Too Loud A Solitude:

Too Loud a Solitude Bohumil Hrabal, 1992-04-27 A fable about the power of books and knowledge finely balanced between pathos and comedy from one of Czechoslovakia's most popular authors Los Angeles Times A New York Times Notable Book Ha t has been compacting trash for thirty five years Every evening he rescues books from the jaws of his hydraulic press carries them home and fills his house with them Ha t may be an idiot as his boss calls him but he is an idiot with a difference the ability to quote the Talmud Hegel and Lao Tzu In this irresistibly eccentric romp the author Milan Kundera has called our very best writer today celebrates the power and the indestructibility of the written word The New York Times Book Review Too Loud a Solitude : Novel ,1992 The Delighted States Adam Thirlwell, 2010-03-30 Having slept with a prostitute in Egypt a young French novelist named Gustave Flaubert at last abandons sentimentality and begins to write He influences the obscure French writer douard Dujardin who is read by James Joyce on the train to Trieste where he will teach English to the Italian novelist Italo Svevo Back in Paris Joyce asks Svevo to deliver a suitcase containing notes for Ulysses a novel that will be viscerated by the expat Gertrude Stein whose first published story is based on one by Flaubert This carousel of influence shows how translation and emigration lead to a new and true history of the novel We devour novels in translation while believing that style does not translate But the history of the novel is the history of style The Delighted States attempts to solve this conundrum while mapping an imaginary country a country of readers the Delighted States This book is a provocation a box of tricks a bedside travel book it is also a work of startling intelligence and originality from one of our finest young writers Fiction Acquisition/fiction Management Georgine N. Olson, 1998 Provides librarians and library managers with information on how to start and maintain a fiction collection offering guidelines procedures and interviews with professionals Tells how to select materials how to build a collection using suggestions from patrons how to use book reviews as criteria for selection and how to make use of WLN conspectus software to decide what selections are most marketable Also lists sources such as specific databases for collecting specific genres For librarians at public and academic libraries The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004 National literary histories based on internally homogeneous native traditions have significantly contributed to the construction of national identities especially in multicultural East Central Europe the region between the German and

Russian hegemonic cultural powers stretching from the Baltic states to the Balkans History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe which covers the last two hundred years reconceptualizes these literary traditions by de emphasizing the national myths and by highlighting analogies and points of contact as well as hybrid and marginal phenomena that tra

Bohumil Hrabal. A Full-length Portrait Jiří Pelán, 2019 Described as one of the great prose stylists of the twentieth century Bohumil Hrabal ranks among the most important and widely translated Czech authors Ji Pel n a respected scholar of Czech French and Italian literature approaches Hrabal as a comparatist expertly situating him within the context of European and world literature as he explores the entirety of Hrabal s oeuvre and its development over sixty years Praised for its concise clear and readable style Bohumil Hrabal A Full length Portrait offers international readers an important Czech perspective on the world class author Contains 32 photographs of Bohumil Hrabal a list of his works English translations to date and a bibliography of international scholarship

Modern Czech Literature: Writing in Times of Political Trauma Andrew M. Drozd, 2025-05-20 Modern Czech culture has experienced a series of political traumas starting in the 1930s Despite the difficult shifting conditions Czech writers have not only managed to contend with the situation but have produced many fine literary efforts This volume consists of seven articles by an international team of authors who are specialists in Czech literature The first four chapters treat very well known writers There is one chapter on Karel apek and his play The White Plague There are three chapters on Milan Kundera the internationally best known Czech writer with one of these chapters covering both Kundera and Bohumil Hrabal The last three chapters deal with more recent and or lesser known writers One chapter treats the Brothers Topol and the music underground one chapter treats Czech literary responses to the period of the Normalization and the final chapter treats Eda Kriseov This volume presents new perspectives on Czech literature and will be of interest to specialists in Czech literature and history Central European literature and history Nazism and Communism For example although much has been written about Kundera the three articles provide further treatments of three different aspects of his work his ties to Russian literature his misogyny and the philosophical content of his novels Specialists interested in the period of the Normalization and after will find the last three chapters particularly useful The chapters are suitable for classroom use in courses in both Czech literature and Czech or Central European history All material from Czech language sources presented in the chapters is given in English translation

Prague Palimpsest Alfred Thomas, 2010-10-15 A city of immense literary mystique Prague has inspired writers across the centuries with its beauty cosmopolitanism and tragic history Envisioning the ancient city in central Europe as a multilayered text or palimpsest that has been constantly revised and rewritten from the medieval and Renaissance chroniclers who legitimized the city s foundational origins to the modernists of the early twentieth century who established its reputation as the new capital of the avant garde Alfred Thomas argues that Prague has become a paradoxical site of inscription and effacement of memory and forgetting a utopian link to the prewar and pre Holocaust European past and a dystopia of totalitarian amnesia Considering a wide range of writers including the city's most famous son Franz Kafka Prague Palimpsest reassesses the work of poets and novelists such as Bohumil Hrabal Milan Kundera Gustav Meyrink Jan Neruda Václav Nezval and Rainer Maria Rilke and engages with other famous authors who wrote Prague including Guillaume Apollinaire Ingeborg Bachmann Albert Camus Paul Celan and W G Sebald The result is a comparative interdisciplinary study that helps to explain why Prague more than any other major European city has haunted the cultural and political imagination of the West 360 Degrees of Reading

W. E. Poplaski, 2007 What do Richard Dawkins Jackie Robinson and St Teresa have in common They all can be found in this book 360 of Reading is a literature reference guide for high school students It makes a great stocking stuffer at Christmas or end of school year gift for that special student Any student who wants to read great literature will benefit from this book It has reference pages for 360 books that cover novels drama poetry and a broad range of non fiction Each reference page includes bibliographic information a descriptive note keywords and more Furthermore the books are indexed by author country of origin date of first publication and keywords It also has an appendix listing an additional forty titles Twenty four books by Pulitzer Prize winners and twenty six books by Nobel Prize in Literature winners are among the works listed in this reference guide Writers Under Siege Jiri Holy, Jan Culik, 2010-08-09 An history that presents a canvas of post war Czech literary developments within the cultural and political context of the times It provides information about the many English language translations from Czech literature and the circumstances in which these translations came about The Ticking Is the Bomb Nick Flynn, 2011-01-03 A beautiful intelligent book that renders pain both ordinary and extraordinary into art

Susanna Sonnenberg San Francisco Chronicle In 2007 during the months before Nick Flynn's daughter's birth his growing outrage and obsession with torture exacerbated by the Abu Ghraib photographs led him to Istanbul to meet some of the Iraqi men depicted in those photos Haunted by a history of addiction a relationship with his unsteady father and a longing to connect with his mother who committed suicide Flynn artfully interweaves in this memoir passages from his childhood his relationships with women and his growing obsession a questioning of terror torture and the political crimes we can neither see nor understand in post 9 11 American life The time bomb of the title becomes an unlikely metaphor and vehicle for exploring the fears and joys of becoming a father Here is a memoir of profound self discovery of being lost and found of painful family memories and losses of the need to run from love and of the ability to embrace it again Picturing the Language of Images Laurence Petit, 2014-04-11 Picturing the Language of Images is a collection of thirty three previously unpublished essays that explore the complex and ever evolving interaction between the verbal and the visual The uniqueness of this volume lies in its bringing together scholars from around the world to provide a broad synchronic and diachronic exploration of the relationship between text and image as well as a reflection on the limits of representation through a re thinking of the very acts of reading and viewing While covering a variety of media such as literature painting photography film and comics across time from the 18th century to the 21st century this collection also provides a special focus on the

 Non-translation Jaroslav Spirk, 2014-09-18 Indirect Translations and Non Translation The Fateful Adventures of Czech Literature in 20th century Portugal a pioneering study of the destiny of Czech and Slovak literature in 20th century Portugal is a gripping read for anyone seeking to look into intercultural exchanges in Europe beyond the so called dominant or central cultures Concentrating on relations between two medium sized lingua and socio cultures via translation this book discusses and thoroughly investigates indirect translations and the resulting phenomenon of indirect reception the role of paratexts in evading censorship surprising non translation and by extension the impact of political ideology on the translation of literature In drawing on the work of Ji Lev and Anton Popovi two outstanding Czechoslovak translation theorists this book opens up new avenues of research both theoretically and methodologically As a whole the author paints a much broader picture than might be expected Scholars in areas as diverse as translation studies comparative literature reception studies Czech literature and Portuguese culture will find inspiration in this book By researching translation in two would be totalitarian regimes this monograph ultimately contributes to a better understanding of the international book exchanges in the 20th century between two non dominant or semi peripheral European cultures Transformative Fictions Daniel Just, 2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe
 The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students
