Towards Church Union In Zambia Proefschrift:

Towards Church Union in Zambia Peter Bolink, 1967 Protestant Mission Education in Zambia, 1880-1954 John P. Ragsdale, 1986 This book traces the development of Zambian education during the first half of the twentieth century and examines the interaction between the missions government and the settlers Religious Change In Zambia Wim M.J. van Binsbergen, 2012-11-12 Published in 1981 Religious Change in Zambia is a valuable contribution to the field of Middle East Studies Bemba Speaking Women of Zambia in a Century of Religious Change Hugo F. Hinfelaar, 1994 This book constitutes an important contribution to the study of religion in Africa as it traces the often painful changes that occurred among the Bemba speaking women of Zambia since the arrival of the Western Missionaries The author offers us his life long search for the bed rock of traditional religion as a basis for genuine cultural religious development Christianity in Eurafrica Steven Pass, 2016-10-01 Christianity in Eurafrica is an impressive book meticulously researched and well written by a professional scholar The first chapter includes some valuable historiographical guidelines for writing and understanding the History of the Church In its first part the book traces the history of the Church in the Middle East and Europe explaining the roots of theological diversity to this day In the second part the author narrates how the Faith moved south took root in African soil and grew independently Many pictures and illustrations serve to further enliven the account Steven Paas taught Theology in Malawi for many years He writes from a deep knowledge of and love for the Lord s Church especially in Africa and Europe This textbook on the history of Christianity in two continents fits with the curricula of institutions of theological training in Africa and the West The content is especially aimed at students who prepare for the ministry and for Christian education The book is however also invaluable for all scholars of the History of Christianity Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire Janet Wootton, 2022-03-07 Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire 1800 1920 offers a broad view of the nineteenth century as a time of dramatic change particularly for women critiqued in the light of postcolonial theory This edited volume includes important contributions from academics in the field Overarching themes include the cult of domesticity the changing impact of Christianity on views of women s nature in an age of scientific thinking conflation of gospel and civilization in global mission and the exclusion of women from public spheres of life We meet powerful saints campaigners and thinkers who bring about genuine transformation in the lives of women and in society But we also recognize the long shadow of Empire in the world of the twenty first century critiquing Colonialism and Empire and views that restricted women s lives This engaging volume will be of key interest to students and scholars in Religion and Cultural Studies Exploring the complexities of the nineteenth century it draws on a range of scholarship including TV documentaries film online and more traditional academic resources Widener Library Shelflist: African history and literatures Harvard University. Library, 1971 Mission and Church in Malawi Christoff Martin Pauw, 2016-05-01 Martin Pauw was born in 1940 at Madzimoyo Mission Eastern Zambia where both his grandparents and parents had served as missionaries

After completing his theological studies at the University of Stellenbosch he was ordained in Malawi in the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian CCAP in 1965 Like his great grandfather grandfather and father he became a missionary the fourth generation He served as youth pastor and lecturer at the CCAP Theological College at Nkhoma until 1973 From 1975 he lectured at Justo Mwale Theological College of the Reformed Church in Zambia in Lusaka and from 1983 to 2001 he was lecturer and eventually professor in Missiology in the Faculty of Theology at the University of Stellenbosch where he also had previously completed his doctoral studies with a thesis on the history of the CCAP Nkhoma Synod Over the years Prof Pauw acted as study leader to a large number of under and post graduate students authored a considerable number of publications and served in various leadership positions in the church After retiring as lecturer he served the Western Cape Synod of the Dutch Reformed Church for a further six years as Secretary for Witness and focussed on building partnerships between the DRC and sister churches in various countries in Africa His vast experience in knowledge of and passion for humbly serving the churches in Southern and Central Africa is remarkable African History and Literatures Harvard University. Library,1971 This shelflist catalogue will be of greatest utility to those using the libraries at Harvard but in spite of its limitations it can serve as a general bibliography of the subject and is therefore being made available to other interested libraries and individuals The computer based shelflist files are being maintained on a continuing basis so that updated editions of volumes in the series can be published as the need arises International Mission Bibliography Norman E. Thomas,2003-10-16 This massive reference is the key to finding the most important works on missiology published from 1960 2000 Representing the research of more than 30 sub editors in mission related disciplines including history theology social aspects education evangelism spirituality and political life and includes sections on Africa the Americas Asia Europe and Oceania Complete publication details and ISBNs are given for each entry
