Lake,2025-09-18 This book locates an ethic of love as central to the democratic philosophies of Martin Luther King Jr and Cornel West While much has been written about King's moral vision, social activism, and theology, there has been no book-length treatment of the implications of his thinking to democratic theory. Additionally, Cornel West is the leading African American public intellectual of our time, but the range of his cultural criticism and academic scholarship obscures his intellectual and social projects. This project synthesizes West's vast corpus and places him within the modern African American intellectual tradition he shares with Du Bois, King, Maulana Karenga, the creator of Kwanzaa, and others. Deeply grounded in the African American intellectual and philosophical traditions in which King and West are rooted, as well as the Western mainstream political philosophical traditions in which they were educated, this book offers a penetrating interpretation and comparative analysis of their thought on the ideals of democracy and of their critiques of American democracy. It also reflects on the nature and values of democracy, exploring how love is inseparable from justice in a democratic society.

African-American Humanism Norm R. Allen, 1991-08 This collection demonstrates the strong influence that humanism and freethought had in developing the history and ideals of black intellectualism. Most people are quick to note the profound influence that religion has played in African American history, consoling the downtrodden slave or inspiring the abolitionists, the underground railroad, and the civil rights movement. But few are aware of the role humanism played in shaping the black experience, developing the thought, and motivating the actions of powerful African American intellectuals. Section One of this book offers biographical sketches of such prominent black humanists as Frederick Douglass, Cheikh Anta Diop, W. E. B. DuBois, Hubert H. Harrison, and Richard Wright. Section Two features essays by black humanists Douglass, DuBois, Charles W. Faulkner, Langston Hughes, Zora Neale Hurston, Ishmael Jaffree, Claude McKay, Melvin B. Tolson, and Bruce Wright. Section Three offers the views of contemporary black African humanists Freda Amakye Ansah, Emmanuel Kofi Mensah.
