Tourism Research Wiley Australia Tourism:

Tourism Research Gayle Jennings, 2011-07-18 Students studying tourism are required to undertake a study in research techniques and methodologies as part of their tourism degree Major aims of this new edition are to encourage students to think about the importance of research in tourism appreciating the role that it plays in the tourism industry as well as to familiarise students with the wide diversity of research strategies available to them Tourism Research second edition introduces the concept of qualitative quantitative and mixed methods research methodologies associated with tourism It also considers indigenous and cross cultural methodologies The relationship of tourism research its underpinnings sources and methods with the implications for tourism development planning and management are clearly established and discussed The text is focused on the tourism sector rather than the leisure and recreation sector The role of researchers as professionals as well as usage and impacts of research are incorporated throughout the text to ensure students appreciate the diversity of research in the tourism industry as well as the consequences of research decision making processes This revised edition continues to provide a balanced discussion between qualitative and quantitative methodologies and their associated theoretical underpinnings FEATURES Industry Insights vignettes illustrate the relevance of research in the tourism industry Three in depth case studies develop student understanding of qualitative and quantitative methodologies as well as cross research research Now packaged FREE with this text is a 12 month student subscription to the International Journal of Tourism Research IJTR This journal provides an international platform for debate and dissemination of research findings whilst also facilitating the discussion of new research areas and techniques IJTR will continue to add a vibrant and exciting channel for those interested in tourism and hospitality research developments Tourism Research Methods Brent W. Ritchie, Peter Burns, Catherine Palmer, 2005 Within the tourism industry there is a growing consensus on the need for research to investigate the economic social and environmental impacts of tourism However existing research methods texts are based solely on either the business approach or the social science approach to tourism They often fail to provide real world examples of how to plan implement or analyse tourism related research This book aims to address this divide by integrating theory with practice through the inclusion of specific tourism research case studies alongside research theory It considers a wide range of research issues approaches and techniques with contributions from both experienced and new researchers Frameworks for Tourism Research Douglas G. Pearce, 2012-01-01 Frameworks are the foundation of good scholarship They structure organize and communicate research underpin individual studies and shape the field of study as a whole This book introduces students to the concept of frameworks in tourism research and provides a review discussion and critique of frameworks Theoretical conceptual analytical and integrative frameworks are all covered in detail with the features use strengths and limitations of each from discussed and illustrated using a wide range of examples and applications across the field of tourism studies It is suitable for academe European Journal of Tourism Research, 2010-10-01 The European Journal of Tourism Research is an academic journal in the field of tourism published by Varna University of Management Bulgaria. Its aim is to provide a platform for discussion of theoretical and empirical problems in tourism. Publications from all fields connected with tourism such as tourism management, tourism marketing, sociology, psychology, tourism geography, political sciences, mathematics, tourism statistics, tourism anthropology, culture, information technologies in tourism and others are invited. The journal is open to all researchers. Young researchers and authors from Central and Eastern Europe are encouraged to submit their contributions. Regular Articles in the European Journal of Tourism Research should normally be between 4 000 and 20 000 words. Major research articles of between 10 000 and 20 000 are highly welcome.
