

UMBRIA

The background of the page is a collage of three distinct images. The top-left portion shows a detailed Gothic rose window with intricate tracery and a central medallion. The top-right portion depicts the facade of a medieval stone building, characterized by arched windows and a series of dark, rectangular stone corbels or brackets. The bottom-left portion features a colorful fresco of a landscape with figures, likely from a church interior. The word 'UMBRIA' is superimposed in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the center of the collage.
