took offence at this There was another cause for the ill will of the youths and boys of the village to this gentleman Before he had bought and built upon the six acre meadow it had been their regular play ground and they did not see what right Mr Graham or any other Mister or Master had to deprive them of it To begin the story again therefore the dozen or more boys who on that fine spring evening were playing and romping in front of the new house seemed highly delighted to find that Mr Graham showed signs of being annoyed Boys shouted the gentleman throwing up the drawing room window before he spoke go farther off boys You have no business to make such an uproar before any person s dwelling Shan t go for you drawled out a big boy from the crowd of smaller ones you can t hinder us from playing here as long as we like About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
