Gowreesunkar, 2023-10-13 This new volume Post Disaster and Post Conflict Tourism now going into its 2nd edition takes an in depth look at how global geopolitical tensions and global threats affect the tourism industry and offers tools and strategies for meeting these challenges The book is updated with chapters that include new research studies and experiences many of which consider the fall out from the COVID 19 pandemic on tourism It also includes five brand new chapters for over 50 new pages of text With chapters by well versed scholars who have worked as experts in post disaster and post conflict tourism the book presents a host of case scenarios along with innovative strategies that can be implemented by postcolonial post conflict and post disaster destinations to encourage travel and tourism in these areas Topics include using tourism as a vehicle for economic recovery educating tourists at the pre visit stage developing and employing postcolonial branding and self branding using sports tourism and food events as a marketing strategy the ethics revolving around post disaster consumption and much more The new chapters discuss tourism in the age of the coronavirus pandemic and its dramatic disruptive effect on the tourism industry The authors delve into post COVID tourism marketing health and wellness education and practices ethical considerations for tourism operators and more A chapter also considers the challenges of sustainable supply chain management in tour operations With contributions from experts in this emerging field this volume is a rich resource for travel and tourism professionals policymakers researchers and others It creates a bridge between the conceptual discussions around dark consumption tourism directed to places that are identified with death and suffering and the urgency to develop empirical models that support destination marketing organizations in a rapidly changing world Handbook on Sustainable Urban Tourism Cristina Maxim,Alastair M. Morrison,Jonathon Day,J. A. Coca-Stefaniak,2024-01-18 In this multidisciplinary and multi jurisdictional account of sustainability in urban tourist destinations the Handbook on Sustainable Urban Tourism draws together the latest academic research and provides key practical insights on this developing area of study It not only considers the importance of cities as ideal tourist destinations due to their complex characteristics and the variety of attractions they offer but also the challenges they are confronted with most notably sustainability Research Methods for Leisure and Tourism A.J. Veal,2017-12-19 Now in its fifth edition Research Methods for Leisure and Tourism has become the ultimate reference text for both students enrolled in undergraduate and postgraduate degrees and practising managers This book combines comprehensive coverage of a wide variety of qualitative and quantitative research methods with step by step guidance through research software including Excel SPSS and NVivo Key features Coverage of both qualitative and quantitative research methods ensuring a balanced approach to data collection and analysis Practical guidance on conducting research and writing reports showing the how as well as the what Detailed coverage of the development of conceptual frameworks for research research design analytical methods and the composition of research reports providing everything required to conduct a research project International case studies and extensive examples from the leisure and tourism literature Questions exercises and further reading for each chapter Extensive web based support materials New to this edition The fifth edition has been fully updated throughout and includes additional material on Management and policy related research methods EndNote bibliographic referencing software Notes on additional methods including big data discourse analysis multiple correspondence analysis netnography web based research people meters For the analysis of quantitative data SPSS is updated to version 23 For qualitative data analysis the guide to NVivo software is updated to version 11 ICTR 2018 International Conference on Tourism Research Dr Minna Tunkkari-Eskelinen, JAMK University of Applied Science Jyväskylä, Finland,Dr Anne Törn-Laapio , JAMK University of Applied Science Jyväskylä, Finland,2018-03-22 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the International Conference on Tourism Research ICTR 2018 which is being hosted by JAMK University of Applied Sciences Jyv skyl Finland on 23 24 March 2018 Contemporary Research Methods in Hospitality and Tourism Fevzi Okumus,S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh,Shiva Jahani,2022-04-13 Contemporary Research Methods in Hospitality and Tourism delivers a comprehensive collection of chapters including new insights for traditional paradigms approaches and methods as well as more recent developments in research methodology in the context of tourism and hospitality Religion and Tourism in Japan Ian Reader,2023-11-16 In this study Ian Reader presents new insights into the relationship between religion and tourism more generally and into the contemporary religious situation in Japan He counteracts scholarship that claims tourism increases religious activity shows that tourism is a factor in increasing secularization in Japan and draws attention to the role of the state in such contexts Although the Japanese constitution prohibits the state from promoting religion this book shows how state agencies nonetheless encourage people to visit religious sites by presenting them as manifestations of a shared heritage in ways that distance them from religion Reader examines theoretical understandings of religion and tourism and presents case studies of famed pilgrimage routes and temples He shows how Zen monasteries are now tourist brands and pilgrimages are the focus of TV entertainment programmes portrayed as opportunities to eat sweets Examining the nationalistic rhetoric of nostalgia and unique heritage that underpins the promotion of religious sites Reader also considers why priests acquiesce in such matters
