Thinking the Faith

Douglas John Hall,1991-01-01 As the Christian movement nears the end of its second millennium it faces a crisis that could not have been anticipated at the close of the first thousand years or indeed by most of our own great grandparents Since the most conspicuous dimensions of the waning of Christendom have to do with material decline the decline in church membership and active attendance of Sunday services the decline in financial and physical prosperity the decline of influence in high places such analyses as there are usually belabor the obvious something drastic is happening to the churches Throughout most of its long history Christianity has not required of its adherents that they should think the faith The historical accident of its political and cultural establishment 15 centuries ago ensured that a thinking faith would be purely optional for members of the church But thought less faith which has always been a contradiction in terms is today a stage on the road to the extinction not only of Christianity itself but of whatever the architects of our civilization meant by Humanity Only a thinking faith can survive Only a thinking faith can help the world survive From the Preface The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 If this is Social Studies, why Isn't it Boring?

Stephanie Steffey,Wendy J. Hood,1994 The provocative title of this book plays on a too familiar response from teachers and students alike But now many teachers have begun to seek an approach to social studies that takes account of the ways children learn and that builds on their own knowledge and strengths The authors in this book have found ways to do this Wendy Hood writes in the Introduction that they have not only rediscovered social studies education in general they have also found themselves exploring the many disciplines of the social sciences that combine to make social studies The issues of the disciplines are visible the content of the disciplines is visible and the questions central to each discipline are central in these classrooms While the studies described began in one discipline they branched out or melted into one or more of the others In this contributed collection twenty three teachers explain their successful strategies for teaching the social studies disciplines in a whole language context If This Is Social Studies covers contemporary subjects the Gulf War traditional topics students as historians well known projects Scottish Storyline social studies in the community and multicultural matters Teachers at elementary through middle and high school levels will find this book s holistic approach to social studies a refreshing departure and a source of new practical ideas Indeed the diversity of ideas and styles is as broad as the book s subject A Fluid Frontier Karolyn Smardz Frost,Veta Smith Tucker,2016-02-15 Scholars of the Underground Railroad as well as those in borderland studies will appreciate the interdisciplinary mix and unique contributions of this volume

Rethinking Our Classrooms Bill Bigelow,1994 Readings resources lesson plans and reproducible student handouts aimed at teaching students to question the traditional ideas and images that interfere with social justice and community building Canadiana ,1986 Freewater - Literature Kit Gr. 5-6 Vaani Sai,2024-08-13 Experience what it s like to go on the run for your freedom and well being Students will become immediately engaged with this resource due to the fun and educational activities Explain the reason behind the appearance of the tree people Dissect key characters from the story to learn the meanings behind their actions Determine why it is ironic that Sanzi set the cornfields on fire Explore Sanzi's initial reaction to the Southerland Plantation Complete a timeline showing the historical events related to the resistance and triumph over slavery Create a character cube to understand their motivations Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy our worksheets incorporate a variety of scaffolding strategies along with additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key About the Novel Freewater follows the journey of a young boy and girl as they find refuge with a hidden society of escaped slaves living in the swamp Homer and his younger sister Ada have escaped the Southerland Plantation Now they are alone and lost in the swamp Ada wants to wait for their mother who also escaped with them Homer feels guilty as he's the reason their mother went back to find his friend Now they don't know where their mother is and the overseer from the Plantation is looking for them Found by a man named Suleman the two siblings escape the reaches of the overseer and venture further into the thick swamp Eventually Suleman lead the pair to Freewater an established community of escaped slaves Here Homer and Ada experience a life of freedom and kinship However Homer can't shake his guilt over losing their mother and determines to make a plan to go back to Southerland to rescue her

Our Global Heritage Gr. 4-6 , Storytelling in Participatory Arts with Young People Catherine Heinemeyer, 2020-06-30 This book draws on the author's experience as a storyteller drama practitioner and researcher to articulate an emerging dialogic approach to storytelling in participatory arts educational mental health youth theatre and youth work contexts It argues that oral storytelling offers a rich and much needed channel for intergenerational dialogue with young people The book keeps theory firmly tethered to practice Section 1 Storyknowing traces the history of oral storytelling practice with adolescents across diverse contexts and brings into clear focus the particular nature of the storytelling exchange and narrative knowledge Section 2 Telling Stories introduces readers to some of the key challenges and possibilities of dialogic storytelling by reflecting on stories from the author's own arts based practice research with adolescents illustrating these with young people's artistic responses to stories Finally section 3 Story Gaps conceptualises dialogic storytelling by exploring three different gaps the gap between storyteller and listener the gaps in the story and the gaps which storytellers can open up within institutions The book includes chapters taking a special focus on storytelling in schools and in mental health settings as well as guided reflections for readers to relate the issues raised to their own practice
