Brand and Myth Stefan Waller, 2025-03-17 Brand and Myth A Cultural Philosophical Consideration Brands reflect the desires of the modern individual In Nike it's the hope of achieving success by simply doing it in a Mercedes it's the pursuit of status and in a MasterCard it encapsulates the longing for those moments that cannot be bought with money but for which you still need money The list can go on for a long time Despite the fact that these brand messages are understood across various cultures they have played a secondary role in cultural philosophical debates To professional thinkers brands appear at best as banal and at worst as instruments in a malign illusionary context They are seen as expressions of capitalism something to be viewed critically and thus rejected From a more neutral standpoint the engagement with brands is understood as a subject of business administration marketing and design and therefore considered outside of one's own area of expertise
