Understanding Peace Cultures Peace Education:

Understanding Peace Cultures Rebecca L. Oxford, 2014-03-01 Understanding Peace Cultures is exceptionally practical as well as theoretically grounded As Elise Boulding tells us culture consists of the shared values ideas practices and artifacts of a group united by a common history Rebecca Oxford explains that peace cultures are cultures large or small which foster any of the dimensions of peace inner interpersonal intergroup international intercultural or ecological and thus help transform the world As in her earlier book The Language of Peace Communicating to Create Harmony Oxford contends here that peace is a serious and desirable option Excellent educators help build peace cultures In this book Shelley Wong and Rachel Grant reveal how highly diverse public school classrooms serve as peace cultures using activities and themes founded on womanist and critical race theories Yingji Wang portrays a peace culture in a university classroom Rui Ma s model reaches out interculturally to Abraham s children Jewish Christian and Muslim youth who share an ancient heritage Children s literature Rebecca Oxford et al and students own writing Tina Wei spread cultures of peace Deep traditions such as African performance art Buddhism Daoism Confucianism and Islam give rise to peace cultures as shown here by John Grayzel Sister Jewel a colleague of Thich Nhat Hanh Yingji Wang et al and Dian Marissa et al Peace cultures also emerge in completely unexpected venues such as gangsta rap unveiled by Charles Blake et al and a prison where inmates learn Lois Liggett s spiritual semantics Finally the book includes perspectives from Jerusalem by Lawrence Berlin and North Korea and South Korea by Carol Griffiths to help us envision and hope for new transformative peace cultures where now there is strife

Peace Education Evaluation Celina Del Felice, Aaron Karako, Andria Wisler, 2015-05-01 Practice and research of peace education has grown in the recent years as shown by a steadily increasing number of publications programs events and funding mechanisms The oft cited point of departure for the peace education community is the belief in education as a valuable tool for decreasing the use of violence in conflict and for building cultures of positive peace hallmarked by just and equitable structures Educators and organizations implementing peace education activities and programming however often lack the tools and capacities for evaluation and thus pay scant regard to this step in program management Reasons for this inattention are related to the perceived urgency to prioritize new and more action in the context of scarce financial and human resources notwithstanding violence or conflict the lack of skills and time to indulge in a thorough evaluative strategy and the absence of institutional incentives and support Evaluation is often demand driven by donors who emphasize accounting given the current context of international development assistance and budget cuts Program evaluation is considered an added burden to already over tasked programmers who are unaware of the incentives and of assessment techniques Peace education practitioners are typically faced with forcing evaluation frameworks techniques and norms standardized for traditional education programs and venues Together these conditions create an unfavorable environment in which evaluation becomes under valued de prioritized and mythologized for its laboriousness This volume serves three inter related objectives First it offers a critical reflection on theoretical and methodological issues regarding evaluation applied to peace education interventions and programming The overarching questions of the nature of peace and the principles guiding peace education as well as governing theories and assumptions of change transformation and complexity are explored Second the volume investigates existing quantitative qualitative and mixed methods evaluation practices of peace educators in order to identify what needs related to evaluation persist among practitioners Promising practices are presented from peace education programming in different settings formal and non formal education within various groups e g children youth police journalists and among diverse cultural contexts Finally the volume proposes ideas of evaluation novel techniques for experimentation and creative adaptation of tools from related fields in order to offer pragmatic and philosophical substance to peace educators next moves and inspire the agenda for continued exploration and innovation The authors come from variety of fields including education peace and conflict studies educational evaluation development studies comparative education economics and psychology

Peace Education for Violence Prevention in Fragile African Societies B. Maphosa,Alphonse Keasley,2016-12-29 Though conflicts among African nations diminished at the end of the last millennium the need for peace remains a perennial concern for African citizens within their communities and countries Once again Maphosa and Keasley have engaged a collection of scholar practitioners to address the query What s Going to Make a Difference in Contemporary Peace Education around Africa The contributing authors draw from daily headlines as well as African literature to unearth twenty first century quandaries with which educators in formal and informal contexts are called upon to grapple The What s Going to Make a Difference authors offer insights to educators peace education practitioners and parents for everyday living The authors probe the wisdom of the recent and ancient past and bring forth pearls for contemporary moments All in discerning effort to respond to the guiding question the editors and their contributing colleagues deliver a compelling set of revelations for Making a Difference in Peace Education for African and world citizens
