Under The Overpass A Journey Of Faith On The Streets Of America:

Under the Overpass Mike Yankoski,2009-01-21 An updated and expanded edition of the gritty challenging and utterly captivating portrait of the homeless crisis Ever Wonder What it Would Be Like to Live Homeless Mike Yankoski did more than just wonder By his own choice Mike's life went from upper middle class plush to scum of the earth repulsive overnight With only a backpack a sleeping bag and a guitar Mike and his traveling companion Sam set out to experience life on the streets in six different cities from Washington D C to San Diego and they put themselves to the test For more than five months the pair experienced firsthand the extreme pains of hunger the constant uncertainty and danger of living on the streets exhaustion depression and social rejection and all of this by their own choice They wanted to find out if their faith was real if they could actually be the Christians they said they were apart from the comforts they'd always known to discover first hand what it means to be homeless in America What you encounter in these pages will radically alter how you see your world and may even change your life

Who is My Neighbor? Phillip K. Tompkins,2015-11-17 Who Is My Neighbor is a compelling account of the author's ten year journey as a volunteer at the St Francis Center a homeless shelter in Denver Colorado A retired Professor of Communication Phil Tompkins marshals his considerable experience as a participant observer in recording the voices of the guests of the shelter as they teach us about their situation We learn about their hopes for regaining a home and their fears as they are victimized in some cases even murdered Tompkins shows how effective communication and organization can contribute to finding an end to homelessness and establishing a movement toward protective action especially when a proactive local government gets involved In addition to giving voice to homeless people Who Is My Neighbor explores Denver Mayor John Hickenlooper's ambitious Commission to End Homelessness This remarkable social experiment now called Denver's Road Home is two years into implementing an innovative plan for ending homelessness It provides a model for other cities nationwide where persistent homelessness has defied resolution

My 30 Days Under the Overpass Mike Yankoski,2009-02-04 Live Life Loud You passed that same ol' bum on the street this morning You sat next to some smelly girl on the subway last night You ordered a burger from a worn out cashier over your lunch hour What do you think about these people What does God think about them My 30 Days Under the Overpass is not a devotional you will read in your quiet time then carry on with your day It's something you'll actually do all day every day because these thirty days will rock you Intense reflection on God's thoughts and feelings toward the poor broken and downtrodden will change you and you will begin to change the world Not on your next mission trip Not at church next Sunday But right here right now Ask It How do you treat others those you like know don't know don't like Those who fall into your comfort zone and those who shove you outside of it Read It Mike Yankoski and his buddy Sam chose to become homeless to discover their answer Think It Would you go sleep under a bridge in the rain Would you panhandle for your next meal Would you help those who do Believe It I tell you the truth whatever you did not do for one of the least of these you did not do for me said Jesus Matthew 25 45 experiencing it The result was a year dedicated to engaging in spiritual practices both ancient and modern in a life altering process that continues to this day Whether contemplating an apple for an hour before tasting it attentiveness eating on 2 00 a day simplicity or writing simple letters of thanks gratitude Michael discovered a whole new depth through the intentional life Stirred on by the guiding voice of Father Solomon a local monk Yankoski s life is slowly transformed Both entertaining and heart wrenching Yankoski s story will resonate with those who wish to deepen their own committed faith as well as those who are searching perhaps for the first time for their own authentic encounter with the Divine Journey of the Streets

Gary Miller, 2011-12 I didn t have a clue what God had planned for my future which was preparing me for not only just a mission field relating to the homeless but so engraving into my heart and mind by personal experience it ended up the way most of them feel about their circumstances They all have their own story I know I have mine as well I discovered we had a lot in common We really did Most of us worked together on different jobs we shared the good and bad stories of our lives our hopes and dreams as well When we found others we could trust and get along with we had a tendency to camp together I was a born again Christian and liked nothing better than to share with those who were receptive my faith and hope in Jesus Christ Some weren t interested but those who were we were able to form a pretty tight bond I was establishing a good reputation over the days weeks months and years I worked with some of them I only lived the homeless life because being an unskilled laborer as I was minimum wage was never enough to even seriously think about trying to get an apartment and work as sporadic as it was I needed the money for necessities I d go for days on end with no money It was rough very rough Because of growing respect for me and my faith I was able to lead some to a personal faith relationship with Christ and this was the climax of my life when that would happen Living out in the elements for years sometimes in less time depending on the individual takes its toll on ones physical health and ability to work every day as one would hope to Some would get sick some would get injured some would get robbed and left for dead for someone else to come across them later on The rain would soak you the cold would freeze you sickness would seem like a living hell crying wouldn t help anything Church people said they loved us and treated us with utter condescending jeers it made a person heart sick and soon it would make a person start to wonder if there was really hope for things to get better I grew angry not for myself but for the others whose lives seemed to be in the balance of life and death on a daily bases and I sought out God as to what I could do to make a difference for THEM I went church to church pleasantly but urgently seeking for them to contribute money to help missions that help the homeless find work and a real place to live but I was laughed at I was cruelly by supposedly up standing pastors mocked and I was lied on This infuriated me but I kept it to myself In time God began to work in me what now I see as a writing ministry now that I have my own place to live and I still go to Bible Study meetings weekly to stay in contact with those I ve known for years and to meet the newer ones I see tangible evidence of God moving in their lives and helping them get places to live and I see smiles on their faces now PRICELESS smiles This my reward THANK GOD

With Love from the Streets. Nate Bull,2014-12-17 With Love from the Streets is a confessional about the process of repentance from a model of church that has been learned all over America Challenging and sometimes disturbing this love letter to believers comes from Nate Bull s years as a domestic street missionary and asks many questions about what the church in the west has come to believe and why Glo-O-Ory!!! What a Faith Journey Bishop Bryant,2013-01-25 This book is the journey of a man that for one year lived a life of faith Many times we may say whatever God wants me to do I am willing to do But what if God gave you the greatest challenge of your life and spoke to you like he did Abram saying Get thee out of thy country and from thy kindred and from thy father s house unto a land that I will shew thee Genesis 12 1 Often we hear the voice of God and we pretend we didn t hear anything Just imagine you are told to leave everything and go on a homeless journey You must leave all the luxuries and comforts of home behind to be homeless for a year You are told to take nothing with you but the clothes on your back No credit cards checks passbook savings no drivers license Social Security card no ID and no cash NOTHING but F A I T H What would you do Here is a story of faith courage and obedience from a man of God that forsook all at the Master s call to go on a journey that would change his entire life This book will restore your faith deepen your dedication for God your love for your fellowman and help you to see that life has purpose and we each are called to minister to the least of them The words that you want to hear from the Master at the end of your journey are for Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me Matthew 25 40 Bishop W L Bryant is a man of God that has seen God move on many occasions He is no stranger to the power of God and this book is just another testimony of the awesomeness of the God he serves Bishop Bryant has always had a burden in his heart for the homeless with an effort to try to recruit others into this worthy ministry Bishop Bryant wrote this book with the hope that it will be used to open the hearts minds and eyes to a problem that we see every day yet we try to sweep under the rug Bishop wants to see the church taking a more active role and he pray that this book will help the church to deal with the needs of the homeless with love compassion and wisdom ALL HOMELESS INDIVIDUALS ARE A CREATION OF THE CREATOR And it s time that we take up the torch and treat them as such so that we can hear the words of the Master saying For I was hungered and ye gave me meat I was thirsty and ye gave me drink I was a stranger and ye took me in Naked and ye clothed me I was sick and ye visited me Matthew 25 35 36a Street Saints Barbara J.
