Union With Christ The New Finnish Interpretation Of Luther:

Union with Christ Carl E. Braaten, Robert W. Jenson, 1998 This book introduces the English speaking world to the new Finnish interpretation of the theology of Martin Luther initiated by the writings of Tuomo Mannermaa of Helsinki University At the heart of the Finnish breakthrough in Luther research lies the theme of salvation Luther found his answer to the mystery of salvation in the justifying work of Christ received through faith alone But Protestant theology has never enjoyed a consensus on how to interpret the Reformation doctrine of justification by faith In opposition to the traditional forensic understanding of justification Mannermaa argues that for Luther Christ is really present in faith itself Mannermaa's interpretation of Luther's view of justification is thus more ontological and mystical than ethical and juridical As such his work challenges a century of scholarly opinion concerning a foundational doctrine of Protestant theology

Union with Christ in the New Testament Grant Macaskill, 2013-11 In conversation with historical and systematic theology Macaskill argues that the union between God and his people is consistently represented by the New Testament authors as covenantal with the participation of believers in the life of God specifically mediated by Jesus the covenant Messiah

Justification and the Future of the Ecumenical Movement George A. Lindbeck, 2003 On October 31 1999 officials of the Lutheran World Federation and the Roman Catholic Church in Augsburg Germany signed an Official Common Statement with its Annex and the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification declaring publicly and in a binding manner that a consensus in basic truths of the doctrine of justification exists between Lutherans and Catholics A number of the essays in this book emanate from a conference at the Berkeley Divinity School of Yale University in 2000 that discussed the import of this momentous declaration for ecumenism

Paul and Union with Christ Constantine R. Campbell, 2015-05-05 Paul and Union with Christ fills the gap for biblical scholars theologians and pastors pondering and debating the meaning of union with Christ Following a selective survey of the scholarly work on union with Christ through the twentieth century to the present day Greek scholar Constantine Campbell carefully examines every occurrence of the phrases in Christ with Christ through Christ into Christ and other related expressions exegeting each passage in context and taking into account the unique lexical contribution of each Greek preposition Campbell then builds a holistic portrayal of Paul's thinking and engages contemporary theological discussions about union with Christ by employing his evidence based understanding of the theme This volume combines high level scholarship and a concern for practical application of a topic currently debated in the academy and the church More than a monograph this book is a helpful reference tool for students scholars and pastors to consult its treatment of any particular instance of any phrase or metaphor that relates to union with Christ in the Pauline corpus

Theosis in the Theology of Thomas Torrance Myk Habets, 2016-02-17 Torrance's vision of Theosis deification divinisation is explored through his doctrine of creation and anthropology his characterisation of the incarnation his accounts of reconciliation and union with Christ and his theology of church and sacraments Myk Habets' study distinguishes Torrance's Reformed vision of theosis from other possible accounts of salvation as divinisation as they are found for instance within patristic thought and Eastern Orthodoxy This book presents the first critique of the theology of T F Torrance to focus on theosis and examines a model of theosis within the realm of reformed theology built upon Western theology Engrafted Into Christ Christopher J. Malloy, 2005 Catholics and Lutherans signed the Joint Declaration on Justification in 1999 This ecumenical agreement claims to resolve all church dividing differences on justification without requiring doctrinal revision a claim that Engrafted into Christ challenges with a twofold thesis First the historic disagreement over justification was substantial thus doctrinal revision is a sine qua non condition of rapprochement Second portions of the Declaration appear irreconcilable with Catholicism A concluding series of original reflections illustrates the intelligibility of Catholic teaching identifies a self destructive element in sola fide and challenges structural elements of Lutheran theology Experts as well as educated laypersons will be interested in this book Sabbath Rest as Vocation Autumn Alcott Ridenour, 2018-06-14 Autumn Alcott Ridenour offers a Christian theological discussion on the meaning of aging toward death with purpose identity and communal significance Drawing from both explicit claims and constructive interpretations of St Augustine s and Karl Barth s understanding of death and aging this volume describes moral virtue as participation in Christ across generations culminating in preparation for Sabbath rest during the aging stage of life Addressing the inevitability of aging the prospect of mortality the importance of contemplative action and expanding upon the virtues of growing older Ridenour analyzes how locating moral agency as union with Christ results in virtuous practices for aging individuals and their surrounding communities By responding with constructive theology to challenges from transhumanist bioethical and medical arenas the volume highlights implications not only for virtue ethics but also for the goals of medicine Always Reforming A. T. B. McGowan, 2007-03-02 The church has to subject its beliefs and practices to the renewed scrutiny of Holy Scripture and restate the truth of Scripture in ways that faithfully communicate the gospel advance the mission of the church and empower the people of God These essays edited by A T B McGowan explore the whole terrain of systematic theology in order to refresh the church Martin Luther's Understanding of Faith and Reality (1513-1521) Ilmari Karimies, 2022-08-03 Ilmari Karimies investigates Martin Luther s understanding of reality and faith He examines Luther s understanding of reality from three perspectives firstly God as the self giving highest good uniting opposites and hiding beneath them secondly the visible and invisible world and thirdly human beings as tripartite body soul spirit and bipartite flesh spirit The author explores the cognitive conflict between these in relation to spirit s grasping of God and the invisible world with reference to Augustinian Platonism He analyses aspects of faith from the perspective of the theory of divine illumination and shows that Luther represents a realistic Augustinian view Faith functions as the theological intellect grasping the invisible world and showing human beings the future good in a manner similar to the medieval notion of ecstatic knowledge It differs from vision in glory because of sin as mixed with humanity and as partial knowledge Triadosis Eduard Borysov, 2021-01-01 The complex nature of Christian communion with a personal God requires a nuanced expression Since its inception the early church affirmed God's unknowable nature and also participation in God through Christ The church fathers employed the language of theosis in talking about union with God and human transformation in the likeness of God However the term theosis or deification is a broad category and requires precise explanation to avoid human dissolution into the divine in the mystical union it attempts to describe In Triadosis Eduard Borysov offers a new approach to the conundrum of the imparticipable divine nature and the prospect of personal union between human and the Trinity Most significantly he proposes that if God is Trinity then we are created and restored in the image of the same tri personal God Healing a Broken World Cynthia D.

Moe-Lobeda, 2002-08-08 Moe Lobeda shows how the advent of globalization places a new horizon on the spiritual quest for religious experience Healing a Broken World places spirituality and contemplative experience in relation to today's most pressing problems Justification, Volume 1 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27 The first of a two volume project delving into the doctrine of justification Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety mission and life together And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it's often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self renewal Volume 1 is an exercise in historical theology exploring the doctrine of justification from the patristic era to the Reformation This book Provides a map for contemporary discussions of justification identifying and engaging principal sources Origen Chrysostom Augustine Thomas Aquinas John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Gabriel Biel and the magisterial reformers Studies the transformations of the doctrine through Aquinas Scotus and the nominalists leading up to the era of the Reformation and the Council of Trent Concludes by examining the hermeneutical and theological significance of the Reformers understanding of the law and the gospel and the resultant covenantal scheme that became formative in Reformed theology Engaging and thorough Justification will not only reenergize the reader whether Protestant or Catholic with a passion for understanding this essential and long running doctrinal conversation but also challenge anyone to engage critically with the history of the Church and the heart of the gospel

Luther's Theology of Music Miikka E. Anttila, 2013-08-29 The sweetness of music is something that has puzzled Christian theologians for centuries In this study Luther's theology of music is approached from the point of view of pleasure It examines the significance of joy beauty and pleasure in relationship with music and Luther's theology The notion of music as the supreme gift of God requires also a discussion about the idea of gift Music opens up new perspectives into Luther's thinking Luther has seldom been reckoned among aesthetic theologians Nevertheless Luther has a peculiar view on beauty understanding faith as a kind of aesthetic contemplation Metaphysics in the Reformation Silvianna Aspray, 2021-02-25

This book argues that the anti metaphysical stance of many reformers is itself a metaphysical position Christian

Character Formation Gifford A. Grobien, 2019-05-16 Christian Character Formation investigates worship and formation in view of Christian anthropology particularly union with Christ Traditions which value justification by faith wrestle to some degree with how to describe and encourage ethical formation when salvation and righteousness are presented as gracious and complete The dialectic of law and gospel has suggested to some that forgiveness and the advocacy of ethical norms contend with each other By viewing justification and formation in light of Christ's righteousness which is both imputed and imparted it is more readily seen that forgiveness and ethics complement each other In justification God converts a person by which he grants new character Traditional Lutheran anthropology says that this regeneration grants a new nature in mystical union with Jesus Christ By exploring the Finnish Luther School led by Tuomo Mannermaa Gifford A Grobien explains how union with Christ imparts righteousness and the corresponding new character to the believer Furthermore as means of grace the Word and sacraments are the means of establishing union with Christ and nurturing new character Considering Oswald Bayer's suffering the word of Christ Louis Marie Chauvet's symbolic order and Bernd Wannenwetsch's understanding of worship as Christianity's unique form of life Grobien argues that worship practices are the foundational and determinative context in which grace is offered and in which the distinctively Christian ethos supports virtues consistent with Christian character This understanding is also coordinated with Stanley Hauerwas's narrative ethics and Luther's teaching of virtue and good works in view of the Ten Commandments

Systematic Theology Robert Letham, 2019-11-19 This comprehensive systematic theology by respected theologian Robert Letham covers the whole field of Reformed Christian doctrine from biblical historical and theological angles Letham begins with God's ultimate self-revelation as the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit in indivisible union continuing on with the works of God in creation providence and grace He draws deeply from Scripture and important voices from the church to provide a clear and concise articulation of the Reformed faith He also addresses current issues such as feminism charismatic gifts sexual ethics environmentalism other religions the nature of truth and civil liberties Each chapter is followed by discussion questions with a glossary of terms included at the end This work grounds theological understanding and practice in the life and ministry of the church accessible to pastors students scholars and anyone who desires to understand believe and live scriptural doctrine more fully Justification James K. Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2011-11-10 Therefore since we have been justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ Rom 5 1 When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti K rkk inen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul s meaning it is also a case book in theological method

Union with God Audy Santoso, 2021-08-09 If salvation makes a person to become God then how do we understand the word God Audy Santoso assesses Robert Jenson s notion of deification on three main areas the concept of God Christ and self along with their ramifications In this comparative study Jenson s revisionary metaphysics in his theology opens up an insightful perspective in reading John Calvin s theology Discussion on the Supper shows the intricate relation of what these theologians hope for with the practice of our lives in God The author makes a comparative assessment and integration between the seemingly opposite metaphysics of Jenson and Calvin while keeping the Creator creature distinction of Reformed theology intact Jenson says that the end is music but the author affirms a better way without negating Jenson s

"Defender of the Most Holy Matriarchs": Martin Luther's Interpretation of the Women of Genesis in the Enarrationes in Genesin, 1535-1545 Mickey Leland Mattox, 2021-10-01 This work examines Martin Luther s interpretation of the female characters in the stories of Genesis drawing attention to his appropriation of premodern catholic interpretations of the biblical saints In Luther s hands many of these women became heroic examples of the godly life newly adapted to the worldly asceticism of emerging Protestantism Their everyday sanctity exercised for the most part within the limits Luther believed God had imposed on their sex displayed the kind of piety he thought should animate Christian women in their own households Two chapters evaluate Luther s interpretation of Eve noting his understanding of the ideal relations between men and women Five further chapters examine Sarah Hagar Rachel the daughters and wife of Lot and Potiphar s wife
