Wainwrights Coast To Coast Walk:

Wainwright's Coast to Coast Walk Alfred Wainwright, Derry Brabbs, 1987 The author recounts his experiences walking across England from the Irish Sea to the North Sea through the Lake District and the Yorkshire Dales Wainwright's Coast to Coast Walk A. Wainwright, 1996 Describes the 190 mile route from St Bees Head to Robin Hood's Bay A Coast to Coast Walk Alfred Wainwright, 2017-10-19 The Coast to Coast Walk devised by Alfred Wainwright himself is the country's most loved long distance walking route It stretches across 190 miles from St Bees Head on the East coast to Robin Hood's Bay on the West passing through the Lake District Yorkshire Dales and North York Moors This Readers Edition of Wainwright's final Pictorial Guide first published in 1973 has been freshly reproduced from Wainwright's original text illustrations and beautifully hand drawn black and white route maps Wainwright's Coast to Coast Walk Alfred Wainwright, 2017-07-06 The first fully revised and updated edition of A Wainwright's pocket sized guide to the classic Coast to Coast Walk From St Bees Head on the Irish Sea by way of the Lake District the Pennines Swaledale and the North York Moors and ending at Robin Hood's Bay on the North Sea this 190 mile walk has over the years become one of the best loved long distance routes in the world First devised in the early 1970s the walk has prompted countless enthusiasts to lace up their walking boots and follow Wainwright's example and inspired TV series by Tony Robinson for Channel 5 and Julia Bradbury for BBC Four This brand new edition of the Pictorial Guide contains Wainwright's hand drawn route maps and his inimitable commentary with the route maps and text completely revised and brought fully up to date by Chris Jesty The Coast to Coast Walk Martin Wainwright, 2016 The classic high level walk from Irish Sea to North Sea Originally devised by the legendary Alfred Wainwright the Coast to Coast Walk has steadily become one of Britain's most popular long distance walks and it is not hard to see why Planned to seek out the most spectacular high ground across the country it takes you from the sea in the west to the sea in the east via three of England's loveliest National Parks the Lake District the Yorkshire Dales and the North York Moors Its 192 miles from the quiet Cumbrian village of St Bees to Robin Hood's Bay are a substantial test of endurance that will take even a fit walker a fortnight to accomplish but also a wonderfully varying walk from sea cliffs to craggy mountains and lakes then across rolling dales and finally heather moorland For everyone who reaches Wainwright's Bar at journey's end on the North Yorkshire coast it will have been the walk of a lifetime Amazon website The Coast to Coast Walk 2009 Martin Wainwright, 2009-03-25 The Coast to Coast Walk is unique among Britain's long distance footpaths in that it was the invention of one man the legendary Alfred Wainwright and enjoys no official status like for example the National trails in England and Wales Nevertheless it has become one of Britain's most popular long distance walks which is hardly surprising as it traverses some of the finest walking territory in the country Starting at St Bees on the Cumbrian coast the route runs for 192 miles 307 km to Robin Hood's Bay on the North Sea and lies for the most part within the boundaries of three of Britain's loveliest National Parks the Lake District the Yorkshire Dales and the North York Moors As well as the main route there are also alternatives available at several points Martin Wainwright's description of the route is divided into fifteen chapters each covering one day's walk though alternative stopping places are identified for those who wish to spread their journey over a longer period and each section of the route is described in detail with accompanying Ordnance Survey 1:25 000 mapping and colour photographs There are also brief feature essays on features or places of particular historical or landscape interest and a Useful Information section at the end which gives details of organisations which provide advice or information on matters such as travel and accommodation Martin Wainwright no relation is Northern Editor of the Guardian He recently edited A Lifetime of Mountains a selection from the writings of the Guardian's much loved Country Diarist also published by Aurum A keen Rambler he lives in Leeds

Coast to Coast Walk Martin Wainwright, 2016-03-03 The classic high level walk from Irish Sea to North Sea Originally devised by the legendary Alfred Wainwright the Coast to Coast Walk has steadily become one of Britain's most popular long distance walks and it is not hard to see why Planned to seek out the most spectacular high ground across the country it takes you from the sea in the west to the sea in the east via three of England's loveliest National Parks the Lake District the Yorkshire Dales and the North York Moors Its 192 miles from the quiet Cumbrian village of St Bees to Robin Hood's Bay are a substantial test of endurance that will take even a fit walker a fortnight to accomplish but also a wonderfully varying walk from sea cliffs to craggy mountains and lakes then across rolling dales and finally heather moorland For everyone who reaches Wainwright's Bar at journey's end on the North Yorkshire coast it will have been the walk of a lifetime

Coast to Coast Walk A. Wainwright, 1994 When Wainwright planned his cross England expedition he chose a route which he hoped would commit no act of trespass or offence against privacy It later transpired that certain sections of the route did indeed cross land over which there was no public right of way and this revised edition sets out to amend those sections so that the walk is now either on public roads public rights of way or on permissive paths

Wainwright Walks Coast to Coast, 2009 Beautifully simple beautifully defined and providing a complete spectrum of northern England Wainwright's Coast to Coast Walk is 190 miles that have become one of the classic long distance challenges of the British Isles a challenge that now faces Julia Bradbury Having completed his Pictorial Guides to the Lakeland Fells Alfred Wainwright became obsessed with finding the perfect route across the north of England from the Irish Sea to the North Sea Following in his footsteps with his Coast to Coast book as her guide Julia sets out from the cliffs at St Bees in Cumbria crossing moorland mountains and national parks to reach her destination Robin Hood's Bay in North Yorkshire Featuring stunning aerial footage we follow Julia meeting interesting characters along the way as she walks from coast to coast

Walking Wainwright's Coast to Coast Lee Senior, 2022 Walking Wainwright's Coast to Coast is a compelling and humorous account of walking almost 200 miles 320km across England The iconic Coast to Coast walk from St Bees to Robin Hood's Bay has won many accolades and is voted as the second best walk in the world This book encapsulates the very best that the walk has to offer There is an in depth look at the route including snippets of history along the way The book isn

t intended to be a guidebook Instead it is an absorbing first hand account of the heat of battle including route suggestions and places to stay Five Miles a Pint! Tim Newing,2020-06-05 Other South West Coast Path walkers usually seem to start rather sensibly at the beginning progress to the middle and finish at the end Often the challenge seems to be tackled in one hit which is fine if you can spare the eight weeks needed to do it that way But our story is not like that Snatching time off from work when we could the sections of path we attempted depended upon the availability of out of season public transport Wainwright s Coast to Coast walk it s Alternative cousin and our own Hare Brained Hike were duly conquered but the Path still resisted Whatever the terrain whatever the weather the presence of killer steps or otherwise and regardless of whether or not we stopped at lunchtime we always seemed to average two miles per hour over each trip And as we went we recorded both our adventures and our fuel economy Wainwright's Coast to Coast Alfred Wainwright,1993 The

Coast-to-Coast Walk Trevor K Bell,2021-02-28 This is based on the route described in The Coast to Coast Walk by Alfred Wainwright Trevor Bell sets off along the same pathways The result is a historical and partly anecdotal account of the route from Robin Hood s Bay in Yorkshire to St Bees in Cumbria evoking a nostalgia for an England which is fast disappearing
