Visions for Black Men Na'im Akbar, 1993 Visions for Black Men Naim Akbar, 1991-08-01 NEW VISIONS FOR BLACK MEN. NA'IM. AKBAR, 2016 Cross-cultural Visions in African American Modernism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2006 Yoshinobu Hakutani traces the development of African American modernism which initially gathered momentum with Richard Wright's literary manifesto Blueprint for Negro Writing in 1937 Hakutani dissects and discusses the cross cultural influences on the then burgeoning discipline in three stages American dialogues European and African cultural visions and Asian and African American cross cultural visions In writing Black Boy the centerpiece of the Chicago Renaissance Wright was inspired by Theodore Dreiser Because the European and African cultural visions that Wright Ralph Ellison Alice Walker and Toni Morrison acquired were buttressed by the universal humanism that is common to all cultures this ideology is shown to transcend the problems of society Fascinated by Eastern thought and art Wright Walker Sonia Sanchez and James Emanuel wrote highly accomplished poetry and prose Like Ezra Pound Wright was drawn to classic haiku as reflected in the 4 000 haiku he wrote at the end of his life As W B Yeats's symbolism was influenced by his cross cultural visions of noh theatre and Irish folklore so is James Emanuel's jazz haiku energized by his cross cultural rhythms of Japanese poetry and African American music The book demonstrates some of the most visible cultural exchanges in modern and postmodern African American literature Such a study can be extended to other contemporary African American writers whose works also thrive on their cross cultural visions such as Amiri Baraka Ishmael Reed Charles Johnson and haiku poet Lenard Moore Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents Kirkland C. Vaughans, Warren

Spielberg,2014-06-30 Drawing on personal insights and research based knowledge this important work facilitates understanding of the psychological struggles of young African American males and offers ameliorative strategies Despite examples set by successful black men in all walks of life the truth remains that a disproportionate number of black boys and young men underperform at school suffer from PTSD and too often find themselves on a pathway to jail The two volume The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents marks the first attempt to catalog the many psychological influences that can stack the deck against black male children and to suggest interventions Bringing together an expansive collection of new and classic research from a wide variety of disciplines this set sheds light on the complex circumstances faced by young black men in the United States Contributions by authors Kirkland Vaughans and Warren Spielberg contain insights from the groundbreaking Brotherman study conducted over a ten year period to report on the lives and psychological challenges of over a hundred African American boys and their families Among the myriad issues studied in this set are the often negative expectations of society the influence of gangs and the impact of racism and poverty Of equal importance the work explores culturally specific ways to engage families youths communities and policymakers in the development of healthy safe educated boys who will become whole and successful adults Men Educators of Color in U.S. Public Schools and Abroad Ashley N. Woodson,Travis J. Bristol,2023-12-11 This book reflects the diversity and possibility of critical research in education with an emphasis on the examination of the intersections of social identities for men teachers of color and the relationship between social identity and struggles for political and professional agency The authors address race and race inequality in education and provide a strong theoretical foundation for filling the empirical gap on men teachers of color by engaging in questions such as How do critical considerations of the intersection of race gender and profession inform the future of teacher education What does it mean to be men or of color in the context of the teaching profession in the U S and abroad What are the aims of ethnoracial diversity in the field of education The research included in this edited volume explores topics including but not limited to men teachers of color and their perceived pathways to the profession their perceptions of and partnerships with colleagues of other genders their sexual and gendered identities and performances and how they embrace reject or negotiate the expectations of performing as a role model in classrooms Moreover the chapters provide explicit implications for teachers teacher educators university and PK 12 administrators education activists and or education policymakers In sum this volume charts a new landscape in education research for all men teachers of color The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Race Ethnicity and Education Black Men Built the Capitol Jesse Holland,2007-09-01 The first book of its kind with comprehensive up to date details Historic sites along the Mall such as the U S Capitol building the White House and the Lincoln Memorial are explored from an entirely new perspective in this book with never before told stories and statistics about the role of blacks in their creation This is an iconoclastic guide to Washington D C in that it shines a light on the African Americans who have not traditionally been properly credited for actually building important landmarks in the city New research by a top Washington journalist brings this information together in a powerful retelling of an important part of our country's history In addition the book includes sections devoted to specific monuments such as the African American Civil War Memorial the real Uncle Tom's cabin the Benjamin Banneker Overlook and Frederick Douglass Museum the Hall of Fame for Caring Americans and other existing statues memorials and monuments It also details the many other places being planned right now to house for the first time rich collections of black American history that have not previously been accessible to the public such as the soon to open Smithsonian Institution National Museum of African American History and Culture and the Martin Luther King Jr National Monument as well as others opening over the next decade This book will be a source of pride for African Americans who live in or come from the D C Maryland and Virginia area as well as for the 18 million annual African American visitors to our nation's capital Jesse J Holland is a political journalist who lives in the Capitol Hill neighborhood of Washington D C He is the Congressional legal affairs correspondent for the Associated Press and his stories frequently appear in the New York Times and other major papers In 2004 Holland became the first African American elected to Congressional Standing Committee of Correspondents which represents the entire press corps before the Senate and the House of Representatives A graduate of the University of Mississippi he is a frequent lecturer at universities and media talk shows across the country

The Media War on Black Male Youth in Urban Education Darius Prier, 2017-03-27 News media film and the music industry have become powerful sources of misrepresentation of Black male life in the social imagination of white society The pedagogy of popular culture has important implications for educators and youth advocates who desire to challenge the myths and distortions that ultimately harm youth This volume raises awareness of the media war on Black male youth in popular culture and the impact this image battle has on the discriminatory treatment of the population in urban educational settings Citing the recent controversial deaths of Trayvon Martin and Jordan Davis the portrayal of black males in contemporary films and the locus of hip hop masculinities this volume offers a unique framework for analyzing how contemporary image making practices affect Black male youth in urban education It also offers ethical considerations for educators in their critique consumption and reading of Black male subjectivity in media and provides avenues for practical applications of critical media literacy on the ground

African American Women and Sexuality in the Cinema Norma Manatu, 2014-01-10 The representation of African American women is an important issue in the overall study of how women are portrayed in film and has received serious attention in recent years Traditionally women of color particularly African American women have been at the margins of studies of women's on screen depictions or excluded altogether This work focuses exclusively on the sexual objectification of African American women in film from the 1980s to the early 2000s Critics of the negative sexual imagery have long speculated that control by African American filmmakers would change how African American women are depicted This work examines sixteen films made by males both white and black to see how the imagery might change with the race of the filmmaker Four dimensions are given special attention the diversity of the women s roles and relationships with men the sexual attitudes of the African American female characters their attitudes towards men and their nonverbal and verbal sexual behaviors This work also examines the role culture has played in perpetuating the images how film influences viewers perception of African American women and their sexuality and how the imagery polarizes women by functioning as a regulator of their sexual behaviors based on cultural definitions of the feminine
