'A heartbreaking story that manages also to be an uplifting, at times hilarious, read.'
ANITA CHAUDHURI, Psychologies

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a person wearing a blue raincoat walking away from the viewer on a narrow, winding path. The path is surrounded by green hills and fields, some of which appear to be tilled or planted in rows. The scene is misty or foggy, creating a sense of solitude and journey. The path leads towards a distant hill under a pale sky.

Gieryn, 2018-05-22 We may not realize it but truth and place are inextricably linked For ancient Greeks temples and statues clustered on the side of Mount Parnassus affirmed their belief that predictions from the oracle at Delphi were accurate The trust we have in Thoreau s wisdom depends in part on how skillfully he made Walden Pond into a perfect place for discerning timeless truths about the universe Courthouses and laboratories are designed and built to exacting specifications so that their architectural conditions legitimate the rendering of justice and discovery of natural fact The on site commemoration of the struggle for civil rights Seneca Selma and Stonewall reminds people of slow but significant political progress and of unfinished business What do all these places have in common Thomas F Gieryn calls these locations truth spots places that lend credibility to beliefs and claims about natural and social reality about the past and future and about identity and the transcendent In Truth Spots Gieryn gives readers an elegant rigorous rendering of the provenance of ideas uncovering the geographic location where they are found or made a spot built up with material stuff and endowed with cultural meaning and value These kinds of places including botanical gardens naturalists field sites Henry Ford s open air historical museum and churches and chapels along the pilgrimage way to Santiago de Compostela in Spain would seem at first to have little in common But each is a truth spot a place that makes people believe Truth may well be the daughter of time Gieryn argues but it is also the son of place

Before Dawn Teal Swan,2015-05-12 Growing up in a tranquil wilderness Teal Swan had a childhood that was anything but serene Horrors lurked behind the facade of the perfect houses and pious community of the surrounding towns and Teal attracted undue attention because of her unusually powerful extrasensory abilities At the hands of a local cult member she barely survived 13 years of horrendous abuse and even after her escape she was left powerless lost hurting and with no way to cope Gradually and incredibly Teal forged her way from the edge of despair to a sliver of light and eventually emerged from the darkness into the full dawn of self love Here she shows how you too can achieve the feelings of worthiness that may be long missing from your life Now a recognized spiritual luminary Teal documents how she dug herself out of self hate and details the remarkable trail for others to get to the same place Shadows Before Dawn encompasses both Teal s compelling story told with raw intensity and her resolute no nonsense how to guide to healing from even the deepest levels of suffering Offering a comprehensive self love tool kit Teal shares powerful exercises insights and perspective grounded in spirituality and lets you choose which techniques are right for you Teal s resonating words will sit with your soul long after you put this book down and will serve as guideposts on the way to complete self love no matter who you are or where you are in life A Field Guide to Happiness Linda Leaming,2014-10-01 In the West we have everything we could possibly need or want except for peace of mind So writes Linda Leaming a harried American who traveled from Nashville Tennessee to the rugged Himalayan nation of Bhutan sometimes called the happiest place on Earth to teach English and unlearn her politicized and polarized energetic and impatient way of life In Bhutan if I have three things to do in a week it s considered busy In the U S I have at least three things to do between breakfast and lunch After losing her luggage immediately upon arrival Leaming realized that she also had emotional baggage a tendency toward inaction a touch of self absorption and a hundred other trite stupid embarrassing and inconsequential things that needed to get lost as well Pack up ideas and feelings that tie you down and send you lead footed down the wrong path Put them in a metaphorical suitcase and sling it over a metaphorical bridge in your mind Let the river take them away Forced by circumstance and her rustic surroundings to embrace a simplified life Leaming made room for more useful beliefs The thin air and hard climbs of her mountainous commute put her deeply in touch with her breath helping her find focus and appreciation The archaic glacially paced bureaucracy of a Bhutanese bank taught her to go with the flow and take up knitting The ancient ritual of drinking tea brought tranquility friendship and eventually a husband Each day and each adventure in her adopted home brought new insights and understandings to take back to frantic America where she now practices the art of simulating Bhutan This collection of stories impressions and suggestions is a little nudge a push a leg up into the rarefied air of paradise of bright sunlight and beautiful views
