Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

Breaking news notifications	bulletin	headlines round-the-clock reporting	interview	news flash scandal
--------------------------------	----------	--	-----------	-----------------------

1. I don't usually read the newspaper – I just look at the headlines to see if anything important has happened.
2. I was watching a film on TV when suddenly the film was interrupted by a news flash. Apparently, there's a bad storm heading towards our region.
3. These days, TV news channels have to provide round-the-clock reporting. In other words, they have to report the news 24 hours a day.
4. I read a really interesting interview with a former politician in yesterday's newspaper. The interviewer asked lots of really difficult questions and the politician didn't know what to say.
5. I've got an app on my phone that sends me notifications of the most important news stories. I can then click on the link to read the full story.
6. That's all for today's programme. The next news bulletin is at ten o'clock.
7. Now we've got some breaking news for you. We've just heard that the prime minister is in hospital after a skiing accident.
8. There was a shocking story about a tennis player secretly being paid a lot of money to lose an important match. It's a real scandal.

Unit 3: Exercise 2

Choose the correct words to complete the text.

What are the main opinions/sources/summaries of news? Where do journalists get their stories from? Well, there's always an element of personal interviewing/reporting/researching, i.e. seeing things with your own eyes and describing what you see. In the same way, journalists interview a lot of articles/reporters/witnesses to events, to find out what happened from the people who actually saw it happening. Journalists can also find their own news stories, through investigation, where they do a lot of research to cause/discover/effect something completely new. They can also find out useful information from account/reaction/social media sites. It's fair to say that a large number of news stories are provided by businesses and other organisations as press archives/images/releases. Organisations also hold press conferences, where a large number of journalists are invited to listen to important discussions/radio/statements and then ask questions.

Unit 3: Exercise 3

Complete the sentences. Use the verbs in the box.

7. Comment	2. follow	6. interview	5. release	8. report	1. research	4. stay
3. update

1. I'd love to be a TV journalist so I could travel around the world and report on all the big events, as they happen.
2. Last month, I tried to interview a famous film star about her latest film, but she didn't want to answer any of my questions.
