Unexpected News Reading The Bible With Third World Eyes:

Unexpected News Robert McAfee Brown, 1984-01-01 Describes the ways that Asian African and South American Christians interpret the Bible especially the story of Jesus life Missiological Education for the Twenty-first Century J. Dudley Woodberry, Charles E. Van Engen, Edgar J. Elliston, 2005-06-07 Thoughtful and original contributions from twenty one of the world's foremost missiologists in a volume dedicated to Fuller Seminary's former dean Paul E Pierson outline an agenda for mission education that will provoke lively discussion for years to come Fuller Theological Seminary's School of World Mission is the locus of some of the most creative thought and scholarly reflection on Christian mission in today's world Edited by the School's dean and two professors a score of authors respond to the question How should missiological education be carried out to prepare men and women to work in the twenty first century Contributors Andrew F Walls Gerald H Anderson Paul G Hiebert Kenneth Mulholland L Grant McClung Jerald D Gort Mary Motte Michael James Oleksa Tite Tienou Samuel Escobar Ken R Gnanakan Wilbert R Shenk Darrell Whiteman Roger S Greenway Philip C Stine Stuart Dauermann Ralph D Winter J Dudley Woodberry Viggo Sogaard Charles Van Engen Edgar J Elliston The Zimbabwe Council of Churches and Development in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2020-05-22 There is a growing realization that religion plays a major role in development particularly in the Global South Whereas theories of secularization assumed that religion would disappear the reality is that religion has demonstrated its tenacity In the specific case of Zimbabwe religion has remained a positive social force and has made a significant contribution to development particularly through the Zimbabwe Council of Churches This has been through political activism contribution to health education women's emancipation and ethical reconstruction This volume analyzes the contribution of the Zimbabwe Council of Churches to development in the country African American Religious Studies Gayraud S. Wilmore, 1989 This anthology provides a coherent interdisciplinary theoretical base for students of African American religious studies and will assist in the design of programs and courses for lay theological education and training To this end the editor has assembled material from Old and New Testament studies theology church history pastoral counseling worship and social action Pastor William H. Willimon, 2010-09-01 Ordained ministry says Willimon is a gift of God to the church but that doesn't mean that it is easy Always a difficult vocation changes in society and the church in recent years have made the ordained life all the more complex and challenging Is the pastor primarily a preacher a professional caregiver an administrator Given the call of all Christians to be ministers to the world what is the distinctive ministry of the ordained When does one's ministry take on the character of prophet and when does it become that of priest What are the special ethical obligations and disciplines of the ordained In this book Willimon explores these and other central questions about the vocation of ordained ministry He begins with a discussion of who pastors are asking about the theological underpinnings of ordained ministry and then moves on to what pastors do looking at the distinctive roles the pastor must fulfill The book also draws on great teachers of the Christian tradition to demonstrate that while much about Christian ministry has changed its core concerns preaching the word the care of souls the sacramental life of congregations remains the same Ordained ministry is a vocation to which we are called not a profession that we choose To answer that call is to open oneself to heartache and sometimes hardship yet given the one who calls it is to make oneself available to deep and profound joy as well Discovering Luke Joel B. Green, 2021-09-16 This interpretation of Luke encourages in depth study of the text and genuine grappling with the theological and sociohistorical questions it raises It draws on a range of methodological interests author text and reader centered as complementary rather than mutually exclusive ways of understanding the text It also recognizes the importance of the reception history of biblical texts increasingly viewed as a vital aspect of interpretation rather than an optional extra Throughout Discovering Luke Joel Green gives readers strategies for reading the Gospel of Luke and guides them through Luke's world in its historical ideological political and economic contexts Green reviews key issues raised by the Gospel and connects these issues to questions of how Luke should be interpreted today The Jesus I Never Knew Philip Yancey, 2002-01-23 In this fresh look at Jesus family teachings miracles death and resurrection Yancey helps readers put aside preconceptions and discover a Master who is far more than many have ever imagined more disturbing more comforting and infinitely more satisfying Scripture and Ethics Jeffrey S. Siker, 1997 Siker brings together the history of biblical interpretation and the study of uses of the Bible in Christian ethics to examine how the Bible has actually been used in Christian theological ethics and in the process profiling eight influential twentieth century theologians Now We Read, We See, We Speak Victoria Purcell-Gates, Robin A. Waterman, 2000-04-01 Now We Read We See We Speak compellingly captures eight women's progress toward empowerment through a Freirean based literacy class in rural El Salvador and in the process provides telling lessons for literacy and adult educators around the world This book fills a real gap in the educational literature on critical theory and literacy teaching and learning For the first time we have a multi layered description and analysis of a literacy class based on Freirean precepts and principles through the perspective of traditional literacy theory and as interpreted through a literacy development lens This allows us to consider how the adult students learned to read and write within a classroom context that embodies such Freirean precepts as dialogic teacher student relations respect for and knowledge of the learners lives language and culture and intentionality about social political change Thus this book is directed toward literacy practitioners teachers and researchers who may have heard or read about critical theory but have a need for concrete examples of the methodological implications of such theory Enlivening this account is the compelling description of the histories and lives of the students in the literacy class campesinos women who have survived a brutal and devastating civil war in El Salvador and who nevertheless stepped forward to work with a U S trained literacy teacher Robin Waterman to learn to read and write for purposes of personal and sociocultural empowerment The authors provide a highly readable presentation of the historical and cultural contexts for the women and the literacy class They also raise issues of socioeconomic marginalization unequal power relationships and gender as they relate to literacy development Basing their account on meticulously gathered and analyzed ethnographic data Purcell Gates and Waterman go beyond the presentation of the study to suggest implications and issues for adult literacy education in the United States linking their findings to current topics in adult education as well as literacy development in general Religion and Violence, 1987-01-01 Robert McAfee Brown's Religion and Violence is a comprehensive introduction to the ethical and moral questions that abound at the intersection of violence and religion Brown discusses such important issues as nuclear war terrorism capital punishment and revolution Forming Deacons William T. Ditewig, Michael J. Tkacik, 2010 Forming Deacons Ministers of Soul and Leaven consists of essays by recognized leaders in diaconate formation many of whom contributed to the preparation of the National Directory for the Formation Ministry and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States promulgated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2004 While not a commentary on it these essays take the National Directory as their reference point and foundation Written from the multifaceted perspectives of pastors deacons academics and church officials all of whom are directly involved in the formation of deacons Forming Deacons offers valuable insights on the process of implementing in practical terms the theories presented in the National Directory This book will be a valuable resource for bishops their staffs all those involved in the formation of deacons and diaconate aspirants and candidates Portraits of a Mature God Mark McEntire, 2013-04-01 What difference would it make for Old Testament theology if we turned our attention from the more dramatic forceful mighty acts of God to the more subdued but more realistic themes of later writings in the Hebrew Bible The result Mark McEntire argues would be a more mature theology that would enable us to respond more realistically and creatively to the unprecedented challenges of the present age Congregations Carl Ellis Nelson, 1988-01-01 C Ellis Nelson has collaborated with and collected the works of ten leaders experienced in congregational affairs to design and produce a resource that helps ministers and lay leaders understand the dynamics of congregations The result is an engaging collection that will help pastors and church leaders invigorate their congregations Bread of Life and Cup of Joy Horton Davies, 1999-01-29 This book ventures a fresh look at the Eucharist in ways that draw Christians together rather than divide them A respected scholar of liturgical history Horton Davies here explores the Eucharist as memorial as thanksgiving as sacrifice as eschatological banquet as communion as mystery and as liberation and social justice A separate chapter examines the unitive concept of transignification Although the book as a whole presents ecumenical perspectives on the bread of life and cup of joy Davies also looks at areas of disagreement among the partners in ecumenical discussion The Integration Journey William B. Whitney, Carissa Dwiwardani, 2024-06-04 In this embodied practical approach to the integration of psychology and faith students are guided through the process of constructing a culturally informed organic model of integration that works for them and for justice in our churches communities and world with particular attention to the marginalized and oppressed The Anatomy of Preaching David L. Larsen, 1989 Insight and commentary on fifteen issues that affect a pastor's effectiveness including making a sermon flow escaping predictability and using narrative effectively My Lord & My God Korgen, Jeffry Odell, 2007 Provides Catholics with all the tools they need to build successful parish social ministries through invitation conversion and empowerment Apostolic Function Alan R. Johnson, 2009-06-01 The Paradigm of Missionary Identity In the past we have focused on the why of missions in terms of motives the what of missions in terms of the content of the message and the how of missions in terms of methodologies and strategies but the where question in terms of where we send cross cultural workers has simply been assumed it has meant crossing a geographic boundary In Apostolic Function in 21st Century Missions Alan R Johnson introduces the idea of apostolic function as the paradigm of missionary self identity that reminds us to focus our efforts on where Christ is not named He then examines in detail the where paradigm in missions frontier mission missiology with a sympathetic critique and a review of the major contributions of unreached people group thinking Johnson concludes by illustrating his notion of seeking to integrate missions paradigms and discussing of issues that relate specifically to the where questions of missions today Theology and the Arts Ruth Illman, W. Alan Smith, 2013-06-07 This book brings the emerging fields of practical theology and theology of the arts into a dialogue beyond the bias of modern systematic and constructive theology The authors draw upon postmodern post secular feminist liberation and dialogical dialectical philosophy and theology and their critiques of the narrow modern emphases on reason and the scientific method as the model for all knowledge Such a practical theology of the arts focuses the work of theology on the actual practices that engage the arts in their various forms as the means of interpreting and understanding the nature of the communities and their members as well as the mechanisms through which these communities engage in transformative work to make persons and neighborhoods whole This book presents its theological claims through the careful analysis of several stories of communities around the world that have engaged in transformational practices through a specific art form investigating communities from Europe the Middle East South America and the U S The case studies explored include Jewish Christian Muslim Druze indigenous and sometimes agnostic subjects involved in visual art music dance theatre documentary film and literature Theology and the Arts demonstrates that the challenges of a postmodern and post secular context require a fundamental rethinking of theology that focuses on discrete practices of faithful communities rather than one dimensional theories about religion An Introduction to the Old Testament Alice L. Laffey, A helpful complement to introductory texts in Hebrew Scriptures a solid basic work that brings together many recent insights in the field
