Villa Girasole The Revolving House:

Villa Girasole, the revolving house Aurelio Galfetti, Kenneth Frampton, Valeria Farinati, 2014 Revolving Architecture Chad Randl, 2008-05-15 Alternately lauded as the future of architecture or dismissed as pure folly revolving buildings are a fascinating missing chapter in architectural history with surprising relevance to issues in contemporary architectural design Rotating structures have been employed to solve problems and create effects that stationary buildings can't achieve Rotating buildings offered ever changing vistas and made interior spaces more flexible and adaptable They were used to impress visitors treat patients and improve the green qualities of a structure by keeping particular rooms in or out of the sun The follow up to his critically acclaimed book A Frame Chad Randl's Revolving Architecture: A History of Buildings that Rotate Swivel and Pivot explores the history of this unique building type investigating the cultural forces that have driven people to design and inhabit them Revolving Architecture is packed with a variety of fantastic revolving structures such as a jail that kept inmates under a warden's constant surveillance glamorous revolving restaurants tuberculosis treatment wards houses theaters and even a contemporary residential building whose full floor apartments circle independently of each other International examples from the late 1800s through the present demonstrate the variety and innovation of these dynamic structures Revolving house Aurelio Galfetti, Kenneth Frampton, Valeria Farinati, 2006

Villa Girasole, la casa rotante - the revolving house , Key Houses of the Twentieth Century Colin Davies, 2006 Featuring over 100 of the most significant and influential houses of the twentieth century For each of the houses included there are numerous accurate scale plans showing each floor together with elevations sections and site plans where appropriate All of these have been specially drawn for this book and are based on the most up to date information and sources This Thing Called Theory Teresa Stoppani, Giorgio Ponzio, George Themistokleous, 2016-11-10 22 White wide and scattered picturing her housing career 23 Toward a theory of Interior 24 Repositioning Theory now Don't excavate change reality Part VII Forms of engagement 25 Unpolitical 26 Prince complex narcissism and reproduction of the architectural mirror 27 Less than enough a critique of Aurelio's project 28 Repositioning Having ideas 29 Post scriptum But that is not enough Index Concrete Catherine Croft, Susan Macdonald, 2019-01-15 The first title in a new series aimed at sharing best practices in the conservation of modern heritage This timely volume brings together fourteen case studies that address the challenges of conserving the twentieth century's most ubiquitous building material concrete Following a meeting of international heritage conservation professionals in 2013 the need for recent thorough and well vetted case studies on conserving twentieth century heritage became clear Concrete Case Studies in Conservation Practice answers that need and kicks off a new series Conserving Modern Heritage aimed at sharing best practices The projects selected represent a range of building typologies building uses and project sizes from the high rise housing blocks of Le Corbusier's Unité d'Habitation and public buildings such as the London's National Theatre to small monuments such as the structures at Dudley Zoological

Gardens and a sculpture by Donald Judd The projects also represent a range of environmental and economic contexts Some projects benefit from high levels of heritage protection and access to funding while others have had to negotiate conservation with stringent cost limitations All follow a rigorous conservation approach beginning with a process of investigation and diagnosis to identify causes and target repairs and balancing these with conservation requirements to preserve significance Written by architects engineers conservators scholars and other professionals in the field these highly detailed and well illustrated studies demonstrate sound practice rigorous methodology and technological innovation and represent the vibrancy of the field as it stands today This book has something to offer anyone interested in the conservation of modern heritage Revolving house Tiziano Casartelli,2006 Proceedings of the 6th International Conference on Construction,
