Walden details Thoreau s experiment with self reliance living by a pond near Concord MA in 1845 46 His intent is to explore the spiritual benefits of a simplified life The mass of men lead lives of quiet desperation What is called resignation is confirmed desperation From the desperate city you go into the desperate country and have to console yourself with the bravery of minks and muskrats A stereotyped but unconscious despair is concealed even under what are called the games and amusements of mankind There is no play in them for this comes after work But it is a characteristic of wisdom not to do desperate things When we consider what to use the words of the catechism is the chief end of man and what are the true necessities and means of life it appears as if men had deliberately chosen the common mode of living because they preferred it to any other Yet they honestly think there is no choice left But alert and healthy natures remember that the sun rose clear It is never too late to give up our prejudices No way of thinking or doing however ancient can be trusted without proof What everybody echoes or in silence passes by as true to day may turn out to be falsehood to morrow mere smoke of opinion which some had trusted for a cloud that would sprinkle fertilizing rain on their fields Walden (Life in the Woods) Henry David Thoreau,2017-05-08
