Men's Work in Preventing Violence Against Women Christie Cozad Neuger, James Newton Poling, 2014-02-25 Promote effective partnerships between men and women to end domestic violence Men's Work in Preventing Violence Against Women examines the experiences of 12 practicing counselors who call on their religious training to form partnerships between men and women that promote an end to domestic violence In both religious and secular settings the bulk of the work done to end violence against women is done by women survivors who have become activists and advocates who have been touched by the witness of survivors Motivating and educating men to share the everyday work of domestic violence shelters rape crisis counseling and abuse prevention is essential This book challenges traditional images of masculinity exploring effective and ineffective methods of helping men face their own sexism and change their behavior toward the goal of ending domestic violence Each contributor to Men's Work in Preventing Violence Against Women approached the concept of man woman partnerships working to end domestic violence and sexual assault with the following questions in mind In your experience and social world have you seen creative partnerships between men and women that made a difference Have you seen men in counseling struggle to change their views on gender in order to become reliable allies in the fight to end violence against women How can religion become a resource for men working to become allies with women What strategies can men use to help end violence against women Men's Work in Preventing Violence Against Women includes contributions from Paul Kivel cofounder of the Oakland Men's Project and of Gvarim Bay Area Jewish Men Against Violence David Livingston author of Healing Violent Men A Model for Christian Communities Al Miles author of Domestic Violence What Every Pastor Should Know and Richard Wallace Jr editor of the Journal of Ministry in Addiction Recovery Haworth Each essay presents practical and theoretical ideas guidelines for partnerships and insightful information on sexual and domestic violence Topics addressed include Jewish male violence holding Christian men accountable for domestic violence shared experiences of batterers and the people who treat them premarital preparation the dynamics of power in pastoral care engaging Scripture with male abusers helping men become pro feminist Men's Work in Preventing Violence Against Women is an essential resource for counselors social workers clergy laypersons and anyone else working to end domestic violence and sexual abuse against women

Violence in Families Al Miles, Straightforward facts about a frightening issue

Beyond Abuse in the Christian Home Catherine Clark Kroeger, Nancy Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, 2008-08-15 In January 2004 a newly founded evangelical organization called PASCH was formed The word denotes the Passover or time of new beginnings when God kept people safe in their own homes before leading them into freedom from abuse and oppression Yet the word PASCH also stands for Peace and Safety in the Christian Home PASCH began as a small group of therapists sociologists domestic violence experts clergy biblical scholars survivors and dedicated Christians In essence PASCH was born out of the cries confusion and frustration of the people of God As we encountered many horrifying situations of domestic abuse in Christian homes those of us who seek to address various aspects of the issue concluded that we needed a fellowship of concerted study prayer and action It was the dream of Catherine Clark Kroeger that an edited book might emerge from the 2005 and 2006 PASCH conferences in order that the papers presentations and discussions might be widely available We found that to make that happen we needed to work together that each of us possessed one piece of the puzzle and that by God s grace we could collectively begin to put the pieces together The topic of abuse is ugly which is why so many Christians shy away from discussing it But in this volume we have tried to present an accurate faith based analysis of abuse in the Christian family context We hope that various chapters stimulate discussion sometimes debate and in so doing prompt pastor and people to action We call on you the reader to consider the various ideas and perspectives offered throughout the book Hopefully each chapter will prompt you to consider afresh how you conceptualize violence among families of faith Like you the reader the contributors to our collection come from various faith traditions work in different contexts and see the issue in part based on their own narrative and training Yet despite our differences and our ongoing debates we are unanimous that violence has no place in the home Every home should be a safe place every home a shelter When abuse occurs in families of faith it is the responsibility of the church to offer compassion and support to victims and to call those who act abusively to accountability and justice Our edited collection includes Dan Allender speaking from the heart about the impact of the fall on relationships between men and women Al Miles reflecting on his pastoral experience of the difficulties and opportunities of speaking out against violence in Christian families Bruce and Karen McAndless Davis offering one couple s story of the long journey toward accountability and dramatic change Julie Owens retelling her own dramatic story of abuse the life imprisonment of her ex partner and what she wished every pastor knew about domestic violence

Ministry Among God's Queer Folk, Second Edition Bernard Schlager, David Kundtz, 2019-01-21 This practical pastoral care handbook written by two self described queer people of faith covers the basic skills that religious caregivers and ministry students need in order to be effective enlightened and supportive pastoral care providers to LGBTQ persons in congregational and other community settings Authors Schlager and Kundtz distinguish pastoral care from pastoral counseling while the latter is reserved for those with special training in the practice of therapy the former can be developed by ministers and lay people with sufficient education and practice This book requires of the reader no previous experience with LGBTQ communities and treats the following topics the definition and functions of pastoral care effective care in challenging times coming out of the closet creating communities of care and caring for a wide variety of LGBTQ relationships The authors provide case studies throughout the book to ground and illustrate their theology of pastoral care

Fifty Two Mondays Marianne J. De Deugd, 2008-10 The Monday of everyday life inevitably comes after a restful Sunday fifty two times a year Just as the idyllic moves into the mundane so a couple quickly moves from the honeymoon to the work of a marital relationship Small or large every marriage has rough spots Fifty Two

Mondays acknowledges that the everyday or married life can begin to divide what God has put together In this age of irreconcilable differences and no fault divorce couples are trading marriage for separation at a staggering rate Regrettably Christian couples are no different Fortunately God is still the Author of hope You can enjoy the kind of marriage God intended with your mate even on the Mondays because God has not left us in the dark Instead He provided the perfect guide to marital success in the Bible Fifty Two Mondays provides a fresh understanding of the biblical principles and practical application needed to fully enjoy life as one Dr Marianne de Deugd has been a full time Christian counselor for over twenty years and currently serves as the director of Royal Palm Ministries Counseling and Training Center in Fort Myers Florida She has obtained a doctorate of ministry in counseling as well as master s degrees in counseling and biblical counseling Dr de Deugd is certified by the National Association of Nouthetic Counselors Peacemaker Ministries and Prison Fellowship Marianne is a frequent speaker seminar leader and author She draws extensively from the experience gained during thirty four years of marriage to her husband Bill Marianne and Bill have four children and have successfully navigated over 1700 Mondays

Confessions of a Good Christian Girl Tammy Maltby,2008-01-01 You already know the women you ll meet in this book They may sit beside you in the pew or join you at small group or touch your heart from a speaker s podium They have all been saved They all love the Lord And yet One struggles with suicidal despair Another is involved with adultery pornography or a same sex attraction Another endures regular beatings or worse by someone who claims to love her Another is divorced or thinking about it This one drinks secretly or doctor shops for pain pills That one wrestles with depression or bipolar disorder And many others feel they can never be thin enough beautiful enough successful enough or Christian enough to be loved or accepted They re all good Christian girls who have been broken by sin their own and others They all needed the honest life giving truth at the heart of this book Do you Tammy Maltby addresses issues that aren t discussed much in church circles private sins that she and other women have battled
