Un Anno Sullaltipiano:

Un anno sull'Altipiano Emilio Lussu, 1960 Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence Un Anno Sull' Altipiano. [Reminiscences of the European War.] Emilio Lussu, 1938 Under the Bombs Earl R. Beck, Under the Bombs tells the story of the civilian population of German cities devastated by Allied bombing in World War II These people went to work tried to keep a home though in many cases it was just a pile of rubble where a house once stood and attempted to live life as normally as possible amid the chaos of war Earl Beck also looks at the food and fuel rationing the German people endured and the problems of trying to make a public complaint while living in a totalitarian state The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi's logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi's creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi's work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities Mark of the Beast Alfredo Bonadeo, 2021-10-21 The First World War is a watershed in the intellectual and spiritual history of the modern world On the one hand it brought an end to a sense of optimism and decency bred by the prosperity of nineteenth century Europe On the other it brought forth a sense of futility and alienation that has since pervaded European thought That cataclysmic experience is richly reflected in the work of writers and artists from both sides of the conflict and this study provides a detailed analysis of two basic themes death and degradation that mark the literature about the war From their accounts most men entered the war lightheartedly filled with ideals of patriotism and glory but these generous feelings were soon quelled as the war settled into a stalemate its operations reduced to simply grinding away the opposing forces In these operations Alfredo Bonadeo shows men became mere aggregations thrown against one another wasted with no appreciable effects or gains save carnage itself This cheapening and disregard for human life and being

Bonadeo finds rooted not only in the conditions of war but significantly in a contempt for the common man prevailing in European political and intellectual circles This attitude is revealed most plainly in his analysis of the Italian literature which hitherto has received little note Italian leaders saw the war as an opportunity to expiate a sense of national guilt and here the inconclusive campaigns made their futility all the greater Out of the torn fields of the First World War grew the seeds of a second greater conflict but Professor Bonadeo concludes the flowering of the seeds was aided by the degradation of man's spirit on those fields The grim focus of this book the dead voices it evokes leads to a new appreciation of the meaning of the Great War

War and Literature Rachel McCoppin, 2020-01-24 This Special Issue focuses specifically on the topic of commiseration with the enemy within war literature The articles included in this Special Issue show authors and or literary characters attempting to understand the motives beliefs and cultural values of those who have been defined by their nations as their enemies This process of attempting to understand the orientation of defined enemies often shows that the soldier has begun a process of reflection about why he or she is part of the war experience The texts included in this issue also show how political authorities often resort to propaganda and myth making tactics that are meant to convince soldiers that they are fighting opponents who are evil sub human etc and are therefore their direct enemies Literary texts that show an author and or literary character trying to reflect against state supported definitions of good evil right wrong and ally enemy often present an opportunity to reevaluate the purposes of war and one's moral responsibility during wartime

Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature

Il trauma di Caporetto AA.VV., 2018-11-16 La battaglia di Caporetto 24 ottobre 9 novembre 1917 ha rappresentato un trauma nella storia italiana del Novecento Ancor oggi nel linguaggio comune la parola Caporetto sinonimo di disastro In quella battaglia i soldati della 2a Armata vengono respinti dagli austriaci e dai tedeschi al di qua dell'Isonzo e del Tagliamento fino al Piave mentre i Comandi militari li accusano di diserzione e tradimento Cento anni dopo questo volume affronta in un'ottica pluridisciplinare e interdisciplinare e alla luce della nozione di trauma gli aspetti storici politici e militari della disfatta Esso fa largo spazio anche alle testimonianze dei soldati scrittori la cui esperienza di quei giorni acquista senso se inserita in una dimensione collettiva e storica Le stratificazioni temporali relative tanto alla lettura storiografica militare e politica quanto agli scritti memoriali e letterari costituiscono un fattore importante per la riappropriazione di un evento che tocca la storia e l'identità italiane Nel processo di rievocazione del trauma la rappresentazione dello choc sub to tiene conto sia dell immediatezza del vissuto che della simbolizzazione retrospettiva Questo volume intende allora studiare i meccanismi attraverso i quali il ricordo del trauma di Caporetto prende forma nel linguaggio auto biografico o finzionale inteso anche come espressione terapeutica e luogo della resilienza Literature and the Great War Giovanni Capecchi,2022-12-06 Among the numerous volumes dedicated to the Great War this book stands out for its ability to trace in a thorough but concise manner an overall picture of the literature born from the conflict After its introductory pages concerning the forms times and places of war writing the book focuses on the story of the months of the eve of the war on the journey to the front and the discovery of the true face of war on the stories of the trenches on the accounts of the imprisonment and on the return home accompanied by disappointment and disorientation The book focused on Italy but rich in references to European literature is a journey through history and the human soul between hopes and fears illusions and massacres It is the story of an event that divided the collective history of Europe and individual lives It is the account passionate and exciting of the literary writings born from trauma Krieg und Literatur/War and Literature Vol. XIV, 2008 Claudia Junk,Thomas F. pioneers of Europeanism between the two wars have still to be addressed Although at the time their proposal as a whole went unheeded with destructive consequences for peace and for Europe this valuable legacy of ideals has nevertheless guaranteed a continuity and a subsequent blossoming The purpose of this book is to examine a series of ideas initiatives and programmes which between the two World Wars aimed to promote the maintenance of a pacified international order starting from the crucial European context What emerges is a significant and transversal humus that countered the inexorably prevailing tendencies in politics and institutions and even in society Its exponents operated in international organisations in parties and in movements and associations not necessarily of a political stamp as well as in historiography literature theatre cinema and sport laying the foundations for a rebirth of peaceful co existence at European and international level

Sardinia on Screen Maria Bonaria Urban, 2013-11-01 This volume explores how Sardinians and Sardinia have been portrayed in Italian cinema from the beginning of the 20th century until now starting from the examination of Sardinian tropes in a wide range of texts travel writing fictional sources essays and academic works The purpose is to shed light on the cultural construction of the Sardinian character and to reveal the ideology that is behind this process Hence the volume challenges topics such as the dynamics between verbal and visual imagery and the intertwining between discourse images and audience It addresses the following questions how was the Sardinian character translated from texts into films Which strategies were developed to define Sardinian images on screen For whom were these images intended Which ideology lies behind the images Focusing on cultural images within film and literature this volume is of interest to those working in imagology comparative cultural and Italian studies Gabriele D'Annunzio John Robert Woodhouse, 2001 Novelist playwright and poet Gabriele D'Annunzio 1863-1938 shocked and dazzled early twentieth century Europe with his sexual exploits military feats and political escapades More than any other figure since the unification of Italy he casts a shadow forward to the present day His relationships with the worlds of Italian culture theatre and politics were unique fiery and always controversial His literary achievements have influenced generations of Italian writers This is the most authoritative biography of the man in any language Making Sense of Violence Matthew D'Auria, Mark Hewitson, 2020-11-25 This book looks at the representations of modern war by analysing texts and examining the ways in which authors relate to the atrocious horrors of war Rejecting the assumption that violence is simply a denial of reason or at best a pathological form of collective sadism this book considers it a cultural act that needs to be understood as underpinned by a series of shared and accepted norms and values stemming from a society at a given moment of its history and shaped by its language Traditional vocabulary and language seem inadequate to describe soldiers experience of modern warfare The problem for writers is to depict and render intelligible a dramatically unprecedented reality through recourse to something familiar For some historians and literary critics the absurdity of the First World War has shaped our ironic and disenchanting reading of the entire twentieth century Yet these ways of coping with the urge to communicate inexpressible feelings and emotions in most cases are not sufficient to overcome the incoherence of the sentiments felt and the events witnessed The contributors attempt to address the questions and issues that are posed by the highly ambiguous views texts and representations examined in this volume This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal European Review of History Revue Européenne d'Histoire In Africa: Lungo l'Anseba a sull'altipiano abissino Giotto Dainelli, 1908 Genres as Repositories of Cultural Memory, 2021-12-28 This volume deals with the inherent relation between literary genres and cultural memory Indeed generic repertoires may be regarded as bodies of shared knowledge a sort of encyclopaedia or museum of stocked culture and have played and still play an important role in absorbing and activating that memory The contributors have focused on some specific memory linked genres that prove especially relevant in remembering and transforming past experiences i e the post modern historical novel and various forms of post modern autobiographical writing They deal with such renowned authors as Carlos Fuentes Vargas Llosa Umberto Eco Antonio Tabucchi John Barth Julian Barnes Michel Butor Nathalie Sarraute Alain Robbe Grillet Claude Simon Georges Perec and Marguerite Yourcenar The volume thus constitutes an attractive and representative sample of post modern forms of rewriting and problematizing individual and collective pasts Testament of War A. D. Harvey, 2018-06-15 The purple testament of bleeding war

Shakespeare Richard II Act III Scene 3 l 93 Simply the best single volume analysis of the art and literature of the Great War A New Guide to Italian Cinema C. Celli, M. Cottino-Jones, 2007-01-08 This book is a complete reworking and update of Marga Cottino Jones popular A Student's Guide to Italian Film 1983 1993 This guide retains earlier editions interest in renowned films and directors but is also attentive to the popular films which achieved box office success among the public

Roads and Ruins Paul Baxa, 2010-01-01 In the 1930s the Italian Fascist regime profoundly changed the landscape of Rome's historic centre demolishing buildings and displacing thousands of Romans in order to display the ruins of the pre-Christian Roman Empire This transformation is commonly interpreted as a failed attempt to harmonize urban planning with Fascism's ideological exaltation of the Roman Empire Roads and Ruins argues that the chaotic Fascist cityscape filled with traffic and crumbling ruins was in fact a reflection of the landscape of the First World War In the radical interwar transformation of Roman space Paul Baxa finds the embodiment of the Fascist exaltation of speed and destruction with both roads and ruins defining the cultural impulses at the heart of the movement Drawing on a wide variety of sources including war diaries memoirs paintings films and government archives Roads and Ruins is a richly textured study that offers an original perspective on a well known story
