Una Vida Sin Limites Spanish Edition:

Una Vida Sin Limites , Spanish New York Narratives 1898-1936 David Miranda-Barreiro,2017-07-05 In the early decades of the twentieth century New York caught the attention of Spanish writers Many of them visited the city and returned to tell their experience in the form of a literary text That is the case of Pruebas de Nueva York 1927 by Jose Moreno Villa 1887 1955 El crisol de las razas 1929 by Teresa de Escoriaza 1891 1968 Anticipolis 1931 by Luis de Oteyza 1883 1961 and La ciudad automatica 1932 by Julio Camba 1882 1962 In tune with similar representations in other European works the image of New York given in these texts reflects the tensions and anxieties generated by the modernisation embodied by the United States These authors project onto New York their concerns and expectations about issues of class gender and ethnicity that were debated at the time in the context of the crisis of Spanish national identity triggered by the end of the empire in 1898 Serial Authorship and New Directions in Spanish Female Detective Fiction Inmaculada

Pertusa-Seva,Melissa A. Stewart,2024-10-11 This collection of essays expands our understanding and appreciation of the body of work by established female authors of Spanish crime fiction series by analyzing recent narratives that in some cases contribute in novel ways to the ongoing reformulation of the genre and in others provide readers with a temporary hiatus from it The studies offer students and scholars of crime fiction new perspectives on the works of well known authors as well as analyses of their often less known narratives that may not fit within the genre Readers will engage in an exploration of gender dynamics and sexuality a variety of psychological and social issues and the consequences of the indiscriminate consumption of media and abuse of the environment and animals in narratives that exhibit the versatility of these outstanding authors The volume will appeal to a wide audience of literary and cultural studies critics as well as crime fiction enthusiasts and newcomers to this popular genre French and Spanish Queer Film Chris Perriam,2016-06-02 The book advances the current state of film audience research and of our knowledge of sexuality in transnational contexts by analysing how French LGBTQ films are seen in Spain and Spanish ones in France It studies films in various media and platforms and their reception across four languages Spanish French Catalan English and considers and engages with participants from across a range of digital and physical audience locations with a particular focus on festivals It examines films that chronicle the local in portraying national and sub national identities and draws on the regional global translating and transferring foreign models of non heterosexual experience No comparative and crosscutting study with audience research at its heart has yet been undertaken Ensayo de bibliografía razonada de Gustavo Adolfo Bécquer Rubén Benítez,1961 Philippine

 Much praised as a writer but highly controversial as political commentator Mario Vargas Llosa s fiction is often regarded as reflecting his notorious political development from a leftwing to a neo liberal position This study makes a critical evaluation of the interrelations within his fictional and non fictional work from the 1960s to the present day revealing a surprising continuity in his fictional creation and is his ideas about literature Politics being one of the most persistent demons which according to his theory provoke his creativity the book offers a detailed reading of three political novels from different periods of his writing career Conversacion en la catedral 1969 La guerra del fin del mundo 1981 and La fiesta del Chivo 2000 are analysed in relation to his works of literary theory political commentary memoirs and other fictional texts Despite considerable shifts in political and literary matters Vargas Llosa s writings show a continuous and unchanged concern for two interrelated issues the impact of political problems such as authoritarianism corruption ideology and violence on the individual and the question of literature and the role of writers and intellectuals in society Contents Narrative and historical
