Women in Medieval Europe 1200-1500 Jennifer Ward,2016-04-14 Women in Medieval Europe explores the key areas of female experience in the later medieval period from peasant women to Queens It considers the women of the later Middle Ages in the context of their social relationships during a time of changing opportunities and activities so that by 1500 the world of work was becoming increasingly restricted to women The chapters are arranged thematically to show the varied roles and lives of women in and out of the home covering topics such as marriage religion family and work For the second edition a new chapter draws together recent work on Jewish and Muslim women as well as those from other ethnic groups showing the wide ranging experiences of women from different backgrounds Particular attention is paid to women at work in the towns and specifically urban topics such as trade crafts healthcare and prostitution The latest research on women gender and masculinity has also been incorporated along with updated further reading recommendations This fully revised new edition is a comprehensive yet accessible introduction to the topic perfect for all those studying women in Europe in the later Middle Ages

Faith, Ethics, and Church David Aers,2000 Examination of key texts Chaucer to Wyclif sheds new light on medieval spirituality The relationship between versions of the late medieval Church faith ethics and the lay powers as explored in a range of late fourteenth and early fifteenth century texts written in England is the subject of this book It argues that they disclose strikingly diverse models of Christian discipleship and examines the sources and consequences of such differences Issues investigated include whether the Church could shape modern communities and individual identities and how it could combine its status as a major landlord and trader without being assimilated by the various networks of earthly power and profit The book begins with Chaucer's treatment of received versions of faith ethics and the Church and moves via St Thomas Ockham Nicholas Love Gower the Gawain poet and Langland who pursues the issues with particular intensity and focus to Wyclif's construal of Christian discipleship in relation to his projected reform of the Church Interdisciplinary in approach the book will be of interest to all those studying late medieval Christianity and literature DAVID AERS is James B Duke Professor of English and Professor of Historical Theology at Duke University

Schiavitù e servaggio nell'economia europea. Secc. XI-XVIII = Serfdom and Slavery in the European Economy Simonetta Cavaciocchi, 2014 Il volume esamina i rapporti di lavoro non contrattuali schiavitù e servaggio che a lungo contraddistinsero l'economia europea sia pure con andamenti assai diversi nelle differenti aree I saggi in esso contenuti esaminano la evoluzione del servaggio visto come il lato economico del regime signorile e delle diverse forme di sottomissione personale fino alla vera e propria tratta degli schiavi di cui i mercanti europei furono protagonisti mettendo in luce una situazione assai più complessa e articolata di quanto gli schemi interpretativi tradizionali lasciassero intuire
