The Lost History of Cosmopolitanism Leigh T.I. Penman, 2020-11-26 The Lost

History of Cosmopolitanism challenges our most basic assumptions about the history of an ideal at the heart of modernity Beginning in antiquity and continuing through to today Leigh T I Penman examines how European thinkers have understood words like kosmopolites cosmopolite cosmopolitan and its cognates The debates over their meanings show that there has never been a single stable cosmopolitan concept but rather a range of concepts sacred and secular inclusive and exclusive all described with the cosmopolitan vocabulary While most scholarly attention in the history of cosmopolitanism has focussed on Greek and Roman antiquity or the Enlightenments of the 18th century this book shows that the crucial period in the evolution of modern cosmopolitanism was early modernity Between 1500 and 1800 philosophers theologians cartographers jurists politicians alchemists and heretics all used this vocabulary shedding ancient associations and adding new ones at will The chaos of discourses prompted thinkers to reflect on the nature of the cosmopolitan ideal and to conceive of an abstract cosmopolitanism for the first time This meticulously researched book provides the first intellectual history of an overlooked period in the evolution of a core ideal As such The Lost History of Cosmopolitanism is an essential work for anyone seeking a contextualised understanding of cosmopolitanism today

Cosmopolitanism in Twenty-First Century Fiction Kristian Shaw, 2017-03-27 Cosmopolitanism contains some of the most polished and enviably well written chapters of literary criticism that have ever come my way Shaw s readings are critically informed and theoretically sophisticated yet at the same time remarkably lucid and clear This is a work of very fine well balanced and for a first book astonishingly mature scholarship Prof Berthold Schoene Head of Research and Knowledge Exchange Manchester Metropolitan University UK The first study to fully appreciate contemporary literature s engagement with cosmopolitanism A persuasive and articulate engagement with questions of ethics community transnationalism and cultural identity it s an essential read for anyone interested in the contribution of contemporary fiction to our world today Dr Sara Upstone Principal Lecturer in English Literature Kingston University UK This study of cosmopolitanism in contemporary British and American fiction identifies several authors who forge new and intensified dialogues between local experience and global flows The twenty first century has been marked by an unprecedented intensification in globalisation transnational mobility and technological change The theories and values of cosmopolitanism will be argued to provide a direct response to ways of being in relation to others and answer urgent fears surrounding cultural convergence The four chapters examine works by David Mitchell Zadie Smith Teju Cole Dave Eggers and Hari Kunzru The study will demonstrate how these authors imagine new cosmopolitan modes of belonging and point towards the need for an emergent and affirmative cosmopolitics attuned to the diversity and complexity of twenty first century globality The study assumes an interdisciplinary approach and will appeal to literature academics under postgraduate students and researchers interested in the culture and politics of contemporary life
