Unfinished Business Helping Adult Children Resolve Their Past:

Unfinished Business Charles M. Sell, 1989 The answers lie in defensive behavior we used as children to cope with a home life sometimes terrifying and often unpredictable But what worked then doesn't work now The good news is we don't have to be enslaved to the past Charles Sell combines personal experience with extensive research dealing the traits common to adult children Without accusing or attacking he reveals the impact of our childhood families and provides a biblically based resolution to inner conflict Fathering Like the Father Kenneth O. Gangel, Jeffrey S. Gangel, 2003-01-01 We believe Christian dads need to learn from God and need to hear from fathers who are living out the relationship With that father and son authors Kenn and Jeff Gangel launch this highly practical guide to fathering by learning from the attributes of the original God the Father Exploring God's ways of communicating forgiving disciplining and loving the authors build a strong case for their conviction that fathering works best when patterned after the best Their warm reader friendly style combines anecdotes from sports popular culture and personal experience The result is a collection of useful down to earth insights into a role that was sent from heaven Each chapter includes Kenn's story and Jeff's story fascinating and at times confessional vignettes fathers of all ages can identify with along with helpful pointers called Making It Work questions for discussion and suggestions to stimulate father child dialogue Fathering Like the Father will inspire any dad or study group interested in a better grip on what the authors label their premier calling Healing the Dysfunctional Church Family: When Destructive Family Patterns Infiltrate the Body of Christ David Mains, 2014-10-18 Christians don't check their dysfunctional habits at the church door Coiffed and buttoned down on the outside inside we still bring our compulsions and addictions our urges to criticize compare and deny Try as we might to cover up we often behave in church just like we do at home It's time to stop pretending No church is perfect just as no family is perfect This book calls us to accept the church's humanness the fact that we tend to make messes of our lives as it explores eight common dysfunctions But it also calls us to reaffirm that each local congregation in the body of Christ ought to be a place where we can come and feel loved helped forgiven and given hope to go out and do better next time After all God created the church to be the best family in the whole world Small group discussion questions and helpful excerpts from other books are included with each chapter Fearless Living in Troubled Times Michael Youssef, 2017-08-01 How Can I Live Out My Faith Amid a World in Distress Imagine a life of peace and purpose in the face of global disasters increasing persecution and economic instability Is it really possible to live fearlessly in such troubled times Dr Michael Youssef points to the first century church guiding you through the practical wisdom and powerful hope found in 1 and 2 Thessalonians Paul's letters to believers who lived in a hostile world Through these chapters you will discover how to experience a productive God honoring life now while also looking toward eternity overcome the fear of criticism affliction and even death with the right perspective understand the true nature of the end times and what you can expect in the future Explore what it means to be part of God's family in a day when people desperately need to see your
