Ofoatey-Alazard, 2020-06-29 This volume is dedicated to fictional negotiations of future or rather futureS After all future cannot but exist in a multitude of complementary and or competing futures all causally related to each other just as much as to their pasts and their respective memories Within this cyclical and causal triad of past present and future futureS have been made and unmade remembered and forgotten affirmed and subverted in the multiversity of competing agencies interests and accesses to power and privileges Thus framed African and African diasporic futureS have been done undone and redone over the centuries affecting and affected by planetary actions as ruled by global power constellations whilst being contemplated and moulded by fictional interventions in the process Literature and other cultural means of expression such as film fine arts performing arts and the internet are at the centre of this volume Employing FutureS as a critical category of analysis the book comprises perspectives from Europe Africa and the Middle East from academics activists and artists They all share their perspectives on African and African diasporic visions of futureS with an emphasis on dreaming and memory environmentalism and ethics freedom and resistance This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of the African Literature Association Reimagining Christianity and Sexual Diversity in Africa Adriaan van

Mmanwu and Mission among the Igbo People of Nigeria Adolphus Chikezie Anuka ,2018 The joy over the growth of Christianity in Africa is also a challenge to all concerned to help Christianity take roots ennobled and become one with the cultural life of the numerous tribes of Africa This missionary expectation is not yet fully realized in many local churches in Africa From these perspectives Adolphus Chikezie Anuka inaugurates a new brand of concrete target oriented emphasis on dialogical inculturation In this book the Mmanwu cultural institution of the Igbo people of south eastern Nigeria stands in central focus opening itself to the influences of Christian values as well as speaking to the religious assumptions of Christianity The theoretical results of this research work and its practical pastoral suggestions are both enlightening and appealing
