Juliet Fall

Tour Du Monde C Lins:

Beneath the Lines Jacobo García-Álvarez, Paloma Puente-Lozano, 2022-05-03 This book brings together ten empirically rich and theoretically informed contributions that aim to clarify both geo historical specificities and common transnational and global features of the cultures and practices of boundary making that shaped modern statehood Written by scholars from Spain France Italy Argentina Brazil and Mexico the essays included in this volume provide a comparative international perspective on the processes of border formation as well as an integrative approach that seeks to strengthen the links between renewed geo historical studies and more contemporary oriented border studies The book is addressed to a wide range of researchers including geographers historians political scientists and specialists in geopolitics and the history of international relations

Drawing the Line Juliet Fall, 2017-11-30 This book provides the first comprehensive and critical examination of the spatial assumptions underpinning transboundary protected areas in Europe at a time of surging global enthusiasm in creating and managing such areas It explores how the reliance on the natural science approach to space within environmental planning has led to a return of exclusionary discourses in paradoxical contrast to the stated claims of designing peace parks The book builds a much needed link between the critical geopolitical literature on boundaries and social approaches to nature and hybridity Drawing the Line is theoretically informed yet grounded in substantial fieldwork from sites in France Germany Italy Poland Romania Slovakia and the Ukraine It uses material from the field to build and question theoretical debates moving beyond site specific issues to wider patterns and trends

SpatioTemporalities on the Line Sebastian Dorsch, Jutta Vinzent, 2017-11-20 Lines are omnipresent in our everyday experience and language They reflect and influence the spatial and temporal structures of our world view Taking Tim Ingold's cultural history of the line as a starting point this book understands lines as expressions that allow insights into cultural theoretical phenomena and thus go beyond their mere form The essays will investigate this premise from various disciplines architecture art cartography film literature and philosophy

Playing with Maps: Cartographic Games in Western Culture Adrian Seville, Thierry Depaulis, Geert H. Bekkering, 2023-07-31 This is the first serious book wholly devoted to games based on maps The authors are experts in their respective fields board games playing cards and dissected puzzles They bring an informed historical approach to the development and diffusion of these games up to about the beginning of the twentieth century including games from Western Europe and America in all their intriguing variety This book is an essential reference source for those wishing to research this neglected area while those new to the field will be pleasantly surprised at the interesting and unusual maps that these games exploit

Global Sports Policy Catherine Palmer, 2012-11-09 Lifts the analysis out of the nuts and bolts of sports policy and into some really thought provoking areas which will equip the policy maker for the challenges of the 21st century Dominic Malcolm Loughborough University This is an excellent analysis of the significance of globalisation for national sport policy and especially of the impact of global processes at the local socio cultural level Barrie Houlihan Loughborough University Drawing upon a range of empirical case studies Catherine Palmer situates sports policy within a broader consideration of global processes practices and consequences exploring the relationship between the local and the global globalization and governance new technologies human rights the environment corporate responsibility In doing so she sets out the ground for an understanding of policy making in sport and how this affects society Covering both theory and practice it is a detailed and thought provoking resource for students of sports policy sports development sports management and sports studies “The” Athenaeum ,1892
