New Books on Women and Feminism ,1998 Lingua Franca ,1998 Ourika Claire de Duras,2014-01-01 John Fowles presents a remarkable translation of a nineteenth century work that provided the seed for his acclaimed novel The French Lieutenant's Woman and that will astonish and haunt modern readers Based on a true story Claire de Duras's Ourika relates the experiences of a Senegalese girl who is rescued from slavery and raised by an aristocratic French family during the time of the French Revolution Brought up in a household of learning and privilege she is unaware of her difference until she overhears a conversation that suddenly makes her conscious of her race and of the prejudice it arouses From this point on Ourika lives her life not as a French woman but as a black woman who feels cut off from the entire human race As the Reign of Terror threatens her and her adoptive family Ourika struggles with her unusual position as an educated African woman in eighteenth century Europe A best seller in the 1820s Ourika captured the attention of Duras's peers including Stendhal and became the subject of four contemporary plays The work represents a number of firsts the first novel set in Europe to have a black heroine the first French literary work narrated by a black female protagonist and as Fowles points out in the foreword to his translation the first serious attempt by a white novelist to enter a black mind Cigar Smoke and Violet Water Joyce Tolliver,1998 In Cigar Smoke and Violet Water a work informed by feminist and narrative theory as well as by linguistic discourse analysis Joyce Tolliver considers narrative tactics and their cultural context in the nineteenth century Spanish writer Emilia Pardo Bazan 1851-1921 The critical focus is on the narrative voices in short stories by this writer and on the role gender plays both in narrative dynamics and in the writer's engagement with her public Mother Nature Emilia Pardo Bazan,2010 Mother Nature is certainly Emilia Pardo Bazan's greatest contribution to the Realistic Naturalistic Spanish novel of her time and represents her literary powers at the very height of her career as a writer It has been said that this novel presents the keenest challenges and the most compelling rewards offering the reader the purposefully overgrown ecological social and moral background for a poignant central narrative of human frailty that pits the desire for personal happiness against the necessity of meeting moral standards The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,2000 ADFL Bulletin Association of Departments of Foreign Languages (U.S.),2001 The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of books in the English language American Book Publishing Record ,1997 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1997 WSP Calendar & Bulletin ,1996 MLA Style Manual and Guide to Scholarly Publishing Modern Language Association of America,2008 Provides information on stylistic aspects of research papers theses and dissertations including sections on writing fundamentals MLA documentation style and copyright law The Publisher ,1915 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1883 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1915 Directory Modern Language Association of America,2002 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1915 British Books ,1915 Publications of the Modern Language Association of America , The
