Understanding Folk Religion A Christian Response To Popular Beliefs And Practices:

Understanding Folk Religion: 25th Anniversary Edition Paul G. Hiebert, R. Daniel Shaw, Tite Tienou, 2024-04-24 This book has served the missiological community for twenty five years as a resource for understanding human spirituality in any context Thousands of students have incorporated the principles of this book into ministry around the globe This twenty fifth anniversary edition seeks to enable those who now bring their passion for mission to contemporary contexts affected by globalization climate change and political perspectives unimagined when this book originally appeared Every community wherever it is on earth has its share of beliefs and values that manifest themselves in practices that reflect spiritual engagement Those engaged in mission need to appreciate how underlying beliefs and values are reflected in handling spiritual power worship and blessing and interaction with others Gospel communicators must account for these elements as they seek to make God s intentions known to people who are searching for God The models presented early in the book are essential for establishing what people consider spiritually critical Applying these models in any religious environment will enable message bearers to engage with beliefs and practices that promote a gospel presentation that makes sense To that end we commend this book for effective missional engagement Contextualization and Syncretism Gailyn Van Rheenen, 2006 Culture s influence upon Christianity is easier to discern in retrospect than in prospect If history is our guide one thing is sure This age will be as syncretistic as any other How is the gospel being contextualized in the contemporary world To what degree are these new contextualizations syncretistic This book attempts to answer these questions by defining and analyzing contextualization and syncretism Gailyn Van Rheenen Christologies, Cultures, and Religions, Papers presented at the First Theological Forum of Mindanao 2014 Inter religious and inter cultural perspectives on how we view and understand Christ Contributors Victor Aguilan Herbert T Ale Mariano C Apilado Pascal D Bazzell Lee Joseph Custodio Jos M de Mesa Edgar B Ebojo Eleazar S Fernandez Foreword Omar Abu Khalil Melba P Maggay Epilogue Muriel Orevillo Montenegro Aldrin M Pe amora Brian Powell Chiu Eng Tan Rico Villanueva Emo Yango The Muslim Majority Robin Hadaway, 2021-09-15 More than 70 percent of Muslims worldwide practice folk Islam a syncretistic mix of theologically orthodox Islam and traditional religious beliefs and practices The Muslim Majority is unlike many published works on evangelism to Muslims which argue for either apologetic or contextualized bridge approaches These approaches are often ineffective in reaching adherents of popular Islam Instead author and missiologist Robin Hadaway outlines a contextual approach that addresses the unique perspective of popular Islam Hadaway explains the differences between folk Islam and orthodox Islam and explores best practices for reaching the vast majority of Muslims with the gospel of Jesus Christ A Charitable Orthopathy John W. Morehead, Brandon C. Benziger, 2020-04-07 Evangelicals and other conservative Christians of the twenty first century face enormous challenges in the pluralistic public square not least with Muslims and atheists Contrary to biblical injunctions to keep in step with the Spirit Gal 5 25b and to love our neighbors as ourselves e g Matt 22

37 40 Luke 10 25 37 both of which involve not only behavioral but also important affective elements we often harbor deep seated antipathies toward atheists and adherents of other religions While such feelings are at times justified and help us cope with conflict related tragedies they are also often baseless misconstrued and counterproductive priming us to avoid religious others support discriminatory policies against them and even confront them in verbal or physical ways The purpose of this volume is to offer an academically informed yet practically oriented collection of essays that challenges and encourages Christians to engage their religious neighbors in a much more loving compassionate hopeful and courageous indeed orthopathic manner whether in the realm of politics in debate and conference venues on the mission field or in their own homes schools churches and neighborhoods As such a set of reflection and discussion questions is included to facilitate individual and or group study

Traditional Ritual as Christian Worship Burrows, William

R., Shaw, R. Daniel, 2018-03-27 A necessary task of missionaries in recent decades has been to help local Christians inculturate or contextualize their faith although the criteria for doing so often came from outside the context in which new believers developed their understanding of Christianity Highlighting the voices of non Western scholars this work recognizes the importance of ritual and ceremony in the life of communities that seek to worship God in ways that reflect culturally appropriate responses to Scripture The contributors some of missiology s leading lights discuss rituals beliefs and practices of diverse peoples supporting the conclusion that orthodox Christianity is hybrid Christianity African Proverbs Reveal Christianity in Culture W. Jay Moon, 2009-06-01 In many oral cultures local proverbs are highly regarded for their wisdom and prized for their aesthetic expression In this study Jay Moon provides an in depth look at the use of local proverbs among the Builsa culture of Ghana West Africa In particular the author s research shows how local proverbs can facilitate contextualized expressions of Christianity that are both biblically authentic and culturally relevant The process of initiating and sustaining this form of expression is explicated with the help of an engaging narrative providing valuable insights for those striving for genuine and meaningful expression of Christ in culture This study will be especially beneficial to the missionary community particularly for the purposes of appreciating oral literature in primary oral cultures finding proper roles in the contextualization process identifying cultural values via the window of local proverbs training missionaries in cultural understanding and tailoring discipleship training to incorporate significant aspects of orality New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement Tom Steffen, Cameron D. Armstrong, 2022-02-18 Orality formed us Orality forms us Orality will forever form us Orality is a central theme of our lives In this fast paced world few Christian workers take the time to look back to learn and build on the lessons of the past Wise Christian workers however do not forge ahead into new horizons without first investigating past horizons They understand in this complex world there are too many strong shoulders of the past to be overlooked The dozen practiced researchers contributing to New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement offer such inquirers wisdom from the past that can boldly and boundlessly improve the future of the modern day orality movement Intercultural Discipleship (Encountering Mission) W. Jay Moon, 2017-12-05 This addition to an acclaimed series brings cutting edge research to bear on a topic of perennial interest making disciples The book looks at disciple making from multiple cultures to help readers discover contextual approaches that are culturally relevant and biblically faithful It emphasizes methods that are especially effective with contemporary converts and includes practical examples from around the world Each chapter includes sidebars discussion questions an activity for discipling and a case study An appendix contains further suggestions and exercises for instructors A New History of African Christian Thought David Ngong, 2016-11-10 David Tonghou Ngong offers a comprehensive view of African Christian thought that includes North Africa in antiquity as well as Sub Saharan Africa from the period of colonial missionary activity to the present Challenging conventional colonial divisions of Africa A New History of African Christian Thought demonstrates that important continuities exist across the continent Chapters written by specialists in African Christian thought reflect the issues both ancient and modern in which Christian Africa has impacted the shape of Christian belief from the beginning of the movement up to the present day

Shembe, Ancestors, and Christ Edley J. Moodley PhD, 2008-08-18 The Christian axis has shifted dramatically southward to Africa Asia and Latin America so much so that today there are more Christians living in these southern regions than among their northern counterparts In the case of Africa the African Initiated Churches founded by Africans and primarily for Africans has largely contributed to the exponential growth and proliferation of the Christian faith in the continent Yet even more profoundly these churches espouse a brand of Christianity that is indigenized and thoroughly contextual Further the power and popularity of the AICs beyond the unprecedented numbers joining these churches are attributed to their relevance to the existential everyday needs and concerns of their adherents in the context of a postcolonial Africa At the heart of Christian theology is Christology the confessed uniqueness of Christ in history and among world religions Yet this key feature of Christianity as with other important elements of the Christian faith may be variously understood and re interpreted in these indigenous churches The focus of this study is the amaNazaretha Church an influential religious group founded by the African charismatic prophet Isaiah Shembe in 1911 in the province of KwaZulu Natal South Africa The movement today claims a following of some two million adherents and has proliferated beyond the borders of South Africa to neighboring countries in Southern Africa The book addresses the complex and at times ambivalent understanding of the person and work of Christ in the amaNazaretha Church presenting the genesis history beliefs and practices of this significant religious movement in South Africa with broader implications for similar movements across the continent of Africa and beyond

A Theological Understanding of Power for Poverty Alleviation in the Philippines Yohan Hong, 2022-02-28 This book calls attention to the sense of powerlessness of everyday people in the Philippines and to the missional agency of US based Filipino Protestants Through a variety of sociological theological missiological perspectives this book guides you to a journey of discovering what kind of power is in play how the fallen powers can be named and made visible and then ultimately the ways through which power should be restored In this process the voices perceptions stories and insights of US based Filipino Protestants are referred to Filipino American Protestants are no longer forgotten Asians in the US Instead they actively perceive negotiate and exercise power in everyday life and strive to wield their missional agency in response to God's calling for the transformation of their homeland Philippines which has been seldom investigated in the academia of Diaspora Missiology and Intercultural Studies

Making Connections Marilyn Naidoo, 2021-11-19 Because of the disconnect within the curriculum and the lack of contextual relevance African theological education is still searching for appropriate approaches to ministerial training Integrative theological education refers to systematic attempts to connect

major learning experiences appropriate to the education and formation of ministers It is seen as a solution to connect and transform ministry training The main premise of this book is that the key to enhancing theological education is the intentional integration of knowing with being and doing of theory with practice and of theology with life and ministry In this way all aspects of student learning are brought together holistically highlighting an educational strategy that is concerned with connections in human experience thereby supporting student learning Making Connections offers the opportunity to consider integration as an appropriate pedagogical approach to create the correct balance in making education more meaningful and fulfilling for the African revealing humanising education grounded in African philosophy and worldview

Biblical Shalom for Sustainable Holistic Transformational Development in Nigeria Stephen Z.

Yashim,2020-12-14 How do Christian organizations engaged in development work effectively facilitate the holistic transformation of communities In this important contribution to the field Dr Stephen Yashim reviews the participatory problem solving approaches commonly utilized by Christian relief and development organizations in Nigeria Dr Yashim highlights the failure of current methods to facilitate dialogue between the biblical worldview with its divine transformative potential and the worldview of local rural communities In order for rural communities to progressively experience biblical shalom the total well being of the whole and its members they must be equipped to examine and articulate their own perspective on development while also engaging with biblical perspectives Dr Yashim proposes an alternative approach of participatory appreciative dialogue to be used alongside more traditional methods in pursuit of community transformation This is an excellent resource for anyone engaged in community development and transformation and who longs to experience biblical shalom poured out among individuals and communities Robinson Crusoe tries again Werner Ustorf,2010-09-15

The Christian experience in modern Europe is fragmented It shows great diversity in various geographical contexts and historically a considerable alternation of extremes high or low tides of engagement One aspect of the Christianity in Europe s past is its mission history The spread of Christianity from the West as one of its most important results into the continents of the Global South has been deeply ambivalent in character On the one hand the mission from the West helped to build the historical foundations for Christian education adolescence and maturation to responsible adulthood in a global diverse segregated and pluralistic world As a mature global player Christianity was in a prime position to contribute to peaceful conflict resolution in the religious social and political fields On the other hand the darkness and utter insufficiency of the encounter between the European Christian self and the many others worldwide brought along problematic projections of different beliefs attacked in a hostile way as alien and inevitably as conquered The consequences particularly for the primal other the indigenous people were often disastrous Werner Ustorf has been a leading missiologist worldwide for thirty years This book not only analyses the interaction between mission and individual the construction of the self and the other in a mission context but also proves the analytical strength of theology in conceptualizing future Christian experiences in Europe

Ustorf illustrates that apart from traditional dimension of faith a non religious interpretation and critical trust in transcendence is crucial for the formation of the new interculturalization of Christianity in Europe Thus this book demonstrates how mission history can be transformed to a research concept for a global and pluralistic Christianity Encountering Missionary Life and Work (Encountering Mission) Tom Steffen, Lois McKinney Douglas, 2008-06-01 This new volume in the award winning Encountering Mission series is for current and future missionaries It provides practical guidance regarding getting ready for the mission field and the realities of life on the field The authors are well qualified to write such a manual each having served as a missionary for more than twenty years and each having taught missions in seminary The authors begin by examining the contemporary context for missions including the recognition that the world s mission fields are in constant and often rapid change They then discuss aspects of preparing oneself for the mission field beginning with home front preparations and moving to on the field preparations The final section deals with practical issues and challenges of missionary life Insider Jesus William A. Dyrness, 2016-10-02 Missiologists today are considering the significance of insider movements followers of Jesus who are emerging from within Islamic Hindu Buddhist and other cultural contexts Are these authentic expressions of Christian faith If so how should we understand them William Dyrness brings a rare blend of cultural and theological engagement to his reflections on this important phenomenon The Evangelical Dictionary of World Religions H. Wayne House, 2019-02-19 With all of the different religions sects denominations and belief systems out there it can be difficult to separate the facts from mere opinion especially if one is relying solely on online sources which may or may not be vetted and which often have an ideological or political slant to them How can we truly understand if we cannot even be sure we are getting the facts straight In this comprehensive resource more than 75 evangelical scholars offer a thoroughly researched guide to Christianity other world religions and alternative religious views including entries on movements theological terms and major historical figures Perfect for pastors students and anyone who wants ready access to information on today s religious landscape
