Virtual Unrealities The Short Fiction Of Alfred Bester:

Virtual Unrealities Alfred Bester, 2013-05-31 Dazzlement and enchantment are Bester's methods. His stories never stand still a moment. Damon Knight, author of Why Do Birds, Alfred Bester took science fiction into hyperdrive, endowing it with a wit, speed, and narrative inventiveness that have inspired two generations of writers. And nowhere is Bester funnier, speedier, or more audacious than in these seventeen short stories, two of them previously unpublished that have now been brought together in a single volume for the first time. Read about the sweet-natured young man whose phenomenal good luck turns out to be disastrous for the rest of humanity. Find out why tourists are flocking to a hellish little town in a post-nuclear Kansas. Meet a warlock who practices on Park Avenue and whose potions comply with the Pure Food and Drug Act. Make a deal with the Devil but not without calling your agent. Dazzling, effervescent, sexy, and sardonic, Virtual Unrealities is a historic collection from one of science fiction's true pathbreakers. Alfred Bester was one of the handful of writers who invented modern science fiction. Harry Harrison, Alfred Bester (1913-1987) was the author of two of science fiction's seminal works, The Demolished Man and The Stars My Destination. He also wrote some fast-moving, sizzling short stories that were very highly regarded; many of them are included in the 17 stories showcased in Virtual Realities, two of which were never before published. Highlights include Disappearing Act, in which shell-shocked soldiers vanish from their hospital ward; Hobson's Choice, in which a statistician uncovers a disturbing population trend in post-nuclear Kansas; Time Is the Traitor, wherein powerful business people manipulate their most valuable consultant; and The Devil Without Glasses, a conspiracy tale with an X-Files feel. The science fiction and literary classic Fondly Fahrenheit stars wealthy Vandaleur and his mad android who has an unfortunate habit of turning murderous when the temperature gets too hot. All reprinted.

Virtual Unrealities: The Short Fiction of Alfred Bester

Alfred Bester, Roger Zelazny, 1997-11-01 Available for the first time in a single volume, the pioneering short stories of Alfred Bester, author of The Stars My Destination, including two never before published pieces. Alfred Bester Jad

Smith, 2016-12-01 Alfred Bester's classic short stories and the canonical novel The Stars My Destination made him a science fiction legend. Fans and scholars praise him as a genre-bending pioneer and cyberpunk forefather. Writers like Neil Gaiman and William Gibson celebrate his prophetic vision and stylistic innovations. Jad Smith traces the career of the unlikelyst of SF icons. Winner of the first Hugo Award for The Demolished Man, Bester also worked in comics, radio, and TV, and his intermittent SF writing led some critics to brand him a dabbler. In the 1960s, however, New Wave writers championed his work, and his reputation grew. Smith follows Bester's journey from consummate outsider to an artist venerated for foundational works that influenced the New Wave and cyberpunk revolutions. He also explores the little-known roots of a wayward journey fueled by curiosity, disappointment with the SF mainstream, and an artist's determination to go his own way.

Psycho Shop Alfred Bester & Roger Zelazny, 2013-06-17 A dark, acid, curio, brisk, fast, memorable, a rare improvisational duet from two of our best. Greg Bear: Alfred Bester was one of the handful of writers who invented modern science fiction.

Harry Harrison author of Adventures of the Stainless Steel Rat Let there be light and let there always be Roger Zelazny Philip Jos Farmer author of To Your Scattered Bodies Go From Publishers Weekly This odd novel left incomplete when Bester died in 1987 was finished by Zelazny who himself died in 1995 In his introduction Bear refers to Bester The Deceivers and Zelazny Donnerjack as masters of SF jazz geniuses of improvisation and the book has that feel to it The plot is full of bizarre twists and turns Neat ideas surface and disappear in an eyeblink and characters transform radically from one page to the next Alf Noir an investigative reporter is sent to Rome to look into the mysterious Black Place of the Soul Changer and its enigmatic proprietor Adam Maser Alf discovers that Maser is a Psychbroker a sort of pawnbroker of the spirit dealing in emotions talents and psychological traits Want more courage the ability to see into the infrared an understanding of ancient Persian Maser will trade it to you for your mind reading ability or a rare coin or perhaps for the secret of the collective unconscious Alf discovers that Maser isn't human but a highly evolved cat from the far future Nothing is what it seems and no one can be trusted not even Maser's sexy assistant an evolved snake with whom Alf has an affair There's much fun to be had here but the book doesn't represent either writer in top form Bester's style in the first part of the novel seems dated and things don't gel until Zelazny takes over halfway through the book Vintage has brought Bester's finest work back into print and for this it deserves praise but this novel is most likely to appeal to Zelazny's much larger readership The Mammoth
