The Unconscious Abyss Jon Mills, 2012-02-01 Offering the first comprehensive examination of Hegel's theory of the unconscious abyss Jon Mills rectifies a much neglected area of Hegel scholarship Mills shows that the unconscious is the foundation for conscious and self-conscious life and is responsible for the normative and pathological forces that fuel psychic development In addition Mills illustrates how Hegel's idea of the unconscious abyss transcends his time and is a pivotal concept to his entire philosophical system one that advances the current understanding of the psychoanalytic mind

Denial, Negation, and the Forces of the Negative Wilfried Ver Eecke, 2006-06-01 Finalist for the 2006 Goethe Award for Psychoanalytic Scholarship presented by the Section on Psychoanalytic and Psychodynamic Psychology of the Canadian Psychological Association It is often the case that painful truths emerge first in the form of denial one needs to create distance from what is painful In Denial Negation and the Forces of the Negative Wilfried Ver Eecke constructs a comprehensive lucid account of denial's psychological and philosophical dimensions while using Freud Hegel Lacan Spitz and Sophocles to help us understand this unavoidable aspect of human existence Ver Eecke acknowledges Hegel's claim that the road to truth is not a path of doubt but a highway of despair and argues via Hegel's ontology of the person that denial can be understood as a desiring being's defense against despair By examining the role of no-saying in children Freud's claims about freedom of the will and its necessary prerequisites and Sophocles' Oedipus Ver Eecke demonstrates the idea that denial is connected with situations in which the self-image of a person is threatened He concludes with a colleague's autobiography to highlight the deep tragic experiences that denial covers and the enormous psychic work required to overcome profound denial with the ultimate reward of experiencing oneself as the fulfillment of the promise of life The Philosophical Review

Jacob Gould Schurman, James Edwin Creighton, Frank Thilly, Gustavus Watts Cunningham, 2003 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2002-04 Inventing God Jon Mills, 2016-07-22 In this controversial book philosopher and psychoanalyst Jon Mills argues that God does not exist and more provocatively that God cannot exist as anything but an idea Put concisely God is a psychological creation signifying ultimate ideality Mills argues that the idea or conception of God is the manifestation of humanity's denial and response to natural deprivation a self-relation to an internalized idealized object the idealization of imagined value After demonstrating the lack of any empirical evidence and the logical impossibility of God Mills explains the psychological motivations underlying humanity's need to invent a supreme being In a highly nuanced analysis of unconscious processes informing the psychology of belief and institutionalized social ideology he concludes that belief in God is the failure to accept our impending death and mourn natural absence for the delusion of divine presence As an alternative to theistic faith he offers a secular spirituality that emphasizes the quality of lived experience the primacy of feeling and value inquiry ethical self-consciousness aesthetic and ecological sensibility and authentic relationality toward self other and world as the pursuit of a beautiful soul in search of the numinous Inventing God will be of interest to academics scholars lay audiences and students of religious studies the humanities philosophy and psychoanalysis among other disciplines It will also appeal to psychotherapists psychoanalysts and mental health professionals focusing on the integration of humanities and psychoanalysis

The Potencies of God(s) Edward Allen Beach,1994-01-01 This book explores the metaphysical epistemological and hermeneutical theories of Schelling s final system concerning the nature and meaning of religious mythology This perspective is not surprising since Schelling regarded religion not science or philosophy as embodying the most complete manifestation of truth Beach examines Schelling s novel attempt to account for the changing historical forms of religion in terms of a complex theory of dynamic spiritual powers or potencies He shows that these are not mere representations ideas or projected feelings created by ancient myth makers for the benefit of a credulous populace Instead Beach demonstrates that these potencies should be seen as animate powers inhabiting the unconscious strata of a people s collective mind American Book Publishing Record ,2002

Jacob Boehme and the Spiritual Roots of Psychotherapy Glenn J. McCullough,2025-04-14 Jacob Boehme 1574 1624 was a wildly creative mystical writer whose extraordinary revelations of God the soul and the universe have been consigned to obscurity In this original book Glenn J McCullough argues that Boehme is the ultimate source of a key modern movement psychotherapy Bringing clarity to Boehme s revelations McCullough shows how he anticipates the pioneering concepts of Sigmund Freud and C G Jung including their ideas of the unconscious mind and its remarkable potentials At the centre of Boehme s thought is the figure of Sophia divine Wisdom and her seven drives which guide the soul on a journey of expanded awareness and rebirth While Boehme has been dismissed as an esoteric outsider McCullough situates him in the mainstream Western tradition of Augustine and Luther while highlighting his unique approach to the ecstatic dream world of Wisdom
