Walker The Goose The Search For A Family:

Walker The Goose Susanne Blumer, 2015-11-26 Walker the Goose is lonely She is new to the farm and wants to find a family During her search she meets the cows the sheep and the pigs Will Walker ever find her place on the farm Walker's Hibernian Magazine, Or, Compendium of Entertaining Knowledge, 1811 The Ethnic Moment: The Search for Equality in the American Experience Philip L. Fetzner, 2016-09-16 This anthology focuses on the experiences of Americans whose lives have been strongly affected by the pursuit of equality in areas such as politics law education and government Each of the autobiographical essays gives voice to the writer's first personal experience of inequality Women, Art and the New Deal Katherine H. Adams, Michael L. Keene, 2016-01-04 In 1935 the United States Congress began employing large numbers of American artists through the Works Progress Administration fiction writers photographers poster artists dramatists painters sculptors muralists wood carvers composers and choreographers as well as journalists historians and researchers Secretary of Commerce and supervisor of the WPA Harry Hopkins hailed it a renaissance of the arts if we can call it a rebirth when it has no precedent in our history Women were eminently involved creating a wide variety of art and craft interweaving their own stories with those of other women whose lives might not otherwise have received attention This book surveys the thousands of women artists who worked for the U S government the historical and social worlds they described and the collaborative depiction of womanhood they created at a pivotal moment in American history Sequels Janet G.

Husband, Jonathan F. Husband, 2009 A guide to series fiction lists popular series identifies novels by character and offers guidance on the order in which to read unnumbered series Far Away from the Tigers Jane Katch, 2011-04-15 Over the past three decades more than a quarter of a million children have become citizens of the United States through international adoption Kindergarten teacher Jane Katch recently found herself with three such children in her class Katya born in Russia Jasper from Cambodia and Caleb from Romania Each child had spent early years in an orphanage and each had unique educational and emotional needs How Katch came to recognize and respond to those needs makes up the journey of discovery in this moving and insightful book Interspersing vignettes from the classroom and conversations with the children's parents Far Away from the Tigers first explores Katch's misunderstandings and mistakes as she struggles to help the children adjust to school As Katch learns more about each child's preadoption past she gradually realizes that they were deprived of some basic learning experiences and she needs to find ways to fill those gaps Before Caleb can learn to read or write he must improve his verbal skills by learning nursery rhymes stories and songs Katya who came from an overcrowded orphanage now needs to be the center of attention before learning how to form real friendships she first must gain control over more basic functions such as eating and sleeping And the youngest Jasper needs steady encouragement to play with classmates instead of sitting alone practicing his handwriting Slowly through trial and error and by drawing on the deep understanding and intense commitment of the children's parents Katch discovers the importance and joy of allowing each child time to develop in his or her own way Beautifully told wise and candid Far Away from the Tigers is a gift for parents teachers and anyone who cares for children growing up in a new home The House where My Soul Lives Maryemma Graham, 2022 This biography of poet and writer Margaret Walker takes us inside America in the middle of the 20th century seen through the eyes of one southern black woman who refused to focus on what was not possible but what was on publisher's description Chicago Schools Journal, 1946 Exiles from a Future Time Alan M. Wald, 2012-12-01 With this book Alan Wald launches a bold and passionate account of the U S Literary Left from the 1920s through the 1960s Exiles from a Future Time the first volume of a trilogy focuses on the forging of a Communist led literary tradition in the 1930s Exploring writers intimate lives and heartfelt political commitments Wald draws on original research in scores of archives and personal collections of papers correspondence and interviews with hundreds of writers and their friends and families and a treasure trove of unpublished memoirs fiction and poetry In fashioning a humanscape of the Literary Left Wald not only reassesses acclaimed authors but also returns to memory dozens of forgotten talented writers The authors range from the familiar Mike Gold Langston Hughes and Muriel Rukeyser to William Attaway John Malcolm Brinnin Stanley Burnshaw Joy Davidman Sol Funaroff Joseph Freeman Alfred Hayes Eugene Clay Holmes V J Jerome Ruth Lechlitner and Frances Winwar Focusing on the formation of the tradition and the organization of the Cultural Left Wald investigates the elective affinity of its avant garde poets the Afro cosmopolitanism of its Black radical literary movement and the uneasy negotiation between feminist concerns and class identity among its women writers Close Relationships Clyde Hendrick, 2000 The authors in the volume extend the reach of their comprehensive reviews into theoretically driven and innovating explorations The scope of coverage across and within chapters is striking The developmentalist the methodologist the feminist the contextualist and the cross culturalist alike will find satisfaction in reading the chapters Catherine A Surra The University of Texas at Austin The science of close relationships is relatively new and complex Close Relationships A Sourcebook represents the growing maturity of this multidisciplinary enterprise The volume offers 26 chapters organized into four thematic areas relationship methods forms processes and threats as well as a foreword and an epilogue The volume provides a panoramic view of close relationship research as it enters the 21st century offering highlights from current literature original research practical applications and projections for future research Relationship Methods includes both qualitative and quantitative chapters Relationship Forms includes many of the stages types and roles that characterize intimate relationships In a developmental fashion chapters address social networks children's friendships adolescent relationships adult friendships and friendships in later life Chapters on multicultural and multiracial relationships and gay lesbian and bisexual relationships illustrate the variety of relationship forms that the science of close relationships must consider The alignments and realignments of traditional family structure are considered in terms of contemporary marriage divorce and single parenting and remarried families Relationship Processes includes chapters on emotion attachment romantic love sexuality intimacy communication conflict social support and relational maintenance The important topic of gender concludes the section The shadow side of human nature is explored in the Relationship Threats section with chapters on infidelity and jealousy physical and sexual aggression depression and loss and bereavement A foreword by Ellen Berscheid sets the stage for this broad ranging collection of chapters Steve Duck and Linda Acitelli conclude with an epilogue that provides a new beginning for the science of close relationships
