefs in general and about language learning in particular Methods and Applications in Language Sciences: Recent Trends in Linguistics Marcel Pikhart, Valentina Cuccio, Natascha Müller, Ferran Suner, 2023-10-23 This Research Topic is part of the Methods and Applications in Language Sciences series It aims at bringing novel methodologies and applications in a wider perspective of linguistics i e in the context of various current approaches of psychology communication technology artificial intelligence big data cognitive science sociology etc

Halal Development: Trends, Opportunities and Challenges Heri Pratikto,Ahmad Taufiq,Adam Voak,Nurdeng Deuraseh,Hadi Nur,Winai Dahlan,Idris,Agus

Purnomo,2021-07-22 The increasing demand for halal products including goods and services every year especially for food and beverages has resulted in a growing need for products with halal guarantees Along with the increasing trend of the global demand it has resulted in an increase in producers of halal food and beverages in both Muslim and non Muslim countries In addition the demand for halal tourism is also increasing Indonesia is one of the largest Muslim countries in the world However there are still many Muslim consumer actors and Muslim producer actors who do not yet have an awareness of the importance of complying with the provisions of Islamic law in consuming and producing goods and services There are still many restaurants and hotels that serve food and drinks that are not certified halal There are still many food medicinal and cosmetic products that are not halal certified But now many secular countries such as France Canada Australia the United States Britain are also halal certified with the aim of meeting the Muslim demand for halal products for food and beverage including for halal tourism Starting from the development of the halal industry both in the fields of food beverages and services an International Seminar was held which provides a more complete understanding of halal products current halal developments and can serve as motivation to produce halal products providing research results from the topic of halal development The international seminar entitled International Conference on Halal Development listed speakers from several countries able to provide an overview of the halal development of several countries This book contains a selection of papers from the conference
