Heritage Film Belén Vidal,2012 The British heritage film nation and representation Production cycles and cultural significance a European heritage film Narrative aesthetics and gendered histories renewing the heritage film Afterword tradition and change Fashion, Agency, and Empowerment Annette Lynch,Katalin Medvedev,2018-11-29 Fashion has always been strongly linked with the politics of gender and equality In this global and interdisciplinary collection leading authors explore the relationships between the dressed body fashion sex and power with an emphasis on the role of dress in both reinforcing and challenging social norms Covering a range of geographic and social contexts the book explores the role of fashion in empowering both individuals and groups to create transformation and change Taking us from the performance of black dandyism through stylized hats to the use of challenging dance forms and male inspired dress by female South African dancers to express independence and equality to ways in which recent Bond Girls have challenged traditional gender binaries the book provides a crucial entry point into discussions of fashion as an empowerment strategy Fashion Agency and Empowerment encourages the reader to critically examine the cultural and social impact of sexual objectification as well as to consider personal and shared narratives of self objectification and repression With chapters ranging from the iconic self fashioning of Princess Diana to a discussion of sex power and cultural constructions of masculinity Fashion Agency and Empowerment provides crucial insights into global fashion political structures and social life Fashion on Television Helen Warner, 2014-04-10 Fashion on Television provides a comprehensive critical examination of the intersection between fashion television and celebrity culture The book brings together theoretical approaches to the symbolic force of television and fashion forward programming on a global scale Examining case studies such as Sex and the City Gossip Girl Ugly Betty and Mad Men the book examines how TV has made style icons out of leading actresses and fashion conscious consumers out of audiences Using a varied methodology including textual and contextual analysis this study explores the cultural uses of onscreen fashion at the level of industry text and intertext Fashion on Television is essential reading for those seeking to understand the cultural function of costume in a television context Written accessibly with a multi disciplinary approach it will appeal to students and scholars from film and media fashion and cultural studies to sociology and women s studies

The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner, 2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman s film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman s film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman s film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion s Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013 Black Boys Clive Chijioke Nwonka, 2023-08-24 In Black Boys The Aesthetics of British Urban Film Nwonka offers the first dedicated analysis of Black British urban cinematic and televisual representation as a textual encounter with Blackness masculinity and urban identity where the generic construction of images and narratives of Black urbanity is informed by the unknowable allure of Black urban Otherness. Foregrounding the textual Black urban identity as a historical formation and drawing on a range of theoretical frameworks that allow for an examination of the emergence and continued social cultural and industrial investment in the fictitious and non fictitious images of Black urban identities and geographies, Nwonka convenes a dialogue between the disciplines of Film and Television Studies, Philosophy, Cultural Studies, Black Studies, Sociology and Criminology. Here Nwonka ventures beyond what can be understood as the perennial and simplistic optic of racial stereotype in order to advance a more expansive reading of the Black British urban text as the outcome of a complex conjunctural interaction between social phenomena, cultural policy, political discourse and the continuously shifting politics of Black representation. Through the analysis of a number of texts and political and socio cultural moments, Nwonka identifies Black urban textuality as conditioned by a bidirectionality rooted in historical and contemporary questions of race, racism and anti Blackness but equally attentive to the social dynamics that render the screen as a site of Black recognition, authorship and authenticity. Analysed in the context of realism, social and political allegory, urban multiculturalism, Black corporeality and racial gender and sexual politics, integrating such considerations into the fabrics of a thematic reading of the Black urban text and through the writings of Stuart Hall, Paul Gilroy, Judith Butler and Derrida, Black Boys presents a critical rethinking of the contextual and aesthetic factors in the visual constructions of Black urban identity.

The Fashion Chronicles Amber

Butchart, 2018-09-06 From BBC television and radio presenter Amber Butchart, The Fashion Chronicles is an exploration of 100 of the most fascinating style stories ever told. From Eve's fig leaf to Hilary Clinton's pantsuit, the way we choose to clothe our bodies can carry layer upon layer of meaning. Across cultures and throughout history, people have used clothing to signify power and status, to adorn and beautify, even to prop up or dismantle regimes. Here, explore the best dressed figures in history from Cleopatra to Beyoncé, Joan of Arc to RuPaul. Some have influenced the fashion of today while some have used their clothing to change the world. But all have a sartorial story to tell. Entries include Tutankhamun, Boudicca, Eleanor of Aquitaine, Genghis Khan, King Philip II of Spain, King Louis XIV of France, Catherine the Great, Marie Antoinette, Karl Marx, Amelia Earhart, Josephine Baker, Frida Kahlo, Malcolm X, Marsha Hunt, Beyoncé, Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and many more.

Design for Doctor Who Piers D. Britton, 2021-05-20 The long running popular TV series Doctor Who is Piers Britton argues a uniquely design intensive text. Its time and space travel premise requires that designers be tirelessly imaginative in devising new worlds and entities and recreating past civilizations. While Doctor Who's attempts at worldbuilding are notorious for being hit and miss, old jokes about wobbly walls and sink plungers die hard, the distinctiveness of the series' design imagery is beyond question. And over the course of six decades, Doctor Who has produced designs which are not only iconic but in being repeatedly revisited and updated have proven to be an ever more important element in the series' identity and mythos. In the first in depth study of Doctor Who's costumes, sets and graphics, Piers Britton offers an historical overview of both the original and the revived series explores theoretical frameworks for evaluating Doctor Who design and provides detailed analysis of key images Case studies include the visual morphology of Doctor Who s historical adventures the evaluative character of cosplay and the ongoing significance for the Doctor Who brand of such high profile designs as the Daleks and the TARDIS interior the time tunnel title sequence and the costumes of the Fourth and Thirteenth Doctors Film Studies Glyn Davis,Kay Dickinson,Lisa Patti,Amy Villarejo,2015-02-20 Film Studies A Global Introduction reroutes film studies from its Euro American focus and canon in order to introduce students to a medium that has always been global but has become differently and insistently so in the digital age Glyn Davis Kay Dickinson Lisa Patti and Amy Villarejo s approach encourages readers to think about film holistically by looking beyond the textual analysis of key films In contrast it engages with other vital areas such as financing labour marketing distribution exhibition preservation and politics reflecting contemporary aspects of cinema production and consumption worldwide Key features of the book include clear definitions of the key terms at the foundation of film studies coverage of the work of key thinkers explained in their social and historical context a broad range of relevant case studies that reflect the book s approach to global cinema from Italian white telephone films to Mexican wrestling films innovative and flexible exercises to help readers enhance their understanding of the histories theories and examples introduced in each chapter an extensive Interlude introducing readers to formal analysis through the careful explication and application of key terms a detailed discussion of strategies for writing about cinema Films Studies A Global Introduction will appeal to students studying film today and aspiring to work in the industry as well as those eager to understand the world of images and screens in which we all live Fashion, Performance, and Performativity Andrea Kollnitz,Marco Pecorari,2021-11-18 In the first comprehensive study of the interactions between fashion performance and performativity a group of international experts explore fashion as the ideal complex space or in other words the ideal space where performance and performativity come together according to the works of seminal theorists Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick and Andrew Parker Bringing together western and non western historical and contemporary case studies and theories the book explores the magazines photography exhibitions global colonial divides digital media and more which have become key markers of the fashion industry as we know it today Using existing literature as a springboard and incorporating perspectives from fashion studies art history media studies and gender studies as well as from artists and practitioners Fashion Performance and Performativity is an innovative and essential work for students scholars and practitioners across multiple disciplines Telling an American Horror Story Cameron Williams Crawford,Leverett Butts,2021-03-02 Telling an American Horror Story collects essays from new and established critics looking at the many ways the horror anthology series intersects with and comments on contemporary American social political and popular culture Divided into three sections the chapters apply a cultural criticism framework to examine how the first eight seasons of AHS engage with American history our contemporary ideologies and social policies Part I explores the historical context and the uniquely American folklore that

AHS evokes from the Southern Gothic themes of Coven to connections between Apocalypse and anxieties of modern American youth Part II contains interpretations of place and setting that mark the various seasons of the anthology Finally Part III examines how the series confronts notions of individual and social identity like the portrayals of destructive leadership in Cult and lesbian representation in Asylum and Hotel

Styling Texts Cynthia G. Kuhn, Cindy L. Carlson, 2007 Covering a variety of genres and periods from medieval epic to contemporary speculative fiction Styling Texts explores the fascinating ways in which dress performs in literature Numerous authors have made powerful even radical use of clothing and its implications and the essays collected here demonstrate how scholarly attention to literary fashioning can contribute to a deeper understanding of texts their contexts and their innovations These generative and engaging discussions focus on issues such as fashion and anti fashion clothing reform transvestism sartorial economics style and the gaze transgressive modes and class gender or race passing This is the first academic volume to address such an extensive range of texts inviting consideration of how fashionable desires and concerns not only articulate the aesthetics subjectivities and controversies of a given culture but also communicate across temporal and spatial divisions Styling Texts is an essential resource for anyone interested in the artistic representations and significations of dress

Screening Novel Women Liora Brosh, 2015-12-04 From Hollywood classics like Jane Eyre or Wuthering Heights to the 1990s wave of Jane Austen films adaptations of the British Nineteenth century novel have been sensationally popular This book examines how British and American filmmakers used the domestic novels of the past to construct stable gender ideals for the present
