Helming,2013-06-27 TW Index Volume 3 Jan Young, A Rude Awakening Sarah Matthews,2025-01-29 Competitive sport and veterinary medicine have always been my life s passions and have given me opportunities to travel the world I ve competed internationally in sport climbing cycling and triathlon In 2015 I returned to Australia on a high as my all female cycling team had won the prestigious cycling event Race Across America We had been interviewed on The Morning Show and our documentary was released to the public A few weeks later I went off on a final training run before competing in the half ironman World Championship That run was my last memory for 30 days as I had been involved in a hit and run accident caused by a speeding cyclist on the Anzac Bridge footpath I sustained major head trauma and was placed in an induced coma After waking up thirty days later I spent three months in rehabilitation and was not allowed to drive or cycle for at least six months The next two years were very traumatic as my memory was still affected and I had lost my purpose and direction With strong support of friends and family a year later I returned to work as a veterinarian and continued to represent Australia in triathlon I also got pregnant at 43 years of age and had a mini me daughter Seven years later I was attacked by a dog at work resulting in a carotid artery tear brain bleeds and ongoing seizures Again my life was changed in an instant Using a lot of resilience I was able to return to work seven months later I am now regaining my purpose and identity I hope my experience of managing recovery after trauma will be of help to readers who have struggled with their own life events

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2013 OECD Environmental Performance Reviews:

Iceland 2014 OECD,2014-09-04 This report is the third OECD review of Iceland s environmental performance It evaluates progress towards sustainable development and green growth with a focus on the environmental aspects of Iceland s energy and tourism policies The Media and Aid in Sub-Saharan Africa Lena von Naso,2018-02-05 News coverage on Africa is closely connected not only with how Western audiences see the continent but also with how a wide Western audience builds its opinion on issues that carry consequences for the public s and governments support and policy towards development aid The Western media reinforce a picture of a continent that drowns in chaos is dominated by conflicts diseases corruption and failed democratisation Whose interests lie behind that How does foreign news on sub Saharan Africa emerge which actors are relevant in its making and on the basis of what interests do these actors shape the coverage that is then presented as neutral information to a broad international audience Closely examining the relationship between foreign correspondents of international news media and humanitarian organisations Lena von Naso shows how the aid and media sectors cooperate in Africa in a unique way Based on more than 70 interviews with foreign correspondents and aid workers operating across Africa the book argues that the changing nature of foreign news and of aid is forcing them to form a deep co dependency that is having a serious and largely unnoticed effect on Western news coverage This comprehensive examination of a new paradigm will interest students and scholars of media and journalism African studies development and humanitarian studies and the aid and media communities operating across Africa
