Walden Henry David Thoreau, 1893 Walden, Or, Life in the Woods Henry David Thoreau, 1995 The author's famous work on his time living on the shores of Walden Pond and ruminating on nature, life, and human existence The Literature Archive of the Future Sandra Richter, 2023-06-23 How can literary archives adapt to the challenges of the future? Literary archives are per se international because their subject is international. Literature does not end at the borders of its country of origin or its language. Hence literary archives hold material that is not limited to a country or a language, although one country and language is usually dominant. It might even be the case that an archive has the official task of preserving the literary heritage of a specific territory and is funded for this purpose. How can we conceptualize literary archives in their regional and global frameworks and develop them further? To what extent does digitization foster international cooperation within and beyond the archives, and how can we make it more fruitful? How can archives meet the interests of the literary public and of researchers? With contributions by Stephen Enniss, Lavinia Frey, Jeang Yean Goak, Ben Hutchinson, David D. Kim, Stefan Litt, B. Venkat Mani, Nelson Mlambo, Sebastian M. Ring, Sandra Richter, Fred Studemann, Meike G. Werner, Katja Wiesbrock, and Donovan. Literatur endet nicht an den Grenzen ihres Herkunftslandes oder ihrer Sprache. Literaturarchive verfallen also über Material, das weder auf ein Land noch auf eine Sprache beschränkt ist. Internationale Forscherinnen und Forscher fragen, wie Literaturarchive in digitalen Zeiten in ihrem regionalen und globalen Rahmen konzeptualisiert und weiterentwickelt werden können. The Art of Being Human Deborah Ravetz, 2016-11-21 Deborah Ravetz explores the territory of our inner landscape by showing us that it is only through embracing and working with all aspects of our selves, including our vulnerability and pain, that we give meaning and experience joy. Through telling her own story and those of others who have faced their demons and worked through their struggles, she helps us to embark on the journey that all of us need to make in order to become fully ourselves. Packed with applicable strategies for spiritual development and practice, this book serves to empower and cultivate holistic wellbeing. Technology and the Philosophy of Religion David Lewin, 2010-09-13 The last one hundred years has seen unimaginable technological progress transforming every aspect of human life. Yet we seem unable to shake a profound unease with the direction of modern technology and its ideological siblings: global capitalism and massive consumption. Philosophers such as Marcuse, Borgmann, and especially Heidegger have developed important analyses of technological society; however, in this book David Lewin argues that their ideas have remained limited, either by their secular context or by the narrow conception of religion that they do allow. This study guides the reader along the newly formed paths of the philosophy of technology, arguing that where those paths come to an abrupt end, a religious discourse is needed to articulate the ultimate concerns that drive technological action. It calls for a meditation on the central insight of many religious traditions: that in an ultimate sense, we know not what we do. To acknowledge that we know not what we do is the first step towards a theology of technology that draws upon insights from the mystical theological tradition as well as from recent developments in the continental philosophy of religion

Identities for Life and Death Robert J. Pellegrini, 2010-09 This book is all about stories The stories that shape our identities and how those identities shape our destinies for better or worse for good or evil in humanizing or dehumanizing ways Working from the Shakespearian metaphor All the world s a stage and all the men and women merely players Pellegrini argues that only by understanding how our storied selves develop can we acquire the tools to modify the roles they dictate for us to play on the stage in the theater of real life The author deconstructs a wide variety of what he calls toxic dehumanizing death oriented self scripts as well as creative humanizing life oriented narratives of groups as well as individuals Following the Native American parable of two wolves engaged in mortal combat within us one good the other evil the fundamental premise here is that our identity determines which of our inner wolves we feed and thus which of them will prevail Pellegrini maintains that what s at stake in this battle between humanity s collective inner wolves is not just the quality but the very survival of life on earth From this perspective as individual and group selves are humanizingly or dehumanizingly narratized by the way we exercise our God given free will in the choices we make so shall life be impacted throughout the world To advance the cause of detoxifying identities in our global society the author presents a rationale and program for an international grass roots social movement aimed at achieving a universal sense of belongingness to a global life system You can watch and listen to a video in which Dr Bob Pellegrini talks about this book and why he wrote it by entering Identities for Life and Death in the search bar at youtube com

Securing America's Covenant with God Miles Huntley Hodges, 2020-02-19 This book is part of a three part series on America as a Covenant Nation This volume begins with the period in the early 1600s when two very different English societies were established in the New World one in Virginia and one in New England The Virginia society simply re created the rigidly class based feudal society of the times The New England society was a most unusual democracy of social equals covenanted to live under God s not man s personal rule These two American social types would find themselves in rather constant struggle as Americans found keeping covenant with God to be very difficult because of man s natural tendency to want to control life including the lives of others This volume will take the American narrative through the Christian Great Awakening the War of Independence the founding of a new American Republic the early years of social spread across the continent a Second Great Awakening mounting tensions over the slavery issue the American Civil War and finally the period of Reconstruction afterward This study goes deeply into social political and economic dynamics a study in social power but also blends this analysis with an equally deep inquiry into the cultural spiritual character of American society during these time periods and events

The Quest for Epic in Contemporary American Fiction Catherine Morley,2008-09-25 This volume explores the confluences between two types of literature in contemporary America the novel and the epic It analyses the tradition of the epic as it has evolved from antiquity through Joyce to its American manifestations and describes how this tradition has impacted upon contemporary American writing

A Summer in the High Sierra Laurence Brauer,2011-09-15 A Summer in the High Sierra is based on Laurence Brauer s journal of a 38 day solo round trip backpacking through the timberline country from Yosemite to Kings Canyon Traveling outside cultural and religious doctrines Brauer examines the assumptions of human societies and find that neither the rational deconstructions of science nor the leap of faith of religion contain the breadth and depth of nature s message Seeing beyond our dualistic doctrines he redefines our concepts of human nature evolution and spirituality The book features 96 full color photographs illustrating the journey which took the author along sections of the John Muir Trail High Sierra Trail and off trail locations An Epilogue recounting a ten day trip one year later and an Afterword recounting a short return trip to Vogelsang in which the author reassesses the previous ten years are also included
