Peter Limb,2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho Founded in 1912 by African National Congress ANC convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen it was published up until 1931 attracting the cream of African politicians journalists and poets Mqhayi Nontsisi Mgqweth and Grendon In its pages burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural by ways The People s Paper comprising both essays and an anthology explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines The People s Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented Racial Segregation and the Origins of Apartheid in South Africa, 1919-36 Saul Dubow,1989-07-03 Based on extensive archival research in South Africa and drawing on the most recent scholarship this book is an original and lucid exposition of the ideological political and administrative origins of Apartheid It will add substantially to the understanding of contemporary South Africa *War Letters, 1917-'19, of Professor

Management Association, Information Resources,2020-12-18 In the current educational environment there has been a shift towards online learning as a replacement for the traditional in person classroom experience With this new environment comes new technologies benefits and challenges for providing courses to students through an entirely digital environment With this shift comes the necessary research on how to utilize these online courses and how to develop effective online educational materials that fit student needs and encourage student learning motivation and success The optimization of these online tools requires a deeper look into curriculum instructional design teaching techniques and new models for student assessment and evaluation Information on how to create valuable online course content engaging lesson plans for the digital space and meaningful student activities online are only a few of many current topics of interest for promoting student achievement through online learning The Research Anthology on Developing Effective Online Learning Courses provides multiple perspectives on how to develop engaging and effective online learning courses in the wake of the rapid digitalization of education This book includes topics focused on online learners online course content effective online instruction strategies

Bricker,2021-05-06 Tourism has an essential role in terms of contributing to the financial sustainability of protected areas In addition through effective and efficient benefit sharing tourism can positively impact numerous stakeholders within and beyond the protected area Living on the Edge Benefit Sharing from Protected Area Tourism highlights the complexity of benefit sharing the importance of identifying all relevant stakeholders the challenges of ensuring equity and sustainability and the critical importance of good governance The evolution of benefit sharing mechanisms over time also emphasizes a continuing need to evolve and adapt to each unique situation as much evidence indicates that little has changed for those living on the edge Although this book focuses on benefit sharing from protected area tourism it is essential to acknowledge that along with these benefits are costs associated with tourism including possible increased local prices loss of access to land human wildlife conflict and other related costs The contributing authors agree that benefit sharing must include good governance accountability equity transparency a broad reach of stakeholder engagement and a robust combination of tangible and intangible benefits with recognition that benefit sharing systems need to be adaptive and evolve as needed according to the relevant situation The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala,2018-07-05 World Guide to Library, Archive and Information Science Education Axel Schniederjürgen,2008-12-19 This directory lists education institutions world wide where professional education and training programmes in the field of library archive and information science are carried out at a tertiary level of education or higher More than ten years after the publication of the last edition this up to date reference source includes more than 900 universities and other institutions and more than 1 500 relevant programmes Entries provide contact information as well as details such as statistical information tuition fees admission requirements programmes contents The Breeder's Gazette ,1914 Status and Respectability in the Cape Colony, 1750-1870 Robert Ross,1999-07-01 In a compelling example of the cultural history of South Africa Robert Ross offers a subtle and wide ranging study of status and respectability in the colonial Cape between 1750 and 1850 His 1999 book describes the symbolism of dress emblems architecture food language and polite conventions paying particular attention to domestic relationships gender education and religion and analyses the values and the modes of thinking current in different strata of the society He argues that these cultural factors were related to high political developments in the Cape and offers a rich account of the changes in social identity that accompanied the transition from Dutch to British overrule and of the development of white racism and of ideologies of resistance to white domination The result is a uniquely nuanced account of a colonial society

Everyday Communists in South Africa's Liberation

Struggle Alan Kirkaldy, 2021-11-10 This book explores the role of social movements in the Southern African liberation struggle through the lens of two everyday communists Focusing on the Communist Party of South Africa CPSA the author explores the lives of Ivan and Lesley Schermbrucker whose contribution to the party was more clandestine than that of leaders such as Bram Fischer and Joe Slovo They represent how ordinary people could play significant roles based on stances more rooted in common decency and morality than in Marxist theory The book also sheds light on the interplay between transnational and national tendencies during the liberation movement particularly between the 1940s and the 1960s The Schermbruckers changed their views in response to the shifting national and international political landscape the rise of Stalinism and the flight of South African activists into exile from the 1960s Both fluent in African languages they were able to create relationships of trust with African members of the CPSA Examining tensions and conflicts during the liberation struggle this book provides fresh insights into underground activism South African journal of musicology, 1991
