Violent Geographies Fear Terror And Political Violence:

Spaces of Terror Derek Gregory, Allan Pred, 2005 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Geography John A. Agnew, Virginie Mamadouh, Anna Secor, Joanne Sharp, 2017-07-24 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Geography aims to account for the intellectual and worldly developments that have taken place in and around political geography in the last 10 years Bringing together established names in the field as well as new scholars it highlights provocative theoretical and conceptual debates on political geography from a range of global perspectives Discusses the latest developments and places increased emphasis on modes of thinking contested key concepts and on geopolitics climate change and terrorism Explores the influence of the practice based methods in geography and concepts including postcolonialism feminist geographies the notion of the Anthropocene and new understandings of the role of non human actors in networks of power Offers an accessible introduction to political geography for those in allied fields including political science international relations and sociology Political Geography Rachael Squire, Anna Jackman, 2023-11-01 This innovative and thought provoking text will teach you about the diverse and increasingly expansive sub discipline of geopolitics Divided into three sections Political Geography draws on case studies from a diverse range of scales contexts and demographics to introduce you to the key approaches concepts and futures of geopolitics You will cover an extensive range of key topics in Political Geography from feminist geopolitics to non human worlds and nationalism to peace and resistance Throughout this first edition you will apply various theoretical lenses utilise a wide range of examples both past and present and draw on cutting edge scholarship to reinvigorate your understanding of important themes such as the state borders and territory Based on the award winning course at RHUL Political Geography includes a variety of sites spaces materials and images alongside In the field tips ideas for practical dissertation research and tasks to facilitate active follow on learning Case studies key terms key questions and learning exercises and annotated readings are included throughout every chapter to aid understanding and help you to engage and reflect on the content Designed as a core text for undergraduates and an introductory text for postgraduates with an interest in Political Geography Rachael Squire is lecturer in Human Geography at Royal Holloway University of London Anna Jackman is lecturer in Human Geography at University of Reading Intimate Economies of Immigration Detention Deirdre Conlon, Nancy Hiemstra, 2016-08-05 International migration has been described as one of the defining issues of the twenty first century While a lot is known about the complex nature of migratory flows surprisingly little attention has been given to one of the most prominent responses by governments to human mobility the practice of immigration detention Intimate Economies of Immigration Detention provides a timely intervention offering much needed scrutiny of the ideologies policies and practices that enable the troubling unparalleled and seemingly unbridled growth of immigration detention around the world An international collection of scholars provide crucial new insights into immigration detention recounting at close range how detention s effects ricochet from personal and everyday experiences to broader political economic social and cultural spheres Contributors draw on original research in the US Australia Europe and beyond to scrutinise the increasingly tangled relations associated with detention operation and migration management With new theoretical and empirical perspectives on detention the chapters collectively present a toolbox for better understanding the forces behind and broader implications of the seemingly uncontested rise of immigration detention This book is of great interest to those who study political economy economic geography and immigration policy as well as policy makers interested in immigration

Taming the Imperial Imagination Martin J. Bayly, 2016-05-19 Taming the Imperial Imagination marks a novel intervention into the debate on empire and international relations and offers a new perspective on nineteenth century Anglo Afghan relations Martin J Bayly shows how throughout the nineteenth century the British Empire in India sought to understand and control its peripheries through the use of colonial knowledge Addressing the fundamental question of what Afghanistan itself meant to the British at the time he draws on extensive archival research to show how knowledge of Afghanistan was built refined and warped by an evolving colonial state This knowledge informed policy choices and cast Afghanistan in a separate legal and normative universe Beginning with the disorganised exploits of nineteenth century explorers and ending with the cold strategic logic of the militarised scientific frontier this book tracks the nineteenth century origins of contemporary policy expertise and the forms of knowledge that inform interventions in Iraq Afghanistan and elsewhere today

Theatre on Terror Ariane de Waal, 2017-05-08 In a moment of intense uncertainty surrounding the means ends and limits of countering terrorism this study approaches the recent theatres of war through theatrical stagings of terror Theatre on Terror Subject Positions in British Drama charts the terrain of contemporary subjectivities both at home and on the front line Beyond examining the construction and contestation of subject positions in domestic and sub urban settings the book follows border crossing figures to the shifting battlefields in Iraq and Afghanistan What emerges through the analysis of twenty one plays is not a dichotomy but a dialectics of home and front where fluid uncontainable subjects are constantly pushing the contours of conflict Revising the critical consensus that post 9 11 drama primarily engages with the real Ariane de Waal argues that these plays navigate the complexities of the discourse rather than the historical or social realities of war and terrorism British theatre on terror negotiates inflects and participates in the discursive circulation of stories idioms controversies testimonies and pieces of mis information in the face of global insecurities

An Introduction to the Geopolitics of Conflict, Nationalism, and Reconciliation in Ireland Kara E. Dempsey, 2022-07-29 This book examines ethnoterritorial conflict and reconciliation in Ireland from the 1916 Rising to Brexit 2021 including the production and consequences of the island s two distinct political units Highlighting key geographic themes of bordering unity division and national narratives it explores how geopolitical space has been employed over time to re define divided national allegiances throughout Ireland and within Irish British relations The analysis draws from in depth interviews and archival research and spans supranational state municipal neighborhood and individual scales The book pays particular attention to uneven power structures statecraft perceived truths lived experiences reconciliation efforts and renegotiations of national narratives in the production of symbolic landscapes divided cities and shared space An Introduction to the Geopolitics of Conflict Nationalism and Reconciliation in Ireland provides readers with an analysis of geopolitical power relations and different spatial productions of conflict and peacebuilding in Ireland Offering deeper understanding of these historic and contemporary geopolitical intersections this book makes a valuable contribution to the fields of Political Geography Border Studies Irish Studies European Studies International Relations Cultural Geography and Regional Studies Simon Dalby: A Pioneer in International Relations Simon Dalby, Roger Boyd, 2025-06-11 This book profiles Simon Dalby's academic contributions in the fields of critical geopolitics environmental security and the intersection of international relations and the Anthropocene It includes reprints of key essays that highlight innovations in critical thought at the intersections between geopolitics environment and security Starting with an analysis of American reconstructions of the Soviet threat in the 1970s an early contribution to the emerging field of critical geopolitics subsequent papers focus on the emergent formulations of environmental security in the aftermath of the Cold War and the environmental costs of globalization Focusing on the implicit geographical framing in discourses of globalization offered a critique that extended the ambit of critical geopolitics to grapple with the issues of environmental security and the rising concern with climate change as well as the political identities invoked in that debate In the aftermath of 9 11 similar arguments about contextualization applied to the American global war on terror and the revival of discussions of empire and its geographies both in arguments for invading Iraq as well as the wider discussions in policy discourse and popular culture Simultaneously the emergence of earth system science and the concept of the Anthropocene offered another way to highlight the dangers of fossil fueled economic activities The necessity of fundamentally rethinking the premises of security policy in light of this recontextualization is emphasized in more recent contributions on climate security and the current ecological crisis Critical geopolitics Environmental security Global war on terror Firepower in the Anthropocene

Geopolitics Jason Dittmer, Jo Sharp, 2014-06-27 It has been increasingly impossible to think about our changing world without coming across the term geopolitics In the wake of the invasion and occupation of Iraq by the United States United Kingdom and others geopolitics has been offered as an explanation for the occupation's failure to reinvent the Iraqi state and as a blueprint for future action But what is geopolitics Drawing both on academic and political material this book introduces readers to the concept of geopolitics from the first usage of the term to its more recent reconceptualisations The concept of geopolitics is introduced through four thematic sections Imperial Geopolitics Cold War Geopolitics Geopolitics after the Cold War and Reconceptualising Geopolitics Each section includes key writings from a range of diverse and leading authors such as Said Agnew Dalby O Tuathail Gregory Barnett and Kaplan and is accompanied by a critical introduction by the editors to guide the reader through the material This Reader establishes the foundations of geopolitics while also introducing readers to the continuing significance of the concept in the 21st century This Reader provides an essential resource that exposes students to original writing The Editors provide a pathway through the material with Section Introductions to assist the readers understanding of the context of the material and impacts of the writings The readings included draw from a range of authors writing from a range of locations The Reader concludes with the latest changes in geopolitical thought incorporating feminist and other perspectives
