Visualizing The Holocaust Screen Cultures German Film And The Visual:

Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick, Brad Prager, Michael David Richardson, 2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos Essays consider the uses of various visual media aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust the uses of perpetrator photography the role of trauma in memory aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann Celan and others and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College

Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany s well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema

Hitler - Films from Germany K. Machtans, M. Ruehl, 2012-11-30 The first book length study to critically examine the recent wave of Hitler biopics in German cinema and television A group of international experts discuss films like Downfall in the context of earlier portrayals of Hitler and draw out their implications for the changing place of the Third Reich in the national historical imagination The Second World War in the Twenty-First-Century Museum Stephan Jaeger, 2020-02-24 The Second World War is omnipresent in contemporary memory debates As the war fades from living memory this study is the first to systematically analyze how Second World War museums allow prototypical visitors to comprehend and experience the past It analyzes twelve permanent exhibitions in Europe and North America including the Bundeswehr Military History Museum in Dresden the Museum of the Second World War in Gdańsk the House of European History in Brussels the Imperial War Museums in London and Manchester and the National WWII Museum in New Orleans in order to show how museums reflect and shape cultural memory as well as their cognitive ethical emotional and aesthetic potential and effects This includes a discussion of representations of events such as the Holocaust and air warfare In relation to narrative memory and experience the study develops the concept of experientiality on a sliding scale between mimetic and structural forms which provides a new textual spatial method for reading exhibitions and understanding the experiences of historical individuals and collectives It is supplemented by concepts like transnational memory empathy and encouraging critical thinking through difficult knowledge repercusión ha dado lugar a un transnational turn. Los artículos que integran este libro pueden ser leídos bajo esta luz como ejemplos de una perspectiva que se focaliza en las interacciones entre lo global y lo local explorando aquello que Michael Rothberg llama cualidad anacrónica de la memoria o mejor su potencial político. En síntesis este libro presenta un panorama de los objetos de interés actuales de algunos de los más renombrados representantes de los estudios sobre memoria y Derechos Humanos como Pilar Calveiro, Rosario Figari, Lay y Gabriella Citroni incluyendo autores que no habían sido traducidos al español: Michael Rothberg, Gabriele Schwab y Philippe Mesnard a fin de contribuir a la continuación del diálogo sobre una problemática que sigue siendo crucial.
