The University of California Chronicle, 1915, Vol. 17 University of California,2016-12-23 Excerpt from The University of California Chronicle 1915 Vol 17 An Official Record The chair As we assemble here this morning there is a place vacant which will be vacant for the future I have been entrusted with the office of presenting an expression in memoriam and with the permission of the Council I will read as from the Chair what has been written postponing the routine of business in order that we may act with seemly composure of mind It will then be in order to move from the oor that this statement be entered upon our minutes and be communicated to the family of our late associate The death of Professor Samuel Benedict Christy makes his colleagues of the Academic Council keenly sensible of having sustained a serious loss affecting the University at large as well as the department which he directed through this silencing by sudden removal of a man valued highly in counsel for his long and fruitful experience for his earnest and unwavering loyalty About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works from University of California Chronicle Vol 5 Wherever men and women meet to do honor to a university they meet in the faith that education is a life long growth not an access to books and teachers for a few fortunate years but a process that keeps pace with life that broadens and deepens with experience We test books by no less magical a touchstone than life itself We search life unceasingly for the evidence of those great hopes which we have learned from literature I wish to take this tenet of our common creed and apply it to a somewhat wider field than that of the individual The national life too is a long process of education The nation like the individual tests by experience the value of its bookish theories and out of its experience in turn spring its Vital books The history of literature in America is the history more or less accurately translated of American life Not every phase of national existence it is true receives adequate translation into literature and yet most periods of heightened national consciousness have found some sort of literary interpretation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works great pleasure that I come hither to bring from the University of California a greeting to her little sister a sister not yet fully grown but giving sure promise of great comeliness and great usefulness in the coming years We of the University of California have reason to think highly of Pomona College By their fruits ye shall know them We have had at the University many students who have received a part or the whole of their undergraduate training at Pomona College No class of students that we have shows better training more well guided intelligence greater moral earnestness than this We have been in a position to apply to this institution the only test which ought to be applied in judging of the value of an educational establishment and Pomona has not been found wanting I can therefore bring to you heartiest greeting and encouragement as to those who are doing good work and who will succeed because they deserve to
