Touching Surfaces Photographic Aesthetics Temporality Aging Consciousness Literature And The Arts:

Touching Surfaces Anca Cristofovici, 2009 Who isn't seduced by the idea of an affinity between aging and aesthetics? Yet when does aging truly begin? What attributes does the aesthetic embrace? Looking into startling photographic art of the past three decades, this book is prompted by such questions and turns them into a meditation on how aesthetics mediates our relation to time. The photographic approach of the corporeal is at the center of the book. Within a phenomenological framework, Cristofovici brings into focus the physical and the psychic body to read aging as a process of change and becoming over time. Her understanding of aging sees beyond difference into larger patterns of perceptions that we share. Offering valuable insights into aging as a process of subject construction, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of visual culture, photography, art history, age studies, and theories of knowledge. This cross-disciplinary study that puts theory to the test of life's and art's paradoxes in an evocative style will also appeal to a wider readership interested in how photography and aging illuminate each other. Archiv für das Studium der neueren Sprachen und Literaturen, 2009 Vols for 1858 include Sitzungen der Berliner Gesellschaft für das Studium der neuen Sprachen.
