Una Vita Da Extracomunitario Italian:

Reimagining the Italian South Goffredo Polizzi, 2022-03-25 Images of southern Italy as a place of arrival for migrants with different origins and backgrounds have in recent years proliferated in Italian media as well as in contemporary Italian literature and cinema The unprecedented perspective which presents the mezzogiorno as a place where people arrive and not only as a place of departure constitutes a major change in the collective imaginary on the region and fosters new engagements with its migratory histories This book presents one of the first studies to focus entirely through in depth readings of a range of contemporary literary and cinematic texts on the representation of contemporary migration to southern Italy and on the concomitant changes in the tradition of representation of the region Informed by translation theory and by decolonial queer and feminist critique this innovative study zeroes in on the mutual construction of race gender and sexuality and on the translation and hybridization of languages and cultures at the southern border By giving a rich and compelling account of texts which tell multiple stories of mobility from to and through the South this book traces the emergence of a transnational imaginary of the mezzogiorno which offers useful tools for an urgent reconfiguration of collective and individual identities

Loco Motrix Amelia Rosselli, 2012-03 A musician musicologist and self defined poet of research Amelia Rosselli 1930 96 was one of the most important poets to emerge from Europe in the aftermath of World War II Following a childhood and adolescence spent in exile from Fascist Italy between France England and the United States Rosselli was driven to express the hopes and devastations of the postwar epoch through her demanding and defamiliarizing lines Rosselli s trilingual body of work synthesizes a hybrid literary heritage stretching from Dante and the troubadours through Ezra Pound and John Berryman in which playful inventions across Italian English and French coexist with unadorned social critique In a period dominated by the confessional mode Rosselli aspired to compose stanzas characterized by a new objectivity and collective orientation where the I is the public where the I is things where the I is the things that happen Having chosen Italy as an ideal fatherland Rosselli wrote searching and often discomposing verse that redefined the domain of Italian poetics and in the process irrevocably changed the Italian language This collection the first to bring together a generous selection of her poems and
