Tourist Experience Contemporary Perspectives Advances In Tourism:

Tourist Experience Richard Sharples, Philip R. Stone, 2010-10-04 To consume tourism is to consume experiences. An understanding of the ways in which tourists experience the places and people they visit is therefore fundamental to the study of the consumption of tourism. Consequently it is not surprising that attention has long been paid in the tourism literature to particular perspectives on the tourist experience including demand factors, tourist motivation, typologies of tourists and issues related to authenticity, commodification, image and perception. However, as tourism has continued to expand in both scale and scope and as tourists' needs and expectations have become more diverse and complex in response to transformations in the dynamic socio-cultural world of tourism, so too have tourist experiences. Tourist Experience provides a focused analysis into tourist experiences that reflect their ever-increasing diversity and complexity and their significance and meaning to tourists themselves. Written by leading international scholars, it offers new insights into emergent behaviours, motivations and sought meanings on the part of tourists based on five contemporary themes determined by current research activity in tourism: experience, dark tourism, experiences, experiencing, poor places, sport tourism, experiences, writing the tourist experience and researching tourist experiences, methodological approaches. The book critically explores these experiences from multidisciplinary perspectives and includes case studies from a wide range of geographical regions. By analyzing these contemporary tourist experiences, the book will provide further understanding of the consumption of tourism. Advances in Tourism, Technology and Systems António Abreu, Dália Liberato, Elisa Alén González, Juan Carlos García Ojeda, 2020-11-19 This book features a collection of high quality research papers presented at the International Conference on Tourism Technology Systems ICOTTS 2020 held at the University of Cartagena in Cartagena de Indias, Colombia from 29th to 31st October 2020. The book is divided into two volumes and it covers the areas of technology in tourism and the tourist experience, generations and technology in tourism, digital marketing applied to tourism and travel, mobile technologies applied to sustainable tourism, information technologies in tourism, digital transformation of tourism, business e-tourism and tourism 2.0, big data and management for travel and tourism, geotagging and tourist mobility, smart destinations, robotics in tourism and information systems and technologies. The Celebration of Death in Contemporary Culture Dina Khapaeva, 2017-03-06 The Celebration of Death in Contemporary Culture investigates the emergence and meaning of the cult of death. Over the last three decades, Halloween has grown to rival Christmas in its popularity. Dark tourism has emerged as a rapidly expanding industry. Corpse chic and skull style have entered mainstream fashion while elements of gothic horror, torture, porn and slasher movies have streamed into more conventional genres. Monsters have become pop culture heroes, vampires, zombies and serial killers now appeal broadly to audiences of all ages. This book breaks new ground by viewing these phenomena as aspects of a single movement and documenting its development in contemporary Western culture. This book links the mounting demand for images of violent death with dramatic changes in death-related social rituals. It offers a conceptual framework that connects observations of fictional worlds including The Twilight Saga The Vampire Diaries and the Harry Potter series with real world sociocultural practices analyzing the aesthetic intellectual and historical underpinnings of the cult of death It also places the celebration of death in the context of a longstanding critique of humanism and investigates the role played by 20th century French theory posthumanism transhumanism and the animal rights movement in shaping the current antihumanist atmosphere This timely thought provoking book will appeal to scholars of culture film literature anthropology and American and Russian studies as well as general readers seeking to understand a defining phenomenon of our age Contemporary Perspectives on China Tourism Honggen Xiao,2014-06-11
